Welcome!! We are glad you came to join with us in our worship today. We hope that you have felt God's love in a new, refreshing way...

From Fr. Tony

This weekend, our Church recalls that great event of the Holy Spirit coming down on Mary and the apostles at Pentecost. However, we are still graced today with that same Spirit. Take for example, last weekend our Diocese celebrated the transitional diaconate ordination of Deacons John Hayes and Shawn Polman. And now, this weekend, we will be welcoming Deacon John Hayes to our Area Faith Community (AFC). He will be here until August using this as a summer internship. Please welcome him and continue to pray for him and his fellow seminarians.

Also, we see the Spirit at work in the sacrament of Baptism. To show the seriousness of the sacrament and encourage the call for discipleship, please sign up for Baptism class. If you, or if you know of someone who will be having a Baptism over the next few weeks and/or months, please make sure you call the parish office to register for Baptism class (classes are held the 2nd Monday of the month – rotating between St. Anne and St. Catherine at 7pm). Even if this is not your first child, please call for the class. Our hope is to do all we can to educate our people about our faith. Speaking of Spirit and faith, enjoy Fr. Christian's article below on the Holy Spirit and how it can impact our faith.

Christ through Mary,
Rev. Anthony R. Hone

THE HOLY SPIRIT: SOURCE OF ALL TRUTH.
 "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth" (John 16:13).

Jesus refers to the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of Truth. As the Spirit of Truth, He not only witnesses to us, He also leads us to find and discover every truth. The Holy Spirit teaches us things that are beyond the mere understanding and grasp of our human mind. The Holy Spirit inspires truth in us.

We live in a world where people are loved for telling lies and hated for speaking the truth. The spirit of lies is one demon that has possessed such a vast majority of our population, old and young, rich and poor alike. The simple reason why we fall too easily into the lie-trap is that we do not realize the seriousness of the existence of lies in our lives.

If the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth, it follows that telling of lies is a sign of His absence in our lives. No wonder the popular saying goes thus: "Say the truth and shame the devil." When we tell lies we actually glorify the devil. When we spread falsehood deliberately just to incite others or achieve mundane objectives, we are only making the devil's work easier.

Jesus tells us: "He (the Holy Spirit) will glorify me, for He will take what is mine and declare it you" (John, 16:14). Truly, we give glory to God when we speak the truth and act accordingly being led by the power of the Holy Spirit. Dear friends, we cannot claim to have God in us and be liars at the same time. Anyone who lies lacks the Spirit of Truth – the Holy Spirit.

Another sign of the absence of the Holy Spirit is resistance to the truth. When we find ourselves fighting people simply because they tell us the truth, we should realize we have distanced ourselves from God. At times, we shut people down, we even go as far as planning assassinations, we destroy people's character and so on all to prevent the truth from being exposed to light.

The Athenians did not grant audience to Paul because they couldn't face the truth. They acknowledged their ignorance by making an Altar with the inscription: "To An unknown god," but when Paul tried to clear their ignorance, they resisted him. Truly, there are some people who know they are ignorant, yet they remain satisfied in their ignorance.

The Athenians did not believe in the resurrection and they closed their minds to the possibility of this truth. They cut Paul short the moment he mentioned the issue of rising from the dead. There are times we know fully well that someone is telling us the truth, but instead of listening we become defensive and begin to find faults in the person. We literally look for a thousand reasons to shut the person down or discredit him/her all because we cannot stand the truth.

I have come to realize the truth is too powerful to be hidden. The world may believe lies for a while but one day, like a volcanic eruption, the truth will force itself out. It is better to suffer now for being truthful than for people to curse your dead body because of the lies you told. LETS PRAY THIS WEEK TO BE BLESSED WITH THE GIFT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Fr Christian Adike

STEWARDSHIP: PRAYING GRATEFULLY, SERVING RESPONSIBLY, GIVING GENEROUSLY

“The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thought, words and actions.”

PRAYING FOR VOCATION

Totus Tuus: is Latin for “Totally Yours” and is the motto for Pope St. John Paul II. The phrase is taken from St. Louis de Montfort’s great work, True Devotions to Mary, representing our desire to give ourselves entirely to Jesus Christ through the hands of his Immaculate Mother. A team of four young adults from our diocese will be at St. Anne’s evangelizing those they encounter, grades 1-6 during the day, and grades 7-12 in the evening. The whole parish is blessed by the missionary efforts of the Totus Tuus team: parents see their children grow in love for Jesus and His church, host families witness true models of Faith, priests are assisted in their ministry and offer the Sacraments to the youngest of their flock, and the youth are given the opportunity to participate in a fun, informative and inspiring summer program! The daytime program runs from 9am-2:30pm Mon-Fri, June 17-21 for those going into grades 1-6 with of games, catechesis, songs, Holy Mass, and an end-of-the-week water fight! The evening program runs from 7-9pm Sun –Thurs, June 16-20 for those going into grades 7-12, with social time, small group discussions, games, Eucharistic adoration, confession and great talks by Totus Tuus team members. Parish potluck will be held at 6pm on Wed, June 19 at St. Anne’s Church Hall. Please send $10 with to St. Anne’s. Questions, contact Sherry Plaetz, 342-5474.
