Welcome!! We are glad you came to join with us in our worship today. We hope that you have felt God's love in a new, refreshing way...

From Fr. Tony

What a beautiful Holy Week and Easter Masses/Services we had. I have heard nothing but compliments on the liturgies at the 6 parishes and the church environments. Thanks to all who contributed in any way. May God be praised!

Speaking of praise, the next several weeks have several celebrations of praising God. This weekend, April 27/28, not only do we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, we also celebrate First Holy Communion of the 2nd graders in the southern half and then the following weekend, May 4/5, we celebrate it in the northern half with a couple of girls celebrating theirs at St. Mary's in Seaforth the following Sunday. Please join me as we pray that our First Communicants will be open to our Lord in a profound way and that their hearts and lives be transformed so that, like all of us, we may be more like Christ. I look forward to celebrating this with them and their families. Also, please join us on May 4th at St. Catherine's for the Diocesan Mass for Consecrated Life. Bishop LeVoir will be here honoring those who are of the consecrated life. Several religious sisters will be joining us for the 5pm Mass at St. Catherine's for this celebration. Please join us for this event, but if you can't please keep them and all of our consecrated women of our diocese in your prayers. Then the following weekend, May 12, we celebrate our Baccalaureate Mass in the northern half at St. Catherine's (we have no seniors at St. John's this year). On Sunday, we will recognize the 6th Graders of St. Anne's School at the 10am Mass. Although I will not be able to attend their recognition because of the Baccalaureate Mass at St. Catherine's, please join me as we pray for them as well.

Then the following weekend, May 18/19, we will be celebrating the Baccalaureate Masses in the parishes in the southern half. Although I look at how busy these weekends are, I also see what a blessing they are for our Church as well. Please keep all of our graduates, 1st Communicants, consecrated religious in your prayers.

Finally, speaking of prayers, please continue to keep Nicole Balko and Gary Eckstein in your prayers. They were fully initiated into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil through Confirmation and Holy Eucharist at St. Catherine's. Not only was it a beautiful and praiseworthy celebration welcoming them, baptizing baby Joseph Matthew Buckley that evening too, but it also reminds us all of our own Baptisms and call for ongoing conversion. With the help of the Risen Christ, may we too transform our world and bring it and us closer to Christ.

Christ through Mary,

Rev. Anthony R. Hene
