*"When you pray, say:
Father, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come.
Give us each day our daily bread
and forgive us our sins
for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us,
and do not subject us to the final test."*

Saturday Vigil Mass is live-streamed online through our website: hriccatholic.org as well as our Facebook page.

Dear Parishioners,

With much joy and gladness, please let me offer a sincere thank you to everyone who helped celebrate my 60th birthday this past week! To those who planned the event, helped with the decorations and set-up, did the many hours of cooking, baking and food prep, as well as those who stayed and helped clean up: Thank you! On the weekend where we heard the Gospel story of "Martha and Mary," there certainly were a lot of Marthas who showed up in force and served generously to the benefit of us all. I am grateful to all of you for your presence and prayerful support as I move forward into a new decade of my life and my time here in our Collaborative. It is a joy to be with you in ministry and share this faith journey with all of you!

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Fr. Tim

IC Haiti Collection: August 2–3

The second collection on the weekend of August 2–3 will be taken up for IC Haiti. If you choose to write a check, please make it out to “IC Haiti.” If you want to donate cash, please put it in one of the yellow second collection envelopes found in the pews. Mark the envelope “IC Haiti.”

The Board of Directors for IC Haiti is sincerely grateful to Immaculate Conception and Holy Redeemer parishioners for your faithful support. One of the administrators of the Fr. Marc Piché Elementary School recently informed us that despite the many social, economic, and political troubles the Haitian people have suffered through in recent years, the school continues to operate. Puit Chacha, where our school is, and Fond des Blancs, where both the secondary schools and St. Boniface Hospital are located, are somewhat distant from areas where gang violence is concentrated. The school administrator assured us that both the elementary and secondary schools continue to provide the school children education, a hot meal, and a safe learning environment daily.

Thank you, fellow parishioners, for helping to keep hope alive for the school community of Puit Chacha. Your quarterly contributions are keeping the school open. This is one way for us to fulfill the challenge Pope Francis offered us at the beginning of this Jubilee Year: be Pilgrims of Hope, especially to those most in need.

Let us pray for the wellbeing of the Haitian people

A Handshake in Gloucester

For Father Timothy "Tim" Harrison
Priest, Pastor, Pilgrim, Our Friend

—Composed by Paul Blanchette
for Fr. Tim's 60th birthday celebration

*I was young, a fledgling flyer,
Selling bulletins, full of fire.
Dreaming big with ink and thread,
Chasing churches, forging ahead.*

*In Gloucester, where the salt winds blow,
And fishermen in prayer would go,
There stood a pastor, firm and kind—
But not yet sold on what I'd find.*

*Father Tim, with flock and flame,
Held the biggest parish name.
I knocked and knocked but heard no call,
The doors were busy, after all.
The tides would turn, the parishes merged,
The past and future sweetly surged.
My smaller gains had slipped away,
But God was painting – in His way!*

*Then one day, fate realigned,
And where do you think he was assigned?
Newburyport, IC my home, my shore—
And there he stood behind the door.*

*I made a pilgrimage that day,
To shake his hand, to smile and say:
"I'm your man, for bulletins and more—
Let's walk together through this door."*

*And walk we did, with years unrolled,
With sermons deep and stories told.
No longer just a vendor's game,
But friendship lit with holy flame.*

*From pew to pulpit, Rome to Lourdes,
Our journeys stretched in leaps and bounds.
To the Holy Land, where Lord Jesus trod,
We've been where saints had stood with God*

*We followed Saint Paul through Grecian skies—
Philippi, Athens, Corinth's cries.
Thessalonica's ancient roads,
Still echoed with the truths he sowed.*

Through Ephesus, Patmos, where the visions stirred,
And Istanbul, where East conferred.
To Fatima, where Saint Mary weeps,
Lanciano, Loreto, where mystery sleeps.

We climbed to Saint Peter's sacred dome,
In Rome, that feels like a second home.
We breathed in the peace at Assisi's gate,
In Siena's grace, and Amalfi's place.

In Sicily's sun, in Milan's square,
By Lake Como's quiet prayer—
Each step, each Mass, each sacred meal,
Made heaven's nearness feel more real.

