

More Information

Where can I get more information?

For more information about the overall diocesan campaign, please visit evdio.org.

For more information about St John's portion of the campaign, please visit sjbnewburgh.org.

In the coming months, we will be especially attentive to providing every piece of information we have. If you have any comments, questions, or concerns, please call the parish office or find a staff member before or after Mass.

