THE EASTER TRIDUUM

Triduum "Three Days"

We are living the holy days that invite us to meditate on the central events of our Redemption, the essential core of our faith.... The Easter Triduum [is] the fulcrum of the whole Liturgical Year in which we are called to silence and prayer in order to contemplate the mystery of the Passion, death and Resurrection of the Lord. In their Homilies the Fathers often referred to these days which, as St Athanasius observed in one of his Easter Letters, bring "us to a new beginning, even the announcement of the blessed Passover, in which the Lord was sacrificed."

(Circular Letter 5, 1-2: PG 26, 1379)

INTRODUCTORY RITES

*We should glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection,
through whom we are saved and delivered.*

HOMILY

WASHING OF FEET

Twelve representatives, who have been selected from our parish community, will have their feet washed. Mandatum, from the Latin word for command: A new commandment I give to you... The washing of the feet ...represents the service and charity of Christ, who came "not to be served, but to serve". (Circular Letter, #58).

WHOEVER WOULD BE GREAT AMONG YOU Nelson

*Whoever would be great among you, must become your servant,
And whoever would be first among you, must be a slave of all.*

*For the Son of Man came not to be served,
came not to be served, but to serve.*

And to give his life, to give his life, as a ransom for many.

OUR FATHER

People: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord ... coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

People: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.

SIGN OF PEACE

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest/Deacon: Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

LAMB OF GOD from "Mass of Charity and Love"

(kneel)

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

People: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Catholics who are prepared to receive the Eucharist are invited forward to receive Communion at this time. If you are Catholic but not prepared to receive the Eucharist, or if you are not Catholic, we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest, and we will share a short prayer with you.

INCENSING AND ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

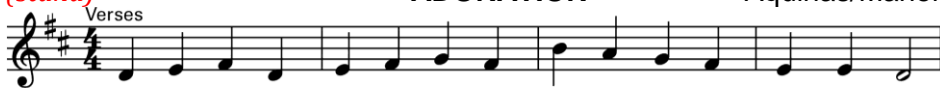

The Triduum is one liturgy, so tonight there is no concluding rite, no dismissal.

- In remembrance of Christ's agony in the garden, the Blessed Sacrament will be taken to its place of repose in the Social Hall.
- You are encouraged to follow the procession to the Social Hall to adore the Lord, as we recall the words from Matthew 26:40: "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?"
- When you wish to depart, it is imperative that you do so in silence (and maintain silence throughout the building) as the church continues to watch and pray throughout the Triduum.
- Eucharistic Adoration will continue until midnight. At that time, we remember His arrest and journey from the garden as His Body is removed.
