FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Masses for the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, will be celebrated on Tuesday, December 31 at 4:00 PM and Wednesday, January 1 at 9:00 PM. From the earliest centuries of the Church's history, Mary has been honored as the Mother of God. At the Council of Ephesus in the year 431, the Church affirmed that “Mary truly became the Mother of God by the human conception of the Son of God in her womb” (Catechism, 466). Soon after the Council of Ephesus, liturgical celebrations of Mary, the Mother of God, began to appear in various countries. Honoring Mary on January 1 as the Mother of God connects us to Christmas and the wonder of the Incarnation, and this is one example of how Mary leads us to her Son and helps us to love Him even more.

On Tuesday morning, December 31, there will be no 8:00 AM Mass celebrated here because we have Mass later in the day at 4:00 PM to celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God.

Baby Bottle Fundraiser, January 5-26. We will have a fundraiser to support the work of Options for Women East LifeCare Center, 891 White Bear Ave., St. Paul, 651.776.2328, optionsforwomeneast.com. After all the weekend Masses on January 4-5, a plastic baby bottle will be available to each person who would like to take the bottle home and fill it with cash or a check. From January 5-26, you can bring the bottle back to church and deposit the bottle and its contents into the large baby bottle receptacle in our Gathering Space. If you prefer electronic giving, the donor website for Options for Women East is ofwepartners.com. Options for Women East offers services and resources at no cost to women who are unexpectedly pregnant.

Thank you for supporting St. Pascal Regional Catholic School during their December Scholastic Book Fair school fundraiser. Thanks also for supporting the 7th/8th grade fundraiser at Culver’s Restaurant on December 16 and grocery bagging at Cub Foods on December 21 which are fundraising events for the 7th/8th Grade Trip to Washington D.C. May 13-16, 2020.

Thank you to the St. Pascal’s Men’s Club for all their work with the Christmas Tree Sale this year. The men give many hours of work to the Tree Sale every year, and we appreciate all their commitment, enthusiasm and hard work. Thanks also to everyone who purchased a Christmas tree at our tree lot.

Thank you to the St. Pascal’s Women’s Club for all their work with the Christmas Bake Sale on December 14-15. We appreciate all the time and hard work our women in the Women’s Club give to the Bake Sale every December. Thanks also to everyone who donated items to the bake sale and to everyone who purchased baked goods at the sale.

Audio versions of Sunday homilies from Deacon Richard Moore and myself are available on our parish website at www.stpascals.org. Go to the drop down menu beneath the category “PRAY”, and then click on the link for HOMILIES, and select the homily of your choice.

Pope Francis’ Prayer Intention

January 2020: Promotion of World Peace. We pray that Christians, followers of other religions, and all people of goodwill may promote peace and justice in the world.

God Bless You,
Father John Mitchell

Mary, Mother of God

Wednesday, January 1, is the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, a holy day of obligation. Masses will be celebrated Tuesday, December 31, at 4:00 PM and Wednesday, January 1, at 9:00 AM.

Fellowship Sunday

Men’s Club Fresh-made Donuts

Sunday, January 12 after both Masses

Don’t miss the Men’s Club’s freshly made donuts and their secret formula orange drink. Donuts will also be available for purchase at $6 a dozen.

Women’s Book Club

January 13 at 6:30 PM

Time to make a New Year’s resolution to read more! Join the St. Pascal Women’s Book Club. We meet in the Founders Room on the 2nd Monday of each month. You can come as often as your schedule allows. In January, we will discuss Fatal Throne: The Wives of Henry VIII by seven authors. On February 10 we will share our thoughts on The Chilbury Ladies’ Choir by Jennifer Ryan. Contact Toni Baker at toni@bakers.us or 651.731.7763 for a list of the twelve 2020 selections or for more information.

Baptized in Christ

We welcome into our community of faith

Courtney Anne Podobinski child of Joseph & Jennifer who was recently Baptized in our church.

May God bless this household of faith.

In Christ We Live Forever

Please remember in your prayers…

Rosemary Hall
James Stach

who were recently buried from our church. We extend our sincere sympathy to their families and friends, and pray for their souls’ eternal peace.

“Is the relationship between God and Jesus Christ not unique? Of course it is. But so is yours. The relationship between God and every human being is unique and irreplaceable—in ever-new variations of the Christ theme.”

—David Steindl-Rast, Deeper Than Words: Living the Apostles’ Creed
To all of our supporters, you have given the children at St. Pascal regional Catholic School a tremendous gift, the best gift: a quality Catholic education.

