FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Issue of Immigration.

Three weeks ago during my Sunday homily, I spoke about immigration in our country and the Catholic Church’s teachings about respecting the dignity of our immigrant brothers and sisters. I think immigration is an important topic to hear about as a parish community because of the growing number of refugees that are coming to our country to find a safe place to live. Also, many of us here at St. Pascal Baylon Parish and many people on the East Side of St. Paul are either recent immigrants to the United States, or we have ancestors who were immigrants that arrived in this country during the late 1800’s or early 1900’s. In my case, my father’s family came to Minnesota from Czechoslovakia (Mitchell was originally spelled Mikschl), and my mother’s family came to Minnesota from Poland (her maiden name was Kotula).

Pope Francis has designated Sunday, September 29, 2019 as World Day of Migrants and Refugees. Over the last several weeks, our Social Justice and Caring Committee and our Parish Staff members have been discussing with me how our parish community can learn more about immigration and how we can integrate the themes of immigration, welcome, and the dignity of the human person into our Sunday and weekday liturgies. In addition to these planning efforts, I invite you to join me in praying to the Holy Spirit to guide us in reaching out to meet the immediate needs of immigrants in our community.

In 2012, the Minnesota Catholic Bishops voiced their support for comprehensive immigration reform at the federal level (Unlocking the Gate in Our Hearts, 2012, paragraph 4). They reiterated five principles which were originally explained in paragraphs 33-39 of the 2003 document, Strangers No Longer, Together on the Journey of Hope; A Pastoral Letter Concerning Migration from the Catholic Bishops of Mexico and the United States:

1. Persons have the right to find opportunity in their homeland. All people have the right to find in their own countries the economic, political, and social opportunities to live in dignity and achieve a full life.

2. Persons have the right to migrate to support themselves and their families. When persons cannot find employment in their country of origin to support themselves and their families, they have a right to find work elsewhere in order to survive.

3. Sovereign nations have the right to control their borders. The Church recognizes the right of sovereign nations to control their borders in furtherance of the common good, and the Church also recognizes the right of human persons to migrate so that they can realize their God-given rights. These teachings complement each other. While the sovereign nation may impose reasonable limits on immigration, the common good is not served when the basic human rights of the individual are violated.

4. Refugees and asylum seekers should be afforded protection. Those who flee wars and persecution should be protected by the global community.

5. The human dignity and human rights of all persons, including undocumented immigrants, should be respected. Regardless of their legal status, immigrants, like all persons, possess inherent human dignity that should be respected.

Let us continue to grow in our understanding of immigration and our awareness of the dignity of all of our brothers and sisters.

God Bless You,

Father John Mitchell
