FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

Communal Reconciliation with General Absolution on Wednesday, December 2 at 3:00 PM and 6:30 PM

As we approach the Season of Advent, many parishes are making plans for communal celebrations of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, Archbishop Hebda has granted special permission to priests to impart absolution to multiple persons without prior confession as provided in the Code of Canon Law, Canon #961.

Therefore, we will have two communal celebrations of the Sacrament of Reconciliation with general confession of sins and general absolution on Wednesday, December 2 at 3:00 PM and 6:30 PM. The 3:00 PM celebration will be especially helpful to people who find it difficult to drive in the dark, and the 6:30 PM celebration will be helpful to those who have a daytime work schedule.

Two conditions regarding Communal Reconciliation with General Absolution are important to note:

1. For a person to receive general absolution, it is required that the person intends to confess within a suitable period of time each grave sin which at the present time cannot be so confessed individually to a priest (Canon 962). The reason for this requirement is the Church teaches that individual confession and absolution are the ordinary means by which we celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In my experience, many people find it to be healing and freeing to speak one-on-one with a priest about their sins and to hear the priest say these words to them, "I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. The Lord has freed you from your sins, go in peace". The one-on-one aspect of the Sacrament of Reconciliation is healing and something we should preserve even at times when emergencies, such as a pandemic, make it helpful to have the option for General Absolution.
2. A person whose grave sins are forgiven by general absolution is to approach individual confession as soon as possible, given the opportunity, before receiving another general absolution, unless a just cause intervenes (Canon 963). I think the purpose of this canon is to encourage people to not have general absolution of their sins be the only way they celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The individual attention we receive in the one-on-one celebration of Reconciliation with a priest allows the priest to offer individual advice and counsel geared specifically for us. I compare this to the one-on-one attention I receive from my doctor or dentist when I go for an appointment. I appreciate having the doctor or dentist offer me treatment especially geared to me as an individual with my needs and situation. I think one-on-one Reconciliation with a priest can offer the same encounter with healing.

Lastly, many of our faithful, through no fault of their own, may be unable to come during Advent for either individual confession or the rite of general absolution. Archbishop Hebda asked priests to pass along these reassuring words to you: "When people find themselves in the painful impossibility of receiving sacramental absolution, it should be remembered that perfect contrition, coming from the love of God, beloved above all things, expressed by a sincere request for forgiveness and accompanied by a firm resolution to have recourse, as soon as possible, to sacramental confession, obtains forgiveness of sins, even mortal ones (Catechism, paragraph 1452).

God Bless You,

Father John Mitchell

Eucharistic Ministers: Winter Schedule

It is time for the next schedule to be done. Many thanks to those of you who feel comfortable continuing this ministry. If you opted out of the previous schedule, but now feel ready to be back in serving, please note that we have three stations for Holy Communion at each Mass, and so need two lay ministers in addition to Father John. Please check your calendars for December, January, and February, and let Joann know of your availability. She needs those dates by November 16. If you have questions or want more information you may contact Joann at joann.bertini@gmail.com or 651.735.2762.

Financial Statement Update

We now have the capability to send your giving statements via email using a secure server. We will be testing this system in the next few weeks with a year-to-date report. If this goes well, 2020 year-end statements will be sent in January via email. Those people who do not have an email address on file will continue to receive their year-end statements in the mail. Hopefully, we will be able to save postage costs in this process.