On behalf of the Santa Shop, Scholastic Book Fair donations, the countless volunteer hours to the school, and the entire dedicated faculty and staff of St. Pascal Regional Catholic School, thank you for choosing St. Pascal Regional Catholic School, thank you for providing the foundation in faith and values in a Catholic school, and thank you for embracing the mission of loving Jesus, loving like Jesus, and thinking of Jesus in every action each day!

Let us thank God for the many blessings He has bestowed on our school community. May God continue to bless you and your family for the many sacrifices you have made to the school, and the entire parish. Let us thank God for the many blessings He has bestowed on our school community. May God continue to bless you and your family for the many sacrifices you have made to the school, and thank you for embracing the mission of loving Jesus, loving like Jesus, and thinking of Jesus in every action each day!

Have a great start to 2020!

Principal

It’s time to make our schedule for 2020 Ramsey Family Service Center Meal Services
St. Pascal volunteers have served meals to those who often go without since March of 1983—join us this year! Some volunteers serve an evening weekday meal from 5:00-7:00 PM (3rd, 4th or 5th Monday and 2nd Wednesday of the month), others serve lunch on Monday. All assignments are every other month (6 times a year). Some of our groups need callers to remind the volunteers of their service night. Could you make 4-5 calls a few days before the team is scheduled to work? It’s an easy volunteer job that can be done from home! Contact Toni Baker at 651.731.7763 or toni@bakers.us for more information, to volunteer, to change your service time, etc.

Year-End Financial Gifts
As this calendar year quickly comes to a close you may consider a special year-end financial gift to the parish in support of our many ministries and/or to support our mortgage reduction efforts. Last year, we received many special year-end gifts of cash or stock. These gifts are greatly appreciated and certainly encouraged! Remember, all gifts must be received by December 31 to be considered for the 2019 tax year.

Confirmation Preparation
9th Grade Families
In November a mailing was sent to families of 9th graders regarding registration for confirmation. If you have a 9th grader and did not receive the mailing, please contact Kim Roering in the parish office. Youth in 9th grade and older who wish to prepare for the sacrament are welcome to be a part of the process. Registration deadline has been extended to January 6.

Seeking Dismissal Leaders for RCIA
This year we have one young person, a 5th grader, preparing to celebrate the initiation sacraments at the Easter Vigil. As a part of the RCIA process, catechumens—those who have not yet been baptized—are dismissed from Mass following the homily to reflect on the readings with a member of the parish. Dismissals will begin on January 11 and will rotate among all three Masses. If you are willing and able to help with this ministry, or would like more information, please contact Kim Roering in the parish office.

JustFaith Catholic
The Gospel invites us to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, going where Jesus goes and loving who Jesus loves. To love like Jesus is to love our family and friends AND the poor and vulnerable. If you would like to explore what it could mean for you to love like Jesus in your daily life, you are invited to participate in the JustFaith Catholic program. This fall, two small groups met as a part of JustFaith Catholic Phase One, with a focus on “Journey to Compassion.” Phase Two—“Journey to Justice”—will begin at the end of January. Through its focus on the U.S. criminal justice system and income inequality, Phase Two challenges participants to revisit how our faith informs our responsibility to each other. One can join Phase Two even if they did not participate in Phase One. JustFaith Catholic at St. Pascal’s is sponsored by the Social Justice and Caring Committee and the Adult Faith Formation Committee.

Registration forms are now available in the kiosks and on the parish website. Watch the bulletin and website for more information about Phase Two or contact Ann Karner at 651.330.0024.

“May you experience each day as a sacred gift woven around the heart of wonder.”
—John O’Donohue, Eternal Echoes: Celtic Reflections on Our Yearning to Belong
Families

God our Father, we first encounter you in the love of our families, and we give thanks for those who have loved us.

Yet no earthly family is perfect. All need your grace. We pray especially for struggling families:

- for single-parent households,
- for absent parents and their children,
- for grandparents raising grandchildren,
- for foster parents and for orphans,
- and for those with no one left to care for them.

Bring us into your one eternal family, a family filled with your peace.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 29, 2019

Perfecting our Bonds

Today’s Readings: Sirach 3:2–6, 12–14; Psalm 128:1–2, 3, 4–5; Colossians 3:12–21 or 3:12–17; Matthew 2:13–15, 19–23. Today we reflect on the many meanings of family.

