From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

The Scriptures are rich in imagery that attends to the needs of the weary. These are earthy, human allusions that conjure up an inner desire for relief, comfort, and hope. God is attentive to the cry of His people and His voice echoes through the prophets and the Psalmist.

The notion of walking in the hot, beating sunshine is draining and exhausting. Would that there be some shade, just a little relief from the scorching heat? Baruch tells us that the Lord will provide an entire forest with its comforting shade and cool breezes to encompass us on our journey. Not only that, but the trees and plants shall be fragrant, painting us with their subtle sweetness. Anyone who has ever walked amidst the beauty of nature, only to discover the joy of its many wafting aromas, knows how uplifting that is to spirit and soul!

When we have suffered the loss of a loved-one, grief can encompass us like an overwhelming wave on the shore that crushes us and grinds our spirit into the sand. Powerless before the severity of emotions, we feel helpless and alone. It is impossible to go about life as usual. In times past, people used to symbolize this period of stifling grief by wearing a "robe of misery" or black funeral clothing so that others might know to give them some space and extra maneuvering room, when their own senses are weakened and imprisoned by loss. Baruch tells a still-mourning Jerusalem to shed this mantle of shame and anguish and to look with hope to the glory that God will bless the people of Israel. Led away from the holy city in chains and slavery, God will bring them back lifted-up as on royal caravans and golden thrones! God's joy will be complete. There will be no room for suffering or loss!

Even the rugged terrain will be smoothed into level pathways to welcome the Lord when He comes in vindication and power. Imagine whole mountains being pressed back into the earth and great canyons being filled-up to produce a fresh, level highway that is a clear and unobstructed route leading directly to the fulfillment of God's glory. Mercy and justice will be the clear street signs of this new Way of the Lord. People's hearts will soar with the knowledge that God has not forgotten them nor failed to hear their prayers.

Which one of us has not felt joy in our hearts when a fervent prayer has been answered? Which one of us has not been brought to tears when something we have earnestly prayed for, petitioned God day and night, pleaded with the Lord from the depths of our heart...finally has been made real and fully given to us? And in those moments, do we not glimpse something more—something beautiful and holy? Do we not see that God has a plan for us, for those we love, for our nation and our whole world? Can we not savor, just for a moment, that each of us in some small way play a part in that wholeness that is yet to be revealed in its fullness? Is there not more to life than what we see in the day to day? Do we not yearn in our very core for more?

Advent is a time when we connect these inner desires, hopes and dreams to the reality of what God is doing in Jesus Christ. John the Baptist came preaching repentance so that we might clearly hear and see this new offer of mercy and forgiveness from the Lord. Following his words, we turn away from sin so that we might experience the fulfillment of Isaiah's words, and in our flesh "see the salvation of God."

May this time of preparation for and anticipation of Christ's Coming be filled with many blessings and much joy.

Advent blessings to all,

Fr. Timothy Harrison, Pastor

Advent Study and Penance Services

During Advent, the Collaborative will be hosting a study of a cinematically beautiful, transformative video series on the Sacrament of Reconciliation. "FORGIVEN: The Transforming Power of Confession" by Augustine Institute offers a fresh perspective on God's mercy and this often misunderstood and frequently avoided Sacrament. Take the time this season to "prepare the way of the Lord!"

Choose one of two options (No RSVP necessary):

1. Watch and discuss the video series in person with fellow Collaborative members at IC St. Louis Hall, 10:00 a.m.–11:15 a.m. during these Sundays of Advent: Dec. 5, and Dec. 19
2. Watch the series at home online <https://watch.formed.org/forgiven> using our Collaborative's subscription to FORMED.org (go to www.hriccatholic.org/formed to learn how to sign up):
 - a. Session 2 video on Dec. 5 (or week of)
 - b. Watch Session 3 video by Dec. 20

At the end of Advent, we will host two evening Advent Penance Services to celebrate this great Sacrament:

1. Monday, December 20, 6:30–8:00 p.m., Immaculate Conception Church, Newburyport
2. Tuesday, December 21, 6:30–8:00 p.m., Church of the Nativity, Merrimac

Centering Prayer for Advent

As the days shorten and we enter the darkest season of the year we light Advent candles and anticipate the coming of our Savior, Jesus, the light of the world. In the busyness of preparing for Christmas we may miss the gifts of Advent. During Advent please consider joining us weekly for Centering Prayer.

