A letter from our pastor, Father Matt/Una carta de nuestro párroco, Padre Mateo

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today's first reading, which comes from the fifteenth chapter of the book of Sirach, is about choices: "If you choose you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him." Sirach is encouraging us to choose to follow God and walk in His ways. When Jesus speaks of the commandments, He is challenging. When speaking of and interpreting the commandments in today's Gospel (Mt. 5:17-37), this is the one area where Jesus appears stricter than the scribes and the Pharisees. He defends the Law and the prophets, expounds on the Law, says that "whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven," and warns His disciples not to narrowly interpret the Law as simply being a checklist, as being something solely external. The Law helps us to follow God. Behind every commandment is a virtue (the "why" of the rule) that can and should extend to other parts of one's life. Jesus is always challenging us to go deeper, to see the why, which is often about faith, humility, charity, purity, responsibility, integrity, respect, and self-control, and to follow Him.

One time in which we think about how well we are following Jesus is Lent. Ash Wednesday is quickly approaching: February 26. I encourage you to start thinking about Lenten practices this year, particularly around each discipline: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. We have Lenten reflection booklets in the narthex, a Lenten mission next month on recognizing God's presence, Stations of the Cross, daily Mass and Vespers, weekly adoration, additional confession times, and the fish fry on Fridays.

Also, I encourage you to attend the informational meeting on ChristLife this Sunday the 16th. We are looking for volunteers, and I invite you to participate and to invite others to the series. It will help us to discover Christ and follow Him.

Know of my prayers for you and your loved ones, and please continue to pray for one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

La primera lectura de hoy, que es del capítulo quince del libro de Sirácides, nos da dos opciones: "Si tú lo quieres, puedes guardar los mandamientos; permanecer fiel a ellos es cosa tuya. El Señor ha puesto delante de ti fuego y agua; extiende la mano a lo que quieras. Delante del hombre están la muerte y la vida; le será dado lo que él escoja." Nos anima a elegir seguir a Dios y caminar en sus caminos. Cuando nuestro Señor Jesús habla sobre los mandamientos en el Evangelio de hoy (Mt. 5: 17-37), parece más estricto que los escribas y los fariseos. Defiende la Ley y los profetas, expone la Ley, dice que "el que los cumpla y los enseñe, será grande en el Reino de los cielos." y advierte a Sus discípulos que no interpreten la Ley como simplemente una lista de verificación, como algo únicamente externo. La ley nos ayuda a seguir a Dios. Detrás de cada mandamiento hay una virtud (el "por qué" de la regla) que puede y debe extenderse a otras partes de la vida. Jesús siempre nos reta a profundizar, a ver el por qué, que a menudo se trata de fe, humildad, caridad, pureza, responsabilidad, integridad, y respeto y seguirlo.

Una vez en la que pensamos qué tan bien estamos siguiendo a Jesús es la Cuaresma. El miércoles de ceniza se acerca rápidamente: 26 de febrero. Les animo a iniciar pensando en las prácticas de Cuaresma, particularmente según cada disciplina: oración, ayuno y limosna. Tenemos libritos de reflexión cuaresmal en el nártex y habrán la viacrucis, misa diaria, Vísperas, adoración semanal, horas adicionales de confesión y el pescado frito los viernes.

Estoy rezando por ustedes y sus seres queridos, y por favor sigan rezando los unos por los otros.

En Cristo,
Padre Mateo

CHOICE

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

From the Chancellor, Diocese of Joliet LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. All from the age of 18 years up to the beginning of their 60th year are bound to fast on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.
5. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Church year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.
6. Those who are sick, pregnant, nursing, or whose health would adversely be affected by fasting or abstinence, should not consider themselves bound by these norms.

This weekend, and until our supply runs out, Lenten Magnificats, both in English & Spanish, will be available in the narthex at all Masses. The suggested donation is $1.00.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOU VOTER INFORMATION

"As Catholics/Christians we are not single-issue voters. A candidate's position on a single issue is not sufficient to guarantee a voter's support. Yet a candidate's position on a single issue that involves an intrinsic evil, such as support for legal abortion or the promotion of racism, may legitimately lead a voter to disqualify a candidate from receiving support." Faithful Citizenship NCCB 2016

Since it is difficult for the average citizen to find accurate information about how the many candidates stand on the life issues, Illinois Right to Life Action has prepared non-partisan voter information based on responses to a questionnaire, public statements, and/or voting records. This guide is not an endorsement and may not be used to advance the candidacy of any individual.

