FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Blessing of Grandparents. This past Monday, July 26, the Church celebrated the Memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne. They are recognized as the patron saints of grandparents because Joachim and Anne were the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the grandparents of Jesus.

The New Testament contains no specific information about the lives of the Blessed Virgin Mary's parents, but other documents outside of the Bible do provide some details. Although these writings are not considered authoritative in the same manner as the Bible, they outline some of the Church's traditional beliefs about Joachim and Anne. The Protoevangelium of James describes Joachim as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. Joachim was deeply grieved, along with his wife Anne, by their childlessness. Joachim and Anne began to devote themselves to prayer. One day, an angel revealed to Anne that a child would be born to them, and when their daughter was born, they named her Mary. (Source: catholicnewsagency.com)

As I reflect on the blessings of having grandparents, I was blessed with loving, supportive grandparents. I have wonderful memories of visiting my maternal grandparents in Browerville and my paternal grandparents in Owatonna. Both sets of our grandparents had interesting homes, garages and yards filled with items we didn't see at home, so it was fun to explore. Our grandparents were generous towards us children, and our grandmothers would often give us a little money to buy candy at the store. Then my mother or father would say to Grandma, "Mom, you don't have to give them money for candy." And then Grandma would respond, "That's okay, I want to give it to them." My brother, sister and I would then hustle towards the door and run down to the corner store for some candy before another word was said.

Another fond memory is having lenient rules at Grandma's dining room table. For example, I was not required to finish eating all the food on my plate before Grandma allowed me to have dessert. This kind of behavior was not tolerated at home where mom and dad laid down the law. When we were at Grandma's house, there was a different set of rules that I liked very much.

On a serious note, I remember how both of my grandmothers would go to church early on Sunday to pray the Rosary before Mass. By the time us children and our parents arrived just before Mass started, we would look for Grandma sitting or kneeling in her usual spot in the pews. This prayerfulness was an inspiration to me.

To all grandparents out there: you are blessing to your grandchildren. You are example to them of faith, prayer and goodness. Your life history is a balm to their worries and sorrows because you speak with a voice of wisdom and longevity. You can assure your grandchildren that the bad days pass and the good days return. Furthermore, grandchildren are usually more open to the advice of grandparents who speak with a different tone than the authoritative voice of the child's parents.

To all grandparents: God Bless You for the love, faith and wisdom you share with your grandchildren, your family and all of us.

Prayer Intention of Pope Francis for August 2021: The Church. Let us pray for the Church, that she may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

God Bless You,
Father John Mitchell

Prayer for the Year of Saint Joseph

Heavenly Father,
Who gave St. Joseph to Jesus and Mary
As protector and guide,
Grant that our Archdiocesan Synod,
Under his protection and guidance,
May help us discern your direction for our Church.
May we listen as he listened,
Trust as he trusted,
Obey as he obeyed,
Receive as he received,
Love as he loved,
And share in his life of devotion to Jesus and Mary.
Amen.
St. Joseph, pray for us.
