

Socks for the homeless in Waterbury

The Community Outreach Team of Our Lady of Loreto parish recently completed its Lenten Service Project. Distributions from a socks and coffee campaign to benefit Waterbury's homeless population were made in early April. Recipients included a number of local charitable organizations that help Waterbury's poor and homeless. Pictured are Barbara Carrington Lawlor and Marion Hubbard, of the Loreto Community Outreach Team, as they prepare to make distributions.

CONTRIBUTED