Please consider leaving the noise of the world and the busyness of your day behind for an hour on Wednesday evenings from 6:00–7:00 p.m. on Zoom.

Following Centering Prayer Lectio Divina enriches and instructs us as we listen to and share reflections on the words of scripture.

All are welcome to join us as we pray in these ancient Christian traditions and together prepare this Advent to welcome God's gift of His son Immanuel, God with us, into our hearts and our lives.

Invitation to Holy Redeemer from IC Haiti

Since 2009, IC Haiti has been a 501 c 3 incorporated, tax-exempt, non-profit organization. Through it, parishioners of the Immaculate Conception parish and other kind donors built and have continued to support the Fr. Marc Piché elementary school in the town of Puit Chacha, Haiti.

Now IC Haiti would like to invite you, the parishioners of Holy Redeemer parish, to join in this worthy ministry in Haiti. IC Haiti is the sole financial support for the school in Puit Chacha which provides education to approximately 200 children from kindergarten to 6th grade. As you are well aware Haiti is the poorest country in the Americas; and since 2009, whenever Haiti has suffered a devastating natural disaster such as an earthquake or hurricane, IC Haiti has responded with emergency medical relief funding through Health Equity International, formerly known as St. Boniface Haiti Foundation, and its hospital complex a few miles north of Puit Chacha.

This year alone our expenses to run the school along with its hot lunch and dental care programs and to provide medical care to hurricane victims amounted to $83,000. Our yearlong administrative costs amounted to less than 2 tenths of one percent of our total expenditures. We do our best to be good stewards of the donations people make to support IC Haiti's ministry to the people we have been called to serve.

The final quarterly collection of 2021 for IC Haiti will be taken up the weekend of December 18–19. On the Sunday prior to the collection, a member of the Board of Directors for IC Haiti will make a direct appeal for your generosity and provide a brief update on our ministry to the people and school community of Puit Chacha, Haiti.

Should you choose to donate to IC Haiti, please make out checks to "IC Haiti." You may put your donation into the second collection boxes around the churches or mail them anytime: IC Haiti, 42 Green Street, Newburyport, MA 01950.

Thank you. And, please keep our Haitian brothers and sisters in Christ in your prayers.

Stuart Meurer, President of the IC Haiti Board of Directors

IC Haiti Appeal

The final quarterly collection of 2021 for IC Haiti will be taken up on the weekend of December 18–19. On the Sunday prior to the collection, a member of the Board of Directors for IC Haiti will make a direct appeal for your generosity and provide a brief update on our ministry to the people and school community of Puit Chacha, Haiti.

During the upcoming season of Advent, all of us are encouraged to deepen our relationship with Our Lord Jesus Christ through prayer and acts of mercy. Although we are thousands of miles away from Haiti, we have been invited since 2009 to see our Haitian brothers and sisters with the eyes of Christ. Let us continue to support them with our prayers and almsgiving.

Please use the special IC Haiti envelopes and make out checks to "IC Haiti." You may put your envelopes into the collection boxes around the church or send them to: IC Haiti, 42 Green Street, Newburyport, MA 01950.

IC SVdP Giving Tree

Please pick a gift card tag from the SVdP Giving Tree in the vestibule of IC Church. Once you purchase the gift card noted on the tag, return it via the collection boxes at the church. These gift cards are given to help those in need throughout the entire year. Thank you.

Immaculate Conception School

The Immaculate Conception School children honored Sr. Mary Braley on her 80th birthday, November 24, at a Thanksgiving prayer service. Sr. Mary has dedicated her entire adult life to Immaculate Conception School and is a most valued member of our community! The children presented her with hand-made birthday cards and a lovely floral arrangement. Sr. Mary was delighted to greet students, parents, and teachers. We were so happy that she could join us in prayer on her special day.

Happy birthday Sr. Mary - WE LOVE YOU!!

Sr. Mary and IC 2nd grade teacher Marybeth O'Keefe.

Marybeth decided to become a teacher when she was a student in Sr. Mary's 2nd grade class.