For information go to the IRL Action web site at www.VoteProLifeIllinois.com or call 630-358-0042 for assistance

VOTER REGISTRATION

If you have changed your address, changed your name, or turned 18 then you need to update your registration, or register for the first time. The deadline to register is February 19, twenty-seven days before the March 17 primary. Or you can register online until March 3rd at the Board of Election website <http://www.dupageco.org/election>. You can go to this website for any questions. PLEASE don't be indifferent. We need every person of faith to be ready to vote on March 17th. Christians could (and should) turn this state around.

Edmund Burke said, "All that is essential for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing."

SPEAKOUT ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

End the Injustice is the theme of the 2020 SpeakOut Illinois Conference on Saturday, February 29th, at Drury Lane Oakbrook, 100 Drury Lane, Oakbrook Terrace. The SpeakOut committee is comprised of dozens of pro-life and pro-family organizations who, once a year, present a lovely breakfast with outstanding speakers, and display tables where you can learn more about the good work that each organization specializes in.

Mary-Louise Hengesbaugh will be the featured speaker. She was the Respect Life Director for the Archdiocese of Chicago and is the Chair of Illinois Citizens for Ethic Political Action Committee (ICE-PAC). She also organized Girls Health First in response to the extreme 2019 abortion law in Illinois. As Miss Wisconsin she spoke to over 180,000 teens and young adults in 23 states on abstinence before marriage and is the author of Standing With Courage. You will learn how to fight for your values in a state that is deeply divided on issues regarding life.

Pastor Ceasar Leflore will receive the Henry Hyde Award in recognition of his years of pro-life work as founder and executive director of The Beloved Community Development Coalition, working for community transformation in the southeast suburbs of Chicago. He is a published author and holds positions with several pro-life and pro-family ministries both here in Illinois and nationally, including Life Education and Research Network (LEARN), Illinois Family Institute, Southland Coalition for Life and 40 Days for Life.

To register go to www.speakoutillinois.org or call Ann at 773-777-2900. Tickets are $65 before 2/17, $30 for Clergy and Students. Display area opens at 8:00 a.m. with a full breakfast and talks beginning at 9:00 a.m.

Several of us have attended this conference and it is always a very informative and worthwhile conference.

Your gift to the CMAA makes a difference

The opening report for the 2020 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) in today's bulletin illustrates how the 30 ministries supported through our annual appeal truly exemplify this year's theme, Be Kind and Merciful. These ministries allow the diocese to serve our most vulnerable brothers and sisters and assist parishes, including ours.

Our parish's goal for the 2020 CMAA is $105,700, with 70 percent of the amount we raise over this goal returned to us for our needs. Please prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year's CMAA and make a commitment next week during our CMAA Commitment/InPew Weekend.

Thank you for considering the most generous pledge possible to this year's annual appeal.

Bridge Communities Ash Wednesday Collection, February 26, 2020

In your contribution envelope packet there is a blue envelope for Supporting Bridge Communities, on Ash Wednesday. Please help our church help Bridge Communities whose mission is to transition homeless families to self-sufficiency by working with partners to provide mentoring, housing, and supportive services in DuPage County. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Sacrificial Giving-We are ever grateful for your loving generosity & sharing in the Ministries of serving the Lord at St. John the Baptist Parish.

Parish Collections-Abram tithed (giving at least 10%) as a symbol that he depended totally on God. Moses said tithing was holy and an act of worship. Yes, even Jesus talked about money because money is a necessary part of our lives and it is also a necessary part of the viability of the church. Our tithe is merely a way to recognize that. Each family should prayerfully discern their own situation and understand that tithing is God's plan for supporting the church and the poor. We are ever grateful for your generosity and sharing in the Ministries of Serving the Lord here at St. John the Baptist. Please help us meet our weekly needs of $22,941.

Why Cursillo?

Make a friend, be a friend, bring a friend to Christ, is one of the foundations of Cursillo. Have you invited a friend to attend a Cursillo weekend?

The Cursillo movement promotes not only personal spiritual growth, but recognizes that we are called by our baptism to be active apostolic members of the Body of Christ. The goal of the movement is not about "preaching the good news" but to become the good news and in a natural way; our actions will become evangelical in our daily lives.

"Why Cursillo" pamphlets can be a helpful aid in discussing Cursillo with your friends. Copies can be found in the narthex of the church.
