Be who God meant you to be
and you will set the world on fire.

~ Saint Catherine of Siena
Dear Friends:
I want to share with you an image from last week at our parish that moved me greatly. Friday morning we had the funeral mass for Peggy (O’Connell) Archer, who grew up in our parish and graduated from our school more than 50 years ago. She hadn’t lived nearby in a long time, but wanted to “come home” for her burial. She had invited me to visit her about a month ago at her sister’s home in Lino Lakes, where she was dying of cancer, because she wanted to get to know the priest who would be presiding over her funeral. It was a truly graced encounter, and she shared many memories of her childhood days on the East Side. Soon enough thereafter, she died. The funeral was lovely, as they usually are at St. Pascal’s, but as we carried her casket out of church into the parking lot and the hearse, I saw something that was even more stirring. It happened that that same day was our “Fun and Fitness” day (what we used to call spring Field Day) for our St. Pascal’s School children. It meant that half of the parking lot was devoted to lots of athletic fun and games among our kids, clad in their sports wear, and they were having a great, loud time of it right up until the moment that we emerged from church with Peggy’s casket. At that point, everything fell silent, and there were maybe fifty or sixty children who simply stopped, gathered up close, and paid reverent attention to the sacred event of bearing a dead person to her rest. From the Kindergartners to the eighth-graders, there was not a peep of sound, and an evident respect for the family that was enduring this loss. The surviving husband eventually turned to acknowledge them with a simple word of “Thank You.” I could not have been more proud of our kids. This is what we are about. We talk a lot about what is unique about Catholic education in our part of town, but how do you put in to words a picture like that?

Two other things this week. First, it is a time of transition from “normal” life to summer. In addition to all that means for our school community, it also means new leadership for our parish councils and committees. I am so grateful to be able to tell you that we had more than enough interest among our parishioners to fill the vacancies for the coming year. I will mention specific thanks in the next few weeks to come, both for those “retiring” and for those coming on board. For the moment I will just say, Thank You to all.

And the coming month of June means that I will be away for a couple of weeks, one for vacation and one for a kind of mandatory gathering among the priests of our archdiocese. I haven’t had a break for more than six months, and I need one. I’ll be gone from Sunday, June 11 to Saturday, June 17. I’ll be here for both of those weekends, but not during the week, which means that we won’t have daily mass those days. (And note that we will be moving our Wednesday morning daily mass to 7:30, as we usually do in the summer, beginning June 28). And beginning on June 19 our annual Presbyteral Assembly will be taking place in Rochester. Again, we won’t have daily masses that week (and if any parish near you has one, you can just know that they are operating in disrespect of the Archbishop’s express wishes. Just saying…) It was exactly two years ago, on the very opening day of the Assembly, that the resignation of our former Archbishop was announced. It was chaos, to say the least. We’ve come a long way since then, though we still have a long way to go in recovering the health of our local church.

Parish Office Summer Hours—June 12 through September 1
Monday - Friday from 8:00 AM - 3:00 PM
Have a fun, safe and blessed summer!

We Care Campaign
On the weekend of June 17-18, St. Pascal’s parish will gather the loose change and bills from the collection and donate them to the Social Justice and Caring Committee’s We Care Campaign. The three options chosen by the committee for its summer project are:

Option 1: Hmong American Partnership
The Hmong American Partnership is a non-profit organization founded to serve the Hmong community in Minnesota by improving the lives of individuals and families through culturally sensitive social services and by focusing on empowering the refugee and immigrant community by moving its clients out of poverty towards social and financial prosperity.

Option 2: Smile International Network
The Smile International Network is an organization that provides life-altering reconstructive surgeries and related healthcare services to impoverished children and adults in developing countries.

Option 3: The Sheridan Story
The Sheridan Story is an organization in the Twin Cities area that fights child hunger by providing a weekend supply of food to hungry children whose only meals may be the breakfasts and lunches given to them at school.

We encourage you to make a personal contribution as well, using the envelope provided in the packet of envelopes sent by the parish every other month or found on the tables located by the doors leading into the church. If you prefer to give to one or more of these charities, please indicate this by marking the appropriate option(s) on the envelope. Any unmarked contributions will be divided equally among the three options. Thank you for your generosity.

Baptized in Christ
We welcome into our community of faith
Henri Adam Oster
child of Adam and Jennifer who was recently Baptized in our church.
May God bless this household of faith.

