A letter from our pastor, Father Matt

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

A few weeks ago, Fr. Keith celebrated the second anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. Two weeks ago, it was a delight to be a part of Fr. Jim Olofson's ordination Mass and first Mass. Last week, I celebrated my tenth anniversary. It is hard to believe that it has been a decade since I knelt down before Bishop Sartain in the Cathedral of St. Raymond in Joliet and, after he had laid his hands over me and invoked the Holy Spirit, I rose from the marble floor different—I was a priest. As I celebrate the tenth anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood, I have spent some time thinking about the previous decade as a priest. Perhaps this letter is inspired by a bit of nostalgia, but I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to our Lord for this blessed vocation as well as share with you some of my memories and reflections surrounding that moment that changed my life and has brought me here.

First, I remember that sentiment of joy and nostalgia I felt as I walked down the center aisle of the Cathedral. On my ordination day, I remembered the many Masses I had attended there in previous years. I recalled spending time before the Lord in the altar of repose at the Cathedral on multiple Holy Thursdays as well as when I walked down that same aisle in the Cathedral to receive my high school diploma from the bishop eight years before that day. The Cathedral was more than a venue or a beautiful building to me; it was sacred, momentous, and memorable. I suppose the location impacted me because of what it symbolized and the memories it invoked: Christ and His Church had always been a part of the important and memorable moments of my life as well as that which transformed my life and gave it direction.

I felt transformed. As the bishop preached to the three of us to be ordained, it dawned on me that not only was I receiving a sacrament, but I was being changed. In the sacraments, something happens; something changes. In baptism, as water is poured upon a person, sin is washed away and sanctifying grace is given. In the holy Eucharist, bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Christ. During my ordination Mass, as the bishop preached, I realized that I would be the one changed when entering into the sacrament of Holy Orders. And life was different. After the ordination Mass, I spent the day being asked to bless hundreds of people, as well as objects of devotion, food, water, and even marriage anniversary rings. I was a public person, a representative of Christ and the Church; I was one who could bless people and things as well as forgive sins, one who could bring Christ to others. I represented more than myself, and the work that I was then able to do was not the work of my hands but only possible by the Holy Spirit. At the end of that ordination day, I remember sitting down, relaxing, and thinking to myself, "I can't believe I am a priest. I am still me, but I am a priest."

I thank God for this: I am a priest. I am still me, but I am a priest. Our Lord works with us and through us, and I am often humbled by this. At my ordination, when I promised "to resolve to be united more closely every day to Christ the High Priest, who offered himself for us to the Father as a pure sacrifice, and with him to consecrate" myself "to God for the salvation of all," I responded, "I do, with the help of God." God's help... I need God's help. We all need God's help. Let us continue to invoke our Lord. Let us ask Him to help us recognize His work in our lives and in our Church. Encountering Him, let us follow His will in our daily lives and, recognizing our limitations and His help, rely upon His grace to follow Him and live out our vocations. Let us also pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and holy matrimony: may many young men and women make the grace and love of Christ known and present in our communities and our world through working with Christ, relying on God's grace, and living out these holy vocations.

I am blessed to be a priest and be a part of the communities to whom the bishop has sent me. I give God thanks for you each day and remember you in my prayers. Please continue to pray for me, Fr. Keith, Fr. Jim, our deacons and seminarians, and one another.

In Christ,
Fr. Matt

PROMISES

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Abram tithed (giving at least 10%) as a symbol that he depended totally on God. Moses said tithing was holy and an act of worship. Yes, even Jesus talked about money because money is a necessary part of our lives and it is also a necessary part of the viability of the church. Our tithe is merely a way to recognize that. Each family should prayerfully discern their own situation and understand that tithing is God's plan for supporting the church and the poor. Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year, Father's Day is celebrated on June 17. There will be a special collection taken at Masses on June 16-17 to care for our infirmed and senior priests. The Fund for Diocesan Infirmed and Elderly Priests is a special way for the people of the Diocese of Joliet to express their concern for the welfare of those who have dedicated their lives in service to our pastoral care.

