Morning Offering. Last weekend in my homily, I talked about praying a Morning Offering as a way to dedicate to God whatever joys, challenges or sufferings come our way each day. We can pray a Morning Offering in our own words. Or if you like, you can use the Morning Offering Prayer written by a Jesuit priest named Francois-Xavier Gautrelet in 1844. He wrote it for a group of Jesuit seminarians who were frustrated that their years of seminary study were delaying what they imagined was more important apostolic work in the mission fields. Father Gautrelet taught these seminarians to offer each day to God. Thus, their prayer, study, work, recreation, and suffering would advance the work of the missions as much as their direct work in the field.

A Morning Offering: O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

You can find the monthly intentions of the Holy Father (Pope Francis) listed on the U.S. Catholic Bishops website, www.usccb.org under the heading “Prayer and Worship, the Pope’s Monthly Intentions for 2019”. Everyone is welcome to pray for these intentions, and Pope Francis has entrusted these intentions in a particular way to the Pope’s Worldwide Prayer Network also known as the Apostleship of Prayer. Here are the monthly intentions for 2019:

- September – The Protection of the Oceans. That politicians, scientists and economists work together to protect the world’s seas and oceans.
- October – A Missionary “Spring” in the Church. That the breath of the Holy Spirit engender a new missionary “spring” in the Church.
- November – Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East. That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.
- December – The Future of the Very Young. That every country take the measures necessary to prioritize the future of the very young, especially those who are suffering.

God Bless You,
Father John Mitchell

World Day of Migrants and Refugees: September 28/29
What is your immigration story? Perhaps, you don’t have an immigration story? How have you come to this place and time? The people who live in the United States hail from all corners of our world and that is the beauty of our nation. We are people of many hues, ethnicities, races, and nationalities! We are storied people; each of us brings the resilience, brokenness, and love of our ancestors. Some of us are here because our ancestors were seeking freedom and a better life! Some of us are here because our loved ones fled persecution, war, and genocide. Still others of our ancestors came not of their own volition, but were subject to chattel slavery, torn from those they loved and all that was familiar. And finally, some of us in Minnesota are the “original people;” the Anishinaabe, or the Dakota and 4f_ind what’s familiar. And 4f_inally, some of us in Minnesota are the “original people;” the Anishinaabe, or the Dakota and 4f_ind what’s familiar. Heart Questions

The Courage to Forgive

The servant replied, “Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.” Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him.

Adults: When have you persistently sought after a member of your family who has lost his or her way?

Kids: Have you ever felt you were not getting credit for your good works? What did you do?

Buen Camino!

I leave on pilgrimage to Spain this weekend and will return in mid-October. This year’s route, the Camino Ingles, follows the path of British and Irish pilgrims from the north coast to Santiago de Compostela. After that walk is completed, I will be staying in a 14th century building and greeting pilgrims at a visitor center outside of Santiago for two weeks.

Many thanks to Fr. John who said “yes” to the proposal and my fellow staff members who will handle duties while I am away. I will take you all in my heart and ask for blessings as I undertake another pilgrimage. I will post on the parish Facebook page and hope to share the sights and spirit of the Camino and Spain with you all. Blessings and Happy Fall—Theresa

St. Pascal’s Is Partnering with Angel Tree This Year

Angel Tree seeks to share God’s love by helping to meet the needs of the families of prisoners. When mom or dad is in prison, their children are often the silent sufferers. You can let them know they are not forgotten by shopping for Christmas gifts on behalf of their incarcerated parent. With your help, St. Pascal’s will be providing gifts for five families. For more information or if you would like to help, please contact Bonnie Steele at bonnie.steele@stpascals.org or 651.432.4959.

JustFaith Catholic

Build a world where poverty and injustice no longer exists.

JustFaith is a program that challenges participants to live out the Gospel call to care for the poor and marginalized among us. Through the lens of Catholic social teaching, JustFaith Catholic uses books, articles, online videos and immersion experiences to expose participants to obstacles that hinder human flourishing, so the group might explore together how their own gifts and skills can meet the world’s needs.

I never really thought that I could make a difference in the world. But I have come to see that one person can effect change. I will never be the same. - Helene S., Participant.
