Insurance Agents Report

Brother Matthew Maurin

Brothers,

Many people believe their children will take care of them if they experience an extended care event someday.

- ▶ Who do you envision providing care for you in 30-40 years?
- ▶ Is your family prepared to take on the role of caregiver?
- ▶ How will you pay for an extended care event?

An extended care plan can help your family be there when they can, not when they must.

Now is the time to prepare for your family's future needs. As your Knights of Columbus agent, I can help you review your financial goals and ensure you have an extended care plan in place. Come talk to me to set up an appointment.

Fraternally,

Getting Old

I have everything that I wanted as a teenager, only 60 years later. I don't have to go to school or work.

I get an allowance every month. I have my own pad. I don't have a curfew. I have a driver's license and my own car. Life is great. I changed my car horn to gunshot sounds. People get out of the way much faster now.

The people I hang around with are not scared of getting pregnant and I don't have acne. Gone are the days when girls used to cook like their mothers. Now they drink like their fathers.

I didn't make it to the gym today. That makes five years in a row. I decided to stop calling the bathroom "John" and renamed it the "Jim". I feel so much better saying I went to the Jim this morning.

Old age is coming at a really bad time. When I was a child I thought "nap time" was a punishment. Now it feels like a small vacation.

The biggest lie I tell myself is... "I don't have to write that down, I'll remember it".

I don't have gray hair... I have "wisdom highlights"! I'm just very wise.

If God wanted me to touch my toes, He would've put them on my knees.

Last year I joined a support group for procrastinators. We haven't met yet.

Why do I have to press one for English when you're just going to transfer me to someone I can't understand anyway?

Of course, I talk to myself. Sometimes I need expert advice.

At my age "Getting Lucky" means walking into a room and remembering what I came in there for.
