From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I don't blame Naaman the Syrian army general for not wanting to bath in the Jordan River. If you take a good look at the bulletin cover, you will see it is green with algae and hardly inviting, even for a swim on a hot day. One might want to take a bath after bathing in the Jordan! The story from our first reading runs, of course, deeper than that.

Naaman, filled with his own importance and wrapped in the trappings of power and prestige, thought that, surely, to be cured of such an insidious disease as leprosy, something truly extraordinary was required. Magical incantations, lengthy, potent prayers...the personal attention of the prophet Elisha, at least?! Elisha didn't even have the good manners to come out of his tent and talk to Naaman! He simply sent a message through a servant that told him to wash in the Jordan seven times.

While he was tempted to walk away in anger, one of his servants pleaded with him to do as he was told. So, humbling himself, he washed seven times... and was cured. The lesson is subtle if not persistent: do what God tells you, even if it seems too easy or simple, or too humiliating or undignified. God's blessings work through those who obey his Word.

In the Gospel, we have a similar scene where this time, ten lepers were healed at Jesus' word. But always using the lens of the wider community in any healing miracle, the bigger picture includes restoring these now-healed lepers to their communities which would have been shunning them due to the nature of their disease and the strictness of their purity laws. Only a priest could lift the quarantine that the Law imposed on lepers by proclaiming them officially healed. Presumably, nine of them went off and did what they were told to do. But therein lies the problem: one of the lepers was a Samaritan, and would not have been allowed to present himself to the Jewish priests in the Temple in Jerusalem. Samaritans were not welcome there.

So, he did the only thing he could think of under the circumstances. He returned to Jesus to give thanks to God. Symbolically, Jesus is the new Temple and High Priest. So, Luke's Gospel story prefigures the fulfillment and Salvation that was to take place in Christ, which would be offered to all nations, Samaria included.

Naaman the foreigner did what he was told to do and was healed by the Lord. The lepers in the Gospel did what Christ told them to do and were healed. Even the hated Samaritan found a path of healing and salvation by following Christ's words.

Though we may not be suffering from a dreaded skin disease that separates us from God, from our families and the community in which we live, we nonetheless suffer from the ravages of sin which can take away all of these things and lead to eternal death. Christ's words to us to accept his healing and forgiveness remain the same today as they were centuries ago. The big question is will we listen to his voice and do what he tells us?

May God give each of us strength this week to hear the Lord's voice and follow his will in our lives.

Fr. Tim Harrison, Pastor

This Sacrament should not be seen as only administered when there is danger of death. Please call us if someone is in the hospital, so that we can visit the loved one and have the community pray for them.

Fr. Broderick's Scripture Study

Scripture Study Will Meet on October 16

Father Broderick's Scripture Study will meet on its regular third Sunday of the month on October 16 at 2:00 p.m. in the IC Parish Center. We will be reading and discussing Chapters 52 through 56 in The Book of Isaiah, completing the section known as The Book of Consolation. The Book of Consolation is generally attributed to an anonymous poet who prophesied toward the end of the Babylonian exile and contains the great messianic oracles known as the Suffering Servant songs. Chapter 56 begins Part III, Return of the First Captives, which contains oracles from a later period, composed by disciples who continued the work of the great prophet.

Our beloved teacher, Father Broderick, not only explains the meaning of the Scripture passages, but also presents rich description of the period and places cited, as well as the culture and practices of the people involved. He connects the events in the New Testament to Old Testament prophecies and events, as well as to our own time. This is a worthwhile way to spend an hour and fifteen minutes on a Sunday afternoon. All are invited to attend these sessions and grow in knowledge and faith.

Cursillo

A new season of Cursillo is upon us and we look forward to another year of community. Cursillo is an invitation for you to experience the love of Jesus Christ on a personal level and to bring this love and joy into your daily life.

IC Religious Education

Amoris Laetitia...Pope Francis

Pope Francis released the Exhortation on the Family. In the weeks to come, you will be introduced to various statements from the Holy Father.

In #49—...Families in dire poverty and great limitations. The problems faced by poor households are often all the more trying. For example, if a single mother has to raise a child by herself and needs to leave the child alone at home while she goes to work, the child can grow up exposed to all kinds of risks and obstacles to personal growth. In such difficult situations of need, the Church must be particularly concerned to offer understanding, comfort and acceptance, rather than imposing straightaway a set of rules that only lead people to feel judged and abandoned by the very Mother called to show them God's mercy. Rather than offering the healing power of grace and the light of the Gospel message, turning it into 'dead stones to be hurled at others.

Religious Education Classes

School Year Registration is ongoing. No classes: Oct. 9 and 10.

Grades K–6: Next classes: 10/16 and 10/17.

Grades 7–8: Next class: 10/16.

Baptism

Baptism info: <http://www.hricatholic.org/Baptism>

Nov. 6 Parent Class—Charity Dining Room 1:00pm

Oct. 9 Group Baptism—Church 1:00pm

Confirmation

The Confirmation process begins Sunday, October 23 from 3:00–5:00pm in the Church for Years 1 and 2. The candidate and his/her sponsor, parent, or another adult are to attend the session.

Ransom the Captive

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed" (Lk 4: 18).

Would you want to be defined by the worst thing you have ever done? God doesn't want that for you either. The only sin that can't be forgiven is the one you never ask forgiveness for. Redemption is for everyone.

(Beautiful Mercy: Experiencing God's Unconditional Love so we can share it with Others, Dynamic Catholic, p. 66).

Questions of the Week

Adult: When have you prayed? How have you been persistent in your prayer life each day?

Child: Name a time when Jesus heard your prayer.