In Christ We Live Forever
Please remember in your prayers...
Robert Daly
who was recently buried from our church.
We extend our sincere sympathy to his family and friends, and pray for his soul’s eternal peace.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Renew Us
Lord our God,
send down your Spirit upon us,
and fill us with your love,
as you filled those gathered in the Upper Room.
Renew our hearts and renew the face
of the earth,
as your Spirit calls us forth to be witnesses
of your love.
Empower us to do your will,
to fulfill the life of the Church in the world,
and grace the lives of those we serve.
Filled with your Holy Spirit,
may our lives proclaim your love and mercy
and our service show forth your varied graces
as we seek to be Christ present as the one Body
and we drink of the one Spirit.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Send Out Your Spirit

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1–11; Psalm 104:1, 24, 29–30, 31, 34; 1 Corinthians 12:3b–7, 12–13; Sequence Veni, Sancte Spiritus; John 20:19–23. “Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth,” we sing as the refrain for the Responsorial Psalm today. The Spirit sent and received at Pentecost is a spirit of renewal, unity, empowerment, and clarity. The description of being filled with the Spirit, and its lasting effects, is powerful. Those filled with the Holy Spirit can change the hearts of those they encounter. However, even in unity, there is a great array of spiritual gifts, as we hear from St. Paul in the Second Reading. The Spirit calls us to be one in Christ, but to participate in our different ministries and “activities.” The beauty of the Holy Spirit is described in the Sequence from today’s liturgy, in which we call forth the Spirit to fill our inmost being, and to shed all seven gifts upon us.

Where are the Spirit’s gifts found in you? Are you called to serve others at prayer, or to teach? Perhaps you are given insight and understanding. On this Pentecost day, name your gift of the Spirit, and celebrate the manifestation of the Spirit and the benefit you are called to confer. We who are part of the one body are given the same Spirit, and joyfully unite in proclaiming—each in our own language and expression—that Jesus is Lord. May we take to heart the words of today’s Sequence, Veni, Sancte Spiritus, as we sing, “Give them virtue’s sure reward; / Give them your salvation, Lord; / Give them joys that never end. Amen. / Alleluia!”
June 9
St. Ephrem
Called the “Harp of the Spirit,” Ephrem was a hymn writer and quite a poet for fourth-century Syria. He not only taught through his hymn texts, he created poetic phrases that captured beautiful meanings for the sacraments, the Church, Christ, and Mary. Find a favorite hymn today, and notice each text, each verse, and each image. What captures your religious imagination in that hymn? Today’s Readings: Colossians 3:12–17; Psalm 37:3–4, 5–6, 30–31; Luke 6:43–45.

Nativity of St. John the Baptist
With humility, John understood his role as the forerunner of Christ. Anticipating the coming of Christ, he states, “He must increase, but I must decrease” (John 3:30). The date that we celebrate John’s birth coincides with John’s statement. After the birth of Jesus, which is near the winter solstice, the days lengthen. With the celebration of John’s birth on June 24, close to the summer solstice, the days become shorter. Today’s Readings: Isaiah 49:1–6; Psalm 139:1b–3, 13–14ab, 14c–15; Acts 13:22–26; Luke 1:57–66, 80.

July 14
St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Virgin
The first Native American saint, Kateri Tekakwitha survived the loss of her parents, disfigurement by small pox, and ridicule and bullying from two tribes. Her faith was her solace. She would walk through the woods, picking up twigs and binding them together as a small cross, and then stick them in the ground. When she returned, she would stop at each twig cross to say a prayer. Make twig crosses and use them to mark prayer stations in your home or on your property. Today’s Readings: Hosea 2:16bc, 17cd, 21–22; Psalm 148:1bc–2, 11–12, 13, 14; Luke 10:38–42.

July 18
St. Camillus de Lellis, Priest
Dedicated to caring for the sick, Camillus de Lellis (d. 1614) not only built hospitals and cared for the ill himself, he founded his own congregation, the Ministers of the Sick, whom he trained and inspired to care for those who are ill, and to treat them with great care and love. Today’s Readings: 1 John 3:14–18; Psalm 112:1–2, 3–4, 5–6, 7–8, 9; John 15:9–17.

July 25
St. James, Apostle
Often referred to as St. James the Greater, and brother of John the evangelist, this Apostle is considered to have been part of Jesus’ inner circle. In Spain, his name has become well known as people travel the Camino de Santiago, also known as the Way of St. James, to the Shrine of St. James the Great in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela. Pilgrims worldwide claim St. James as their patron. Today’s Readings: 2 Corinthians 4:7–15; Psalm 126:1bc–2ab, 2cd–3, 4–5, 6; Matthew 20:20–28.

August 6
Transfiguration of the Lord
The Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord unites the Old and New Testaments in a particular way. Not only is Jesus truly transfigured but Moses and Elijah, the Law and the Prophets, are also transfigured. It is not lost on us that Jesus has given new meaning to all that Moses and the Law, or Elijah and all prophets, have supplied up to that time. We can be transfigured as well, as we find new meaning through Jesus Christ in what we say, learn, do, and offer today. Today’s Readings: Daniel 7:9–10; 13–14; Psalm 97:1–2, 5–6, 9; 2 Peter 1:16–19; Matthew 17:1–9.
