Linda Reed, a long time friend of Ron and Barbara Faunce (retired and moved away St. Jude parishioners), will host a sit-down dinner for 8-10 guests on December 19th at 6 PM in her home. The evening will begin with mingling, hors d'oeuvres and cocktails or wine. Ron Faunce - throughout the evening - will read the five Staves (chapters) of Charles Dickens A Christmas Carol. The reading time takes 30 minutes total. Dickens' characters of Scrooge, Bob and Mary Cratchit, and the dancing Fezziwigs will greet the guests upon arrival, where they will find themselves entering a "Dickens village" and eating off Dickens china with designs of characters from the book. There will be the opportunity for audience participation to test your observations and creativity...all in good fun! The evening will be capped off with a flaming plum pudding - come join your friends and welcome Christmas!

Maximum of 10 seats available. $50 per person.
