Exodus: 4: 27 -31

The LORD said to Aaron: Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. So he went; when meeting him at the mountain of God, he kissed him.

28Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say, and all the signs he had commanded him to do.

29Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the elders of the Israelites.

30Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses, and he performed the signs before the people.

31The people believed, and when they heard that the LORD had observed the Israelites and had seen their affliction, they knelt and bowed down.

Luke 5 1 -11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret.

2He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets.

3Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

4c After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

5Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets."

6When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing.

7They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that they were in danger of sinking.

8When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

9For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him,

10and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men."^d

11When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.^e

John 20: 24 - 29

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

25So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."^a

26Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you."^b

27Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe."

28^c Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

29^c Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me?^r Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."
