

Things I Wish I Knew about the Bible

St. Joe's is offering religious education classes for adults on Sundays mornings from 9:00 to 10:15 starting on September 8th. This fall, the class we will be doing is called, "Things I Wish I Knew about the Bible." It is designed to help you:

- Learn the main characters and the "storyline" of the Bible in order to add context to the readings you hear at mass.
- Understand how the stories of the Old Testament point to Jesus.
- Understand the importance of Jesus's death and resurrection to our salvation.
- Learn the reasons behind what we do in the sacraments and the liturgy.
- Understand the reasons for many of the church's teachings.
- Competently discuss these topics with your children.
- Give you the "head knowledge" you need to live more faithfully as a Catholic Christian and to better appreciate that faith.

There is no homework, and you aren't required to be at every class. Just come when you are able. Signup is not required, but it is helpful. To sign up, or if you have any questions, email Blake Hasenmiller at bhasenmiller@gmail.com or call him at 563-212-9702.