Our first reading elaborates on the Fourth Commandment: “Honor your father and mother.” In cultures that prize youthfulness and autonomy, the aged seem like burdens or even reminders of our mortality. This passage enjoins us to respect and treasure our parents and elders. Acting otherwise offends our heavenly Father.

Joseph and Mary modeled the holiness God wanted for his people. Jesus’ parents could not have guided their son in holiness had they themselves not been open to God’s love and guidance. Today we hear especially how Joseph modeled parental love. When his family was in danger, he fled to a foreign land in order to protect them. By protecting Mary and Jesus, Joseph ultimately protected the much larger family of God.

During his ministry, Jesus formed a new family. This family is open to everyone and is based not on one’s ancestry but on love and faith in Jesus. St. Paul describes the behavior of those who belong to this family in words that are inspiring and heart-warming. Members of God's family are people of peace and gratitude who treat one another with the same love God has shown them.

Our treatment of both biological and spiritual family members may fall short of the behavior commanded in these readings. We ask one another for forgiveness as we call upon God to strengthen our family bonds.
Monday, December 30
The Era of Salvation
Anna tells how a new era of salvation has begun with Jesus. The old world with its deadly vices like anger and pride is passing away. Those who follow Jesus and his life of love become part of God’s new world, a world of justice, peace, and mutual love. Today thank someone who has been like Anna to you, teaching you to give thanks to God and to do his will so as to become part of his new world. Today’s Readings: 1 John 2:12–17; Psalm 96:7–8a, 8b–9, 10; Luke 2:36–40.

Tuesday, December 31
For the World
St. John sometimes uses the term the world simply to refer to everyone, but at other times the world refers to evil, to hostile elements, and to people who oppose God and his Son. God offers the light of his salvation for all the world, but some people prefer to remain in darkness. Such people might even have been baptized and anointed with the Spirit, professing their belief that Jesus was sent by God to save the world, only to turn away from the truth later. Talk with or pray for someone who has left the Catholic Church. Today’s Readings: 1 John 2:18–21; Psalm 96:1–2, 11–12, 13; John 1:1–18.

Wednesday, January 1
Mary, the Holy Mother of God
The use of the title Mother of God emerged in the early centuries of the Church during debates about the nature of Jesus. Some theologians claimed that only the human Jesus took flesh in Mary’s womb. Others rightly insisted that Jesus wasn’t sometimes fully human and at other times fully divine: he was fully divine even while in his mother’s womb. Mary is thus the bearer of divinity, the Mother of God. Honor her by praying the Rosary today. Today’s Readings: Numbers 6:22–27; Psalm 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8 (2a); Galatians 4:4–7; Luke 2:16–21.

Thursday, January 2
St. Basil the Great and St. Gregory Nazianzen
The Gospel of John reads like a great courtroom drama in which Jesus is on trial, witnesses are called, and we must ask ourselves who we believe Jesus is. John the Baptist is the first witness to take the stand. John’s true testimony about Jesus, the Son, unites him to the Father. Several centuries later Sts. Basil and Gregory also strove to speak truly about who Jesus was at a time when people denied Jesus’ full divinity. Take some time today to reflect first on Jesus’ divinity and then on his humanity. Today’s Readings: 1 John 2:22–28; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; John 1:19–28.

Friday, January 3
Lamb of God
John the Baptist continues his testimony, declaring that Jesus is the Lamb of God. Jesus is the Passover lamb who saves people from death, the food of fellowship between God and his people, a lamb sacrificed for our sins, and the triumphant Lamb who now reigns in heaven. He purifies all who believe in him, all who strive to turn away from sin and toward God’s love. Write a prayer or draw a picture that honors Jesus, the Lamb of God. Today’s Readings: 1 John 2:29—3:6; Psalm 98:1, 3cd–4, 5–6; John 1:29–34.

Saturday, January 4
St. Elizabeth Ann Seton
Today we celebrate the life of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, who founded the first Catholic school. The First Reading assures us that although we each sin, we are forgiven by God, who dwells with his Church, keeping it pure. When John the Baptist urges his disciples to follow Jesus, the process of forming this purified community begins. The two disciples, soon joined by Peter, stay with Jesus. They will remain with him forever. Imagine that you go to stay with Jesus, too. What do you talk about with him for the rest of that day? Today’s Readings: 1 John 3:7–10; Psalm 98:1, 7–8, 9; John 1:35–42.
Thank you to all who donated money for flowers and enhancements for our worship space during this holy season.
