WE WILL BE HAVING Lunch and Learn

Sunday, February 1st following the 10:30 am Mass in the Social Hall, Fr. Kyle will give a talk on the Sacrament of Confession (why Catholics have confession and what the Bible says about it) as we prepare for the upcoming season of Lent. Lunch will be provided. We hope to see you all there.

FIRST TREATS The First Sunday of the month, February 1st, is coming up quickly. We have a sign-up sheet in the Commons starting this weekend to bring treats for after the 10:30 am Mass. Treats will be served in the Social Hall along with coffee and lunch for Fr. Kyle's Lunch and Learn event.

Please bring your "Treats" to the Social Hall before or after Mass. We hope you stay for lunch and Fr. Kyle's talk.

Thank you for helping out.

January 18, 2026 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time John 1:29-34

It's common to hear belief in Jesus and the Church mocked as blind faith and credulity. But in reality, it is deeply human and rational. Think about it: we rely on the testimony of others constantly. I trust chemists who certify the safety of toothpaste and cleaning products. I trust engineers when I use a microwave or drive over a bridge. Why? Because they have studied and seen what I have not, and their testimony proves itself in daily life. That kind of trust is not irrational; it is how human knowledge works.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist declares: "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God" (John 1:34). That is the language of an eyewitness. It invites us into a very human act: trusting someone who has directly encountered something — or Someone — we have not yet fully seen ourselves.

The Church's faith is built on this kind of reliable sight-based testimony. The Apostles did not make abstract claims. They saw, followed, suffered for, and proclaimed Jesus Christ. Over centuries, their witness — carried in Scripture, in the lives of the saints, and in the sacramental life of the Church — has proven dependable. We come to know its truth by assenting to it, by living and studying it, praying with it, trusting it.

Faith in Christ is not a childish leap into the dark. It is a step into the light of testimony that proves itself over time.

~ Father John Muir

Blessing of the Beloved

Dear God,

Bless and anoint us today. You are our Father and guide.

Remind us of our identity in You: loved, called, and equipped for mission.

Bless us as we journey, giving us strength for each day and grace in each step.

~Amen.
