FROM THE PASTOR’S DESK

This weekend we welcome Father John Extejt, OSFS, (Oblates of St. Francis de Sales) to preach at all the Masses for this year’s Missionary Cooperation Plan (MCP) for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Each year the MCP gives an opportunity to the parishes of our Archdiocese to stand in solidarity with the global mission of the Church by hearing and responding to one particular Catholic mission story. Since 1882, the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales have served the poor, hungry and needy in Haiti, India, Namibia, South Africa, Brazil, Ecuador, Uruguay, Columbia, Benin and the Ivory Coast. The Oblates work in the areas of pastoral care, education, social services, housing, medical assistance, the education of seminarians and serving those affected by the AIDS virus. There will be a second collection at all the Masses this weekend to support the work of the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales. Thank you for your generosity.

How well do you remember the account of Pentecost from our First Reading this weekend from the Acts of the Apostles, Chapter 2, verses 1-11?

Fill in the blanks below. The answers can be found on the calendar page of this bulletin.

When the time for _______ was fulfilled, they were all in one _______.

And suddenly there came from the _______ a noise like a strong driving _______, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of ________, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the _______ _______ and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in _______. At this sound, they gathered in a _______ crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them _______ in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, “Are not all these _______ who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native _______? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, _______ of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as _______ from Rome, both Jews and _______ to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own _______ of the mighty acts of _______.”

ACTS 2:1-11

God Bless You,

Father John Mitchell

Living Faith Books

There are still a few Living Faith books for July-September available in the parish office. Suggested donation of $1.25/book.

Stars and Stripes Forever

The parish flagpole needs a new Old Glory after a hard winter. A cloth flag is first to show signs of wear and ours is showing signs of age and many months of good service.

If you are a Veteran who would like to donate a flag or if you have an extra to spare, please contact Jerry Klaas, our facilities supervisor, who oversees the flagpole.

A Time to Grieve Booklets
Would you like to reach out to our families who have lost a loved one? We have a series of booklets called A Time to Grieve by Stephen Ministry. They are a set of four short books to send to a grieving person at four crucial times during the first year after a loved one dies. Each book focuses on what the person is likely experiencing at that point in grief—offering understanding, empathy, compassion, and hope. The booklets are sent with a brief note of encouragement, written by you, to the bereaved.

If you have an interest in being a caring presence to our bereaved family members, contact Bonnie Steele at 651.432.4959 or bonnie.steele@stpascals.org.

Heart Questions
Pentecost
Gifts for Service

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord.

1 Cor. 12:4–5

Adults: What gift of service have you received from the Holy Spirit and how well are you using it right now?

Kids: What gift do you hope to receive from the Holy Spirit? How could you use it to serve others?

"We are made exactly as God wants us to be. We only need to lift our minds above Earth’s empty sorrows so that we can rejoice in the Divine joy.”

Julian of Norwich, Revelations Of Divine Love

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Answers to the Pentecost story puzzler:

Pentecost, place, sky, wind, fire, Holy Spirit, Jerusalem, large, speaking, people, language, inhabitants, travelers, converts, tongues, God

GREAT JOB!
Today’s Readings: Acts 2:1–11; Psalm 104:1, 24, 25–30, 31, 34; 1 Corinthians 12:3b–7, 12–13; John 20:19–23. The Easter season ends with the Solemnity of Pentecost, which marks the disciples going into the world. In today’s reading from Acts, the disciples are gathered in the upper room, the place where they encountered the Risen Christ and where they received the gift of his Body and Blood. Here, they receive the gift of the Holy Spirit and are empowered for the mission that Jesus has entrusted to them.

Crowds in the streets of Jerusalem understand when the disciples speak, even though the gathering consists of people from many nations. This group symbolizes the worldwide mission of the Church. The Spirit will guide and encourage the disciples as they journey beyond Jerusalem to share the Word of God with all people.

The work of the disciples continues today. In our lives, followers of Christ are to welcome and look to the Holy Spirit for guidance as they continue to make God known. Some may be astounded at this and others bewildered. Still, we need to speak “of the mighty works of God.” Take some time in quiet and begin a prayer with “Come, Holy Spirit, come!” In your own words, request courage, strength, and a joyful spirit for carrying out your discipleship. Seek to make the Spirit a welcome guest in your prayer life.

Abundance of the Holy Spirit

Father of all nations, you gather your people so that we may know the power of the Holy Spirit, alive in the driving wind and the tongues of fire. May we be filled abundantly with your Spirit, so that we can proclaim your holy name to every man, woman, and child throughout the earth. May all the world know the mighty deeds of our God. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mary, Mother of the Church
A year ago, Pope Francis proclaimed that the day after Pentecost would be celebrated as the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church. In the document in which this day was promulgated, the Congregation of Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments recalls Mary and John standing at the foot of the Cross. There, the document states, Mary welcomed “all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters reborn unto eternal life.”

Tuesday, June 11
St. Barnabas
Barnabas was a companion of St. Paul, and the account of their journeys is recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. This disciple was not one of the original Twelve Apostles, but tradition holds that he was a part of the seventy-two commissioned by Jesus to preach. He is, then, given the title of Apostle. Acting as a mediator, he is responsible for introducing Paul, who persecuted the early Christians, to the other Apostles. Barnabas is invoked as a peacemaker.

Thursday, June 13
St. Anthony of Padua
St. Anthony of Padua, a Franciscan friar, loved Sacred Scripture and had a gift for preaching. He especially valued his Book of Psalms that he had filled with notes and comments that he used to teach other friars. When a young novice stole Anthony’s book while leaving the community, Anthony prayed that it would be found or returned to him. Soon after, both the book and the young man returned to the community. St. Anthony is invoked as the patron saint of lost articles.

Monday, July 22
St. Mary Magdalene
In elevating the day when Mary Magdalene is honored from a memorial to a feast day, Pope Francis recognized her role as an evangelizer. Most saints are honored on the liturgical calendar with a day designated as a “memorial.” Days of particular significance and the days honoring the Twelve Apostles are feast days. Mary Magdalene has long been called the apostle to the Apostles for proclaiming to them that Jesus had risen.

Today’s Readings: Song of Songs 3:1–4b or 2 Corinthians 5:14–17; Psalm 63:2, 3–4, 5–6, 8–9; John 20:1–2, 11–18.

Thursday, July 25
St. James the Apostle
James was among the first Apostles called by Jesus. He and his brother John were fishing with their father in a boat on the Sea of Galilee. Their response to Jesus’ call was to immediately abandon their nets and follow. Along with Peter and John, James witnessed the Transfiguration, the raising of Jairus’ daughter, and was with the Lord in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Wednesday, August 21
St. Pius X
Pope Pius X desired that the faithful receive Holy Communion frequently. His devotion to the Eucharist brought him to be called the “Pope of the Blessed Sacrament.” He is the patron saint of first communicants and the Diocese of Des Moines, Iowa. His motto was “Restore all things in Christ, so that Christ may be all in all.” How does the Eucharist assist the Church and each of us to live Pope St. Pius X’s motto?

Thank you to all who donated money for flowers and enhancements for our worship space during this holy season from Easter to Pentecost.
