

Our Lady of Fatima School was granted the highest level of accreditation possible through the Middle States Accreditation program. This self-study process provides an opportunity for our school to reflect on how well we are fulfilling our mission as an institution of education as outlined by the accreditation standards put forth by the Middle States Committee. As a result of this endeavor, we anticipate being stronger and better equipped to meet the challenges and opportunities of our students.