MERRY CHRISTMAS

A beautiful thing about our Catholic faith is that it gives us so much to celebrate: we have been created and loved and saved and redeemed by God Himself! The Christmas season (not just Christmas Day but the whole Christmas season) invites us to rejoice in that truth in an even deeper way. Thank you for all the joy you bring to our parish family, thank you for your joy in loving and being loved by Jesus. And even as the radio stations and advertisements quickly turn to the next thing, as Christians we get to rejoice and celebrate for this whole season the good news of great joy for all peoples, that the Savior has come and He has saved us. Have a blessed Christmas, and thank you for being a part of our family here at OLPH.

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP CATHOLIC CHURCH

December 28, 2025 The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

When I was ten, my dad gathered our family around the table in small-town Vermont and told us we were moving to the big desert city of Phoenix, Arizona. We were leaving behind family, friends, and everything familiar. None of us knew what to expect.

But something beautiful happened. As we made the move together, our family grew closer. In retrospect, I'm amazed at my parents' courage to go on that adventure. Even as a kid I realized our family found, in that challenge, a deeper unity and mutual love.

In today's Gospel, Joseph is told: "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee..." (Matthew 2:13, 20). First to Egypt, then later to Israel. The Holy Family is frequently challenged to move and change, to adapt to God's will for them, in order to find safety in the midst of threat. It's not just an idiosyncratic story about survival. It's a spiritual pattern for all of us. Every Christian family is called to be a kind of sanctuary, especially in a world full of noise, busyness, and fear.

May I make a practical application for us? The Lord's Day, Sunday, is perhaps the most practical way we imitate this dynamic we see in Joseph and his family. Sunday is not meant to be just like every other day, filled with errands and stress. It's meant to be a day set apart; a holy "escape" into rest, worship, joy, and peace. A day to rise, take your family, and flee, into God's presence.

A Blessing Prayer for our Home as we continue to welcome in the new year:

Lord God, bless our home and all those who enter here. May this family and all who visit us this year be healthy and holy. May we worship Jesus within these walls. As the star made Christ visible to the wise men, help us make the light of Christ visible in our home today.

~Amen
