From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

When we consider the exotic imagery of the Transfiguration, we might wonder whether this transcendental event occurred for the benefit of Jesus, His inner circle of disciples, or was recorded and preserved for the edification of the wider Christian community who were the recipients of the Gospel.

The answer, I suppose, is that all three were blessed by the experience. First, Christ Himself, in His humanity, experienced a deepening of His own self-understanding over time and grew in His appreciation of His own role before God the Father. To see His connection with the greatest of the Law-givers and the greatest of the prophets confirmed the precious, singular place that the Lord held in the history of our redemption and God's plan of salvation. This dreamy scene made explicit that Christ was the fulfillment of all that had gone before and represented a complete continuity of God's saving work—past, present, and future. Although none of the Gospel writers include what was said between Jesus, Moses, and Elijah, we can imagine that they spoke of God's glory and faithfulness. All were witnesses to the saving power of God, therefore all would be lasting instruments of the fullness of God's love for us, each in their own way. Christ, was, of course, the ultimate expression of that for us all.

We don't often think of Jesus as having a "leadership team" among the apostles. Yet when we look at the Gospel accounts, Peter, James, and John were always being called away by themselves by the Lord for various experiences. Jesus would often lead the other 12 through His interactions with these three. That they would be singled out to witness the Transfiguration event is completely consistent with the inner knowledge and insight that they must have gained from their closeness to the Lord. As Jesus was continually calling them to open their minds and hearts to the new things that God was unfolding in their midst, this experience must have been both strangely compelling and terrifying at the same time. Peter, the Rock on which Jesus would build His Church, was reduced to incoherence from the event. And yet, recalling it after Jesus' resurrection, must have gone a long way to confirm their faith and strengthen them for the mission ahead.

Which comes to us, the modern-day hearers of Luke's Gospel. Although we can sometimes be tempted to read the Gospels as a historical narrative of what Jesus did and said, and there are certainly passages that come off that way, we must remember that first and foremost, the Gospels were written to call the hearer (or reader) to faith, that we might come to know who Jesus is and believe that He is the Son of God. Through this belief, we have life in His name. So, we can see that St. Luke intentionally shares this pericope with us to use as a lens to understand who Jesus is—the fulfillment of all of God's promises and the present hope for salvation. Modern-day storytelling often

Centering Prayer/Lectio Divina

We welcome all members of our Collaborative community to join us each Wednesday 6:00–7:00 p.m. via Zoom for 30 minutes of Centering Prayer, silently resting in God and surrendering and assenting to God's presence and action in our lives, and 30 minutes of reading Sacred Scripture in group Lectio Divina. Both practices strengthen our faith and reliance on God and deepen our personal relationship with God. For more information, please call Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483.

does this sort of thing well by offering a flashback recalling a significant event in a character's history that best defines them, or using a dream sequence to explain things that might otherwise have gone unsaid. Thus the reader or movie-goer is invited deeper into the narrative and given inside information that will later prove essential to the story as a whole. St. Luke wants us to know that Jesus is not opposed to the Law that Moses gave nor divergent from the many prophecies uttered, but instead is in complete harmony with what has been, so that He might bring everything to its relationship before God.

In light of that, what is our takeaway from this iconic passage? I think it is best seen as a profound reminder of the full divinity of the Lord that is wonderfully enfleshed in Jesus' humanity. We only come to knowledge of anything through our human experiences. In experiencing the complete life and witness of Jesus, we encounter the real presence of the divine through Him. As the Lord once said to Phillip, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works." (Jn 14:9–10) So, the Transfiguration reminds us of how close our God is to us through Christ, and Christ as our brother and Savior has shown us the deep intimacy of everything our relationship with God can be. This ought to give us encouragement in times of distress and hope when we have fallen short of the love we are called to imitate in Christ. In the fullness of Jesus Christ, we encounter the generous mercy of God the Father. It just doesn't get any better than that!

Lenten Blessings,

Fr. Timothy Harrison, Pastor

Mask Requirement Update

As of March 2022, the mask requirement in the Archdiocese of Boston has been lifted. We recommend that one be worn at the discretion of each person. Those distributing Holy Communion will still wear a mask for that moment. Additionally, we will continue to maintain sections in each of our churches where parishioners may sit more distant from each other.

Family Prayer Group

Some of our parishioners have formed a group to pray for families and do so on the last Friday of the month, calling the prayer group "Final Fridays for Families" or "FFF" as a result.

