Making Plans to Hire a Pastoral Care Minister
Over the last few weeks, I have consulted with our parish staff, the parish finance council and the parish pastoral council about the idea of hiring a full-time pastoral care minister at our church. I heard strong support for this idea from the staff and advisory councils. I think it is the right time for us to hire a pastoral care minister. We have needs in our parish for ministry to the sick, the homebound, the elderly, the dying and families at the time of a funeral. A pastoral care minister would also be a resource to individuals and families who experience daily struggles and life changes. As I look ahead to my sabbatical plans for Fall 2023 and being in Italy from September - November 2023, it would be very helpful to have a pastoral care minister on our staff who would take the lead in planning funerals and organizing pastoral care for our families. During my sabbatical, there will be a substitute priest assigned to our parish to celebrate Masses, funerals and the other sacraments, but the priest will not be here full-time, and having a pastoral care minister on staff would be very helpful. I will be putting together a job description for the pastoral care minister and assembling an interview team to help me review applications and conduct interviews. I will keep you updated as the process moves along. Please keep us in your prayers.

As I am putting together my plans for a 3-month sabbatical during Fall 2023, I am applying for a parish grant from the Lilly Endowment for Clergy Renewal to help pay for my sabbatical fees, travel expenses and activities for you while I am gone so that you are renewed while I am being renewed. If we receive the grant, all of our activities will be paid for by the Lilly Endowment. What a great opportunity! The theme for my sabbatical is "Being healthy in spirit, mind and body". While I am focusing on this theme in Italy and during my travels, here are my initial ideas for the grant proposal for you to do while I am on sabbatical:

a) read the book "7 Keys to Spiritual Wellness" by Joe Paprocki, published by Loyola Press. Free copies will be available to pick up at church;
b) participate in a free painting class for up to 100 people in Brioschi Hall; the class will be taught by an instructor from CheersPablo (cheerspablo.com) who will lead the group through the painting of a picture. The goal is to inspire creativity, reduce stress and try something fun. People of all artistic levels can participate in this step-by-step painting class;
c) possibly have an outdoor event at a local park where people can enjoy physical activity, free food, beverages and fun. Stay tuned. I will keep you updated.

Beacon Update
Our Beacon group, here at St. Pascal's has met with 4 legislators in the past 2 weeks, to see if we could get their support for the Bring It Home MN bill. Visits went very well and they are all in support of rental subsidies and housing infrastructure bonds for low-income Minnesotans. Want more information? Contact Ann Kaner at Ann akaner24@gmail.com and/or Julie Moore at 0109jmm@gmail.com.

Step 1 of our JustFaith Journey
This week our JustFaith group learned about collective sin which involves the actions of multiple individuals acting collectively to hurt or oppress other humans, providing benefits for individuals and groups as a result. Social sin is collective blindness as to how actions of some groups affect the lives of others resulting in unlivable wages, hunger/food insecurity, and substandard housing. We ask that you pray for us as we continue on this journey. Questions: Contact Ann akaner24@gmail.com.

Deep and Real Prayer

Today’s readings: Genesis 15:5–12, 17–18; Psalm 27:1, 7–8, 8–9, 13–14; Philippians 3:17—4:1; Luke 9:28b–36. In Luke’s account of the Transfiguration, we hear these words: “Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray.” The sole focus of the climb of the mountain was prayer.

What a stunning and revelatory moment it was for Peter, John, and James to experience Jesus praying deeply, changing in appearance, and even his clothes turning dazzling white. Seeing Jesus in his fullness, the apostles witnessed their friend’s divinity. They were speechless when they heard God say, “This is my chosen Son; listen to him.”

As we begin the second week of Lent, consider how Jesus prioritized prayer and the place it holds in your life. Do you set aside time for prayer? Do you allow space to be silent before God? Examine your schedule to determine a time for prayer.

St. Paul tells us in the second reading that “our citizenship is in heaven.” There, Christ will change our bodies to “conform with his glorified body.” But he tells them first that they need to imitate the holy life that he has set before them, changing their focus from earthly things. Help yourself focus this week on heavenly things by praying the psalm from today and contemplating the refrain, “The Lord is my light and my salvation.”
THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, March 14
Share Mercy
Today’s Gospel calls us to “be merciful.” Merciful actions beget mercy. “The measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you,” Jesus tells the disciples. Act on one of the seven corporal works of mercy: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, bury the dead, give alms to the poor. Today’s readings: Daniel 9:4b–10; Psalm 79:8, 9, 11; Luke 6:36–38.

Tuesday, March 15
Truly Humble
People often tout their accomplishments and their status. Jesus’ message today is contrary to such behavior. He tells us that the greatest among us must be a servant, and that those who are humble will be exalted. Seek to be conscious of whether you are boastful. When we act as the person God created us to be, there is no need to boast, for each one of us is made in God’s image and likeness. Today’s readings: Isaiah 1:10, 16–20; Psalm 50:8–9, 16bc–17, 21, and 23; Matthew 23:1–12.

Wednesday, March 16
Service
Jeremiah was a young prophet. When first called by God, he didn’t want the job. He knew it would be tough to challenge people who were not following God’s ways. Christians today can be wary of taking on their call as disciples. Jesus asks us to serve without seeking favor. For many of us such service is difficult. How will you follow Jesus today by serving others? Today’s readings: Jeremiah 18:18–20; Psalm 31:5–6, 14, 15–16; Matthew 20:17–28.

Thursday, March 17
Priorities
Lying at the rich man’s door, Lazarus would have liked to receive any bit of food. The rich man did not heed the poor any more than he was attentive to Moses and the prophets. Many things vie for our attention. Where do you put your focus: on Christian teachings and Scripture or on more earthly things? Make a list today of your top ten priorities. Where does God fall on the list? Today’s readings: Jeremiah 17:5–10; Psalm 1:1–2, 3, 4, and 6; Luke 16:19–31.

Friday, March 18
Faith during Adversity
Jealousy, hatred, vengeful feelings are strong human emotions that can be at the root of poor choices. Cyril of Jerusalem, whose feast day is today, was treated unjustly by his contemporaries but remained faithful. He was the bishop of Jerusalem and later named a doctor of the church. He is known for his homilies that prepared catechumens for initiation into the Church. Today’s readings: Genesis 37:3–4, 12–13a, 17b–28a; Psalm 105:16–17, 18–19, 20–21; Matthew 21:33–43, 45–46.

Saturday, March 19
St. Joseph, Spouse of Mary
As we celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we hear in the Gospel that Joseph is “a righteous man” unwilling to expose Mary to shame. When an angel visited Joseph in a dream, he showed great trust and confidence in God’s plan for him and Mary. Joseph is the patron of the universal Church. Pray through the intercession of St. Joseph today, mindful of his example of faith. Today’s readings: 2 Samuel 7:4–5a, 12–14a, 16; Psalm 89:2–3, 4–5, 27, and 29; Romans 4:13, 16–18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18–21, 24a.
