January, 2017

We celebrated the feast of our Heavenly Patron, St. Vincent Pallotti on January 29. It was also an occasion to thank God for the gift of Blessed Elizabeth Sanna. We were privileged to have the Archbishop present on this occasion. We are happy that so many people turned up for the celebration. The Pallottines were present in good number. I am grateful to all the volunteers and staff who worked hard to make the feast a success by cleaning and decorating the church and the parish center. Thank you for being there and the pot-luck dishes you brought. I hope you all enjoyed the exhibition as much as I did.

The school is back in session, Religious Education classes have resumed. On January 8, we had a delightful gathering of all the ministers, volunteers and commission members. I was impressed by the number of people who participated, though not everyone could. It was uplifting to see that we have so many people who volunteer their time and talent for the good of our parish. I am grateful to God for the good will and generosity of all of you. We pray that more and more people will come forward to help in our various ministries. We lost some active ministers due to death or illness; some have moved and some have family or job issues.

Thank you for being there. Thank you for all the ways you support our parish, through your prayers, through your participation in the liturgy and through your financial contributions. Let us pray for one another.
