DISCUSS AND PRAY

Katie talks about the importance of prayer and defines prayer as a movement of your heart to have a conversation with God. Self reflection is a key component that can help your heart open to conversation with God. In order to enter into meaningful conversation, we have to set aside the time and give God our attention. Here are some questions you can use to start conversation with your teen.

What has been your biggest disappointment regarding the cancellation of school?

What have you enjoyed about the extended time at home?

What is one thing that you are thankful to God for this week?

What is your daily routine?
How does prayer fit into your daily routine?

Ask your teen: What is one way that you pray that has been meaningful for you?

(For Parents to share) Share one way that you pray that is meaningful for you.

PRAYER OVER YOUR CHILDREN

There are many stories throughout the Scriptures of parents praying blessings over their children.

Take this opportunity to pray a blessing over your child(ren).
Let your prayer be spontaneous and a movement of your heart.

Here are some Scripture verses to inspire your blessing:

"The Lord bless you and keep you! The Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!" (Numbers 6:24-26)

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13)

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." (2 Corinthians 13:13)

"The Lord will guard your coming and going both now and forever." (Psalm 121:8)