It is not burdensome or time-consuming and simply involves receiving a reminder on the last Friday of each month and saying a prayer for families at a time and place that is convenient to you on that day. The group particularly prays for all members and their families and their special intentions. If you would like to join the group and receive the monthly prayer reminder, please let Linda Temple know in our Collaborative office. Contact her at (978) 462-2724 or email at: info@hriccatholic.org.

Lenten Guidelines

All Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence. Good Friday is a day of fasting and abstinence.

Fasting is to be observed by all 18 years of age and older, who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Abstinence is observed by anyone 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence, no meat is allowed. (When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.)

When in doubt concerning fast and abstinence, the parish priest should be consulted.

Fasting, prayer, and almsgiving are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for baptism or of renewal of baptism at Easter.

TICKETS:
Before March 31, 2022: $39
After April 1, 2022: $49
*Boxed lunch available at extra cost

Helping Our Homeless

Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will repay him for his deed.

As in past years, the homeless in our Collaborative need our help, and the pandemic has brought new suffering to many. We again will be collecting Homeless Care Packs at all three churches. This is a one-gallon Ziploc bag filled with personal care items for men, women, and children. They will be distributed to local agencies serving our homeless, including Pelican Intervention Fund, St. Vincent de Paul, Salvation Army, YWCA, Community Service, and others.

Easy to carry, travel-size personal care items are best and can be found in many local stores. There will be a collection box at the entrance of each church and in the lobby of the IC Parish Center, or you can contact a member of our Confirmation classes.

Please, no clothing, used or damaged goods, as these are discarded. For more information or to help, contact Aaron Giard at agiard@newburyportcatholic.org, or Jonathan Temple at jntemple@comcast.net. ### Questions of the Week

Adult: Aware of the pace and noise of daily life, what can we do during Lent to become quieter allowing us to focus on Jesus and one another?

Child: What can you do during Lent to keep Jesus present in your life?

The Sacrament of the Sick

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven Sacraments of our Church and is administered by a priest for healing and inner wholeness. Those who are seriously ill, elderly, or are entering the hospital can request to be anointed. Due to varied schedules and availability, it may not always be possible for a priest to come on short notice to offer the Sacrament, therefore it is strongly recommended that you request the Anointing of the Sick before going in for a hospital stay, upon entering a nursing home, or at the beginning of hospice care. Please call Collaborative offices at 978-462-2724 or 978-346-8604 to learn more.

Winter Weather Mass Cancellations

Due to the hazards of travel and the safety of priests and parishioners alike, this winter, daily Mass within the Collaborative will be cancelled if either Pentucket Regional or Newburyport Public schools are cancelled because of inclement weather. Any Faith Formation classes will also be cancelled on such days. WBZ Channel 4 will have the updated school cancellation information. It is also available on their website at boston.cbslocal.com.

In severe situations, it may also be necessary for safety reasons to cancel weekend Masses. Please watch WBZ or consult their website for cancellation information.

Personal Directed Lenten Retreat

Consider a Personal Directed Lenten Retreat that reflects and supports your spiritual practices and your unique relationship with God for your Lenten journey.

What cross are you carrying, what unmet needs are you experiencing, what losses or trials are you suffering, what desires are you holding in your heart?

During Lent, accompany Jesus as he carries his cross. Bring your cross, needs, suffering, and desires to Jesus as you ponder his own time of suffering and trial. A personal directed retreat may support and guide you to share deeply with Jesus his salvific suffering, know and accept his love and healing, and express your love for him. Deepening love and trust in Jesus may strengthen you to take up your cross each day and follow him.

Retreat can begin any time during Lent.

Retreat Closes: April 13.

You may schedule direction sessions throughout Lent as desired and at your own pace. We will meet via telephone or Zoom on a day and time convenient for you. During the first session we explore your focus for Lent. I will provide related material for prayer and reflection and meet with you for four additional one-hour individual sessions of Spiritual Direction during Lent as we are led by the Holy Spirit.

Please Call Elizabeth McCarthy, Certified Spiritual Director: (978) 462-7483 to register or for additional information. Suggested donation: $80.00

To get started, register as a member of Immaculate Conception Parish if you are not yet registered. Forms are available in the foyer of the church or at the parish office.

The Immaculate Conception School Read-A-Thon is a wonderful way for students to fundraise for the school while reading! The children read to reach grade level benchmarks for minutes read as a class and as individuals. Prize baskets, such as the

An online fundraising platform allows family and friends from across the country to sponsor the children as they read and raise funds for the school. Last year's Read-A-Thon raised $25,000 for the IC! What a fabulous way to support and encourage a joy of reading!
