The Catholic Church in East St. James Stewardship of Ministry

From the Pastor:

We celebrate St. Paul's guidance to his spiritual son, St. Timothy: "Train yourself for devotion. While physical training is of limited value, devotion is valuable in every respect, since it holds a promise of life both for the present and for the future. This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. For we toil and struggle, because we have set our hope on the living God" (1 Tim 4: 7-10). Our hope is in the living God, and we know you affirm the value of shared involvement.

Maybe your gifts are demonstrative and public – you lead committees, you teach, you serve as a liturgist or you direct the building of new facilities. Your gifts could also be demonstrated with few even knowing about it: you mentor a trouble teen, you visit the sick in the hospital, you send notes of encouragement, or you set up chairs long before others arrive. In our cluster, ministry roles are almost too numerous to count. Thanks to faithful parishioners, the work is done for the glory of God we serve. There is certainly a role for you to be a part of. God has gifted you to serve him, your fellow parishioners, and all those who look to our parish for direction, encouragement and assistance. God has called you and we need you.

Please join with other parishioners and offer yourself in service by making a pray full and heartfelt commitment to one of the many ministries our cluster provides to the people of East St. James.

*Your servant in Christ,
Fr. Vincent*
