Welcome!! We are glad you came to join with us in our worship today. We hope that you have felt God's love in a new, refreshing way...

From Fr. Tony

As many of you know, I often times am running late. There is not enough time in the day. Here I am, writing my bulletin column at 10 pm because of all the events that are going on in our 6 parishes. There is never a dull moment and life appears to be very busy at times...but I would not trade this ministry for the world. However, as we all know this ministry and the trust that people had in their priests have definitely taken a hit. Holy Mother Church as truly been wounded by a few priests who made unhealthy, and very unholy decisions. However, the Church and her leaders are doing our best to reconcile, heal, and to make sure this evil never happens again. As some of you know a couple of months ago, there was a meeting by Pope Francis and bishops throughout the world who gathered to discuss the "Protection of Minors in the Church." I thought I would include a statement from Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, Archbishop of Galveston-Houston and President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), on the final day of their four day meeting. Cardinal DiNardo's full statement follows:

"The Lord is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth." Psalm 145:18

"These have been challenging, fruitful days. The witness of survivors revealed for us, again, the deep wound in the Body of Christ. Listening to their testimonies transforms your heart. I saw that in the faces of my brother bishops. We owe survivors an unyielding vigilance that we may never fail them again.

How then to bind the wounds? Intensify the Dallas Charter. Pope Francis, whom I want to thank for this assembly, called us to 'concrete and effective measures.' A range of presenters from cardinals to other bishops to religious sisters to lay women spoke about a code of conduct for bishops, the need to establish specific protocols for handling accusations against bishops, user-friendly reporting mechanisms, and the essential role transparency must play in the healing process.

Achieving these goals will require the active involvement and collaboration of the laity. The Church needs their prayers, expertise, and ideas. As we have learned from diocesan review boards, a comprehensive range of skills is required to assess allegations and to ensure that local policies and procedures are regularly reviewed so that our healing response continues to be effective. All of the models discussed this week rely upon the good help of God's people.

I and the bishops of the United States felt affirmed in the work that is underway. Enhanced by what I experienced here, we will prepare to advance proposals, in communion with the Holy See, in each of these areas so that my brother bishops can consider them at our June General Assembly. There is an urgency in the voice of the survivors to which we must always respond. I am also aware that our next steps can be a solid foundation from which to serve also seminarians, religious women, and all those who might live under the threat of sexual abuse or the abuse of power.

In our faith, we experience the agony of Good Friday. It can cause a sense of isolation and abandonment, but the Resurrection is God's healing promise. In binding the wounds now before us, we will encounter the Risen Lord. In Him alone is all hope and healing.

May I also add a sincere word of thanks to the many who prayed for me and for all that this meeting be a success."

May our gracious and merciful God forgive the sins against His Church and her most vulnerable children and help us to set up policies and practices to protect them. May you know of my deepest prayers as we pray for healing for this and for the future of our Church and especially our local parishes as we continue to move forward as an Area Faith Community (AFC).

Christ through Mary,

Rev. Anthony R. Home

An Easter Flower envelope is attached to the bulletin. If you would like to donate in memory of someone or just donate, please fill out the envelope and return to your parish. A Mass will be said for our loved ones at a future time.
