JASON EVERT

Jason Evert is an international Catholic evangelist and speaker. He tours the world with his wife, Crystalina, talking about the beauty and importance of chastity.

DISCUSS AND PRAY

The deepest desire of the human person is for love. This makes sense, because we are made in the image and likeness of God and God is a community of persons that love one another. In order to find love, we must resist the temptation to use someone for our own selfishness. In this session, Jason Evert shares 6 guidelines that will help a Christian date with purpose and clarity.

What is one thing that you are thankful to God for this week?

Parents: Share when/how you knew your spouse was the one you were called to marry.

Parents: Please share the qualities about your spouse that made you fall in love with him/her.

What are the qualities you would look for in a future spouse?

What is one mistake that you see classmates commonly make in their dating relationships?

What is one simple habit you can begin to help yourself grow into the person you are called to become?

CHASTITY PROJECT

As a parent, you have more influence over your child's future relationships than anyone else. The relationship that you have with your spouse is the model that your child will follow in their future relationships.

Please take advantage of the resources that are available to you and learn how you can support both your child's understanding of love and relationships as well as your own growth in your marriage.

There are many free resources available at chastity.com as well as a free online conference on May 22-24.

Above all, pray for your child and their future spouse.
