Spring 2018 Novena

April 21st - 29th

with

Fr. Albert Haase, OFM

“When The Saints Come Marching”

(Ordinary People—Extraordinary Lives)

We are looking forward to having Fr. Albert back for our Spring Novena. He is a priest, preacher, teacher and spiritual director. With his enthusiasm, insight, inspirational style of communication and humor...there is never a dull minute. His theme is appropriate for this area as well as being held during Jazz fest. We wonder if he planned it that way??

He was born and raised in New Orleans and hasn't lost his accent. He was ordained a priest in the Franciscan order in 1983 and has traveled the world ever since. He is on the road preaching and teaching 47 weeks of the year. In his spare time he is also a writer. We thank him for his wonderful article about our Novenas here...published in the St. Anthony Messenger! He is especially known for his parish missions and his one day workshops on the spiritual life.

It is our pleasure to welcome him back to “our city” and “his home town”.

Fr. Albert's Novena talks will remind us of how Ordinary People became Extraordinary Saints.

Anointing of the sick

after each Mass on Friday, April 27th

Homily will be given during the Mass and the Novena immediately after the Mass.

This prayer was found on Mother Teresa's wall after she died. She said this prayer everyday!

People are often unreasonable and self centered .

Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind people may accuse you of ulterior motives

Be kind anyway.

If you are honest, people may cheat you.

Be honest anyway.

If you find happiness, people may be jealous.

Be happy anyway.

The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow.

Do good anyway.

Give the world the best you have and it may never be good enough.

Give your best anyway.

For you see, in the end, it is between you and God.

It was never between you and them anyway.

St. Jude Thaddeus'

"Peace Garden"

For many years, St. Jude made missionary journeys, preaching and dispensing the Sacraments throughout Mesopotamia, Armenia and Southern Russia. One day an enraged mob bludgeoned him to death. This is the reason St. Jude is depicted holding a club—in memory of his martyrdom. St. Jude was a tireless worker—he tried—he even dared to try the impossible: and he was successful! Please send your prayers and intentions in the enclosed envelope so we can put it on the altar during the Novena and pray for you and those you hold dear .

A Note from Fr. Tony. (This is one of his favorite prayers.

Let nothing trouble you. Let nothing frighten you.

All things pass away. God never changes.

Patience obtains all things. Those who have God, Lack nothing. God alone suffices.

God Bless you all!

(St. Teresa of Jesus)