The money in this fund goes toward priests who need help with extraordinary medical expenses or suffer a catastrophic illness. It also provides for the care of the St. John Vianney Villa, home to several senior priests in the Diocese of Joliet.

Prayerfully consider making a donation to help our aged and sick priests as an expression of appreciation for all they have done in exemplifying Christ's mercy, through their spiritual guidance and celebration of the sacraments.

On behalf of all the active and senior priests of the diocese, I am grateful for your prayers and for your generous support of the Father's Day Collection for our aged and infirm diocesan priests. Please be assured of my prayers for you.

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet

WHEN YOU HAVE A CAR TO DONATE, YOU "AUTO THINK"...SVPD!

When you hear those radio ads encouraging the donation of your used car, please keep in mind that your car will most likely NOT be given to someone who can use it. Such cars are usually sold at auction or dismantled for the resale of their parts. That may serve the profit-purposes of a charitable organization. Yet it's not very practical for people who have serious transportation needs, but can't afford to buy a car.

On the other hand, when you donate your car to St. Vincent de Paul, once we have determined that it is safe and functional, we put it directly into the hands of a needy person or family, so it can be used...to drive to work, to go on family errands, or to meet the many other practical needs for getting around. We have no paper-work complications. And we have no large management salaries or administrative costs to pay. We simply serve the needy. So when you're ready to surrender your car, keep St. Vincent de Paul first on your list of options. Call 630-293-9755. We'll pick up the car and get it into the hands of someone who can really use it.

CATHOLICS FOR LIFE

"May the dignity of man according to the Creator's plan be spread." ~St. Pope John Paul II

Congratulations to our pastors, present and past, on the anniversaries of their ordinations, as well as our present parochial vicar: Fr. Matt Pratscher, 10 years; Fr. Tom Cargo, 40 years; Fr. John Sebahar, 60 years; Parochial Vicar Fr Keith Wolfe, 2 years.

May God bless them for answering his call to feed his sheep. May they be led by the Holy Spirit as they lead us on our spiritual journey here on earth. God has called them to be witnesses of Life through the administration of his sacraments, from our birth with the sacrament of baptism to our death with the sacrament of anointing of the sick. And may we assist them in their vocation through our prayers for them and the Church, participating in the Mass and sacraments, and giving of our time, talent and treasure. And may we be witnesses for Life through our actions and prayers.

If you forget to bring your filled baby bottles last weekend, please drop them off at the parish office. 100% of your donations will go to Waterleaf, a pro-life center which helps women in problem pregnancies who would otherwise be at risk for abortion, choose life for their babies.

Thank you for your generosity!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

St. John the Baptist Invites Children to . . .

Shipwrecked VBS: Rescued by Jesus

This summer all children are invited to a wonderful week of Vacation Bible School called Shipwrecked, on June 25-29th, from 9a until 12p, noon! At Shipwrecked, children/teens discover that Jesus rescues them. Kids participate in memorable Bible-learning activities, sing catchy songs, play teamwork-building games, make and devour yummy treats and experience one-of-a-kind Bible adventures. Plus, kids will learn to look for evidence of God all around them through something called God Sightings. Every morning we will begin our day with Mass at 9a in the Church. Each day concludes with the Sail Away Sendoff that gets everyone involved in living what they've learned. Family members and friends are encouraged to join in daily for Mass and at 11:30a in the gym for the Sail Away Sendoff.

We are looking for the following donations for this year's VBS:

This year we are helping Catholic Charities; we are collecting children's books. If you have some children's books you no longer need, we would love to supply the shelters with children's books! We are also helping Ronald McDonald House; we are collecting new toys, games and pop tabs-yes, just the tabs!

As always we are looking for props! Do you have a fishing boat we could use for a prop?

If you have any of the above donations, please drop them off in the parish office vestibule. If you have a fishing boat, please call Maureen at 630-668-0918, ext. 612, to discuss.

Thank you so much for your consideration and generosity!!!