He made us laugh, he made us think,
He poured out joy like sacred ink.
A preacher, pastor, guide, and friend—
The kind on whom your soul depends.

For many years, we've made our climb,
Through sacred ground and holy times.
With footprints left in every land,
We journey still, by God's command.

Then last September, my breath grew thin—
A cardiac storm roared deep within.
Clinically gone, they said I lay,
In the twilight stretched between night and day.

But grace had hands, and robes, and oil—
And prayers that softened mortal toil.
For there he came—my brother, priest—
To bless the broken, anoint the least.

He stood with courage, stood with care,
Anointed me with healing prayer.
And should that journey have reached its close,
He would have surely sent me where Love grows.

No words can hold what he has given—
A path back home, a glimpse of heaven.
Not just a guide through the churches of Rome
But one who'd walk me fully home.

For a score and seven years,
He's calmed our doubts and dried our tears.
A shepherd strong in storm and sun,
And still, his work is just begun.

So here's to Father Tim—beloved, kind, wise,
With mercy shining in his eyes.
The road ahead still sings and bends—
With more saints, more sermons, more pilgrim friends.

"There But For The Grace Of God Go I"

People point to a number of religious leaders as the source of this expression, which means that I, too, could be in such a situation if it weren't for the grace of God. How quickly a situation can change. A lost job...a crippling illness...an unplanned car repair...all of these situations can bring an individual or a family into a life-changing situation. Often the St. Vincent de Paul Society is called upon to help.

Your kind donations in any form are always greatly appreciated.

Our donor envelopes are now located on the table in the back of St. Ann and Nativity.

These can be mailed or placed in the poor boxes shown here. Reminder: Make sure to make checks payable to HR St. Vincent de Paul

Immaculate Conception School

Summer Improvements: Behind the Scenes at Immaculate Conception School

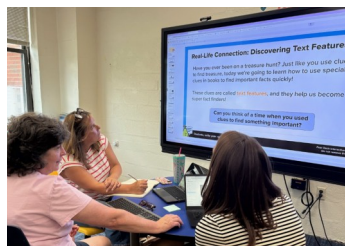

While summer means a well-deserved break for students, it's a season of dedicated work and growth behind the scenes at Immaculate Conception. This year, several important improvements are underway to ensure a safer and more engaging environment for all.

First, repairs to the front stairs at the entrance to the school on Washington Street—damaged by the January earthquake—are in progress. Safety remains our top priority, and the new stairway will be both secure and welcoming for the new school year.

Our 1st grade classroom will have a new tile floor, sure to add a new freshness to that sun-filled classroom.

Meanwhile, new and seasoned teachers are collaborating during professional development sessions. These workshops focus on boosting student engagement and exploring the use of digital tools to enhance learning across subjects. By sharing strategies and best practices, our educators are preparing to deliver even more dynamic and interactive lessons that address individualized learning.

Pictured, Tech Coordinator and Coach Laura Capobianco works with 5th grade teacher Mrs. Andrea Roe and Middle School LA teacher Dr. Courtney Kaminski on utilizing technology for formative assessment.

These efforts highlight the ongoing commitment of our community. Though the building may seem quiet, a flurry of activity is happening to ensure a smooth and successful start in the fall. Thank you for your continued support as we work to make our school the best it can be!

Newburyport Chamber Music Festival

August 4–17

Internationally recognized clarinetist Todd Palmer along with String Quartet, will perform the music of Copland, Ives, Bernstein, Barber, and Gershwin as well as Golijov's wild klezmer clarinet quintet, "The Dreams and Prayers of Isaac the Blind," plus Mozart's clarinet quintet, a jazzy Disco Toccata plus Beethoven's Opus 127, one of the master's late, great pieces.

Composer-in-residence and jazz pianist Guthrie Ramsey will perform an original jazz work for string quartet with his daughter, singer Bridget Ramsey, in a tribute to legendary beat poet Hattie Jones. The festival will feature Six Concerts, free Open Rehearsals, a lecture, and a panel discussion with the artists. For more information and tickets visit newburyportchambermusic.org.
