

Lenten Wednesdays 2018

◆ Five Wednesdays in Lent ◆ February 21, 28, March 7, 14, & 21 ◆

◆ Food for the Soul and Food for the Body ◆

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and Reconciliation – 5:30 – 6:30PM Church

Vespers – 6:30 – 6:50PM - Church

Soup & Bread with Presentation – 7:00pm – SCR

The Passion of the Christ - Understanding the context in which our Lord died

Five Wednesday Topics Include:

Feb. 21 - A Priest at Calvary - ◆ The notion of sacrifice in the Old Testament and in 1st Century Judaism ◆

Fr. David Cirata - a native of Shelby, Ohio - has a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture from the OSU. After approximately 10 years in the turfgrass management industry, Fr. Cirata entered Mount St. Mary's Seminary of the West in Cincinnati. He was ordained as a priest for the Diocese of Toledo in June of 2006. He recently completed a Master of Arts degree in Liturgy at the Liturgical Institute in Mundelein, Illinois. He is currently pastor of St. John the Baptist and St. Michael Parishes in Toledo and Director of the Office for Divine Worship for the Diocese of Toledo.

Feb. 28 - A Lawyer at Calvary - ◆ Understanding the Legal Aspects of the Passion ◆

Kevin Heban – a lifelong member of All Saints is a partner in the law firm of Heban, Sommer & Murphree, LLC which consists of seven attorneys with varying practice areas. Kevin concentrates his practice in probate litigation, estate planning, real estate, estate administration, along with being the Law Director for the City of Rossford, Village of Delta and the Village of Whitehouse. He received his B.A. degree in both economics and political science (1982), along with a J.D. degree (1985), from the University of Toledo. He is a lecturer for the Ohio CLE Institute, the National Business Institute and the Toledo Bar Association on probate and probate litigation. He is married to Ann and they have three children, Kenny, Kirsi and Alex.

Mar. 7 - A Doctor at Calvary – ◆ The Medical aspects of the Passion and Crucifixion ◆

Fr. Anthony Recker, MD, Pastor

Mar. 14 - A Historian at Calvary - ◆ The Setting and Political Context of the Passion ◆

Sue Van Hersett & Renee Timbrook

As Pastoral Associate of Faith Formation at All Saints, Sue is happy to once again be part of the Pastoral Staff, from 2014 – present, (previously 1991-2005, then employed at Little Flower, 2005-2014). She has a degree in Theology from Lourdes University and is certified as a Master Catechist with the Diocese of Toledo. Sue is certified as a Catechist with the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) and is a nationally recognized Formation Leader for CGS. She enjoys the Ministry of Faith Formation with all ages. She and her husband John are blessed with four adult children and many grandchildren

Renée is a graduate of John Carroll University and the University of Toledo and holds a Master Degree in Counseling. She is certified as a Catechist with the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, (CGS) and enjoys working with ASCS children grades Pre-School through 4th grade in the Atrium and 2nd grade sacramental preparation for ASCS and PREP. She volunteers in many areas of the school and parish along with her husband Rob and daughters Anna and Katie.

Mar. 21 - A Believer at Calvary – ◆ How our faith views the Passion: the Relics of the Passion ◆

Amy Warnimont - Amy is a graduate from BGSU with a degree in Middle Childhood Education. She did her Student Teaching here at All Saints (ASCS) and has been teaching here at ASCS for 6 years. Amy has been involved in religious education since she was in the 9th grade and volunteered in the parish religious education program at St. Al's in Bowling Green from high school through college. During the past 3 years she has taught the religion classes for 6-8 grades here at ASCS.