FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Each year, the Cycle A Scripture readings may be used at weekend Masses on the Third, Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent, especially in parishes where catechumens (those preparing for baptism at Easter) are present. Since we have a catechumen, Emily, who will be baptized at Easter in our parish, we will be using the Year A readings at the weekend Mass when Emily is present. The Year A readings contain themes associated with Christian initiation: water, light, new life and salvation. At the other two weekend Masses where we do not have the Year A readings, we will hear the readings from Year C from this third year of the Sunday Lectionary cycle (Year A, B and C).

God's patience with us. The Year C Gospel reading this weekend is from Luke, chapter 13 which tells the parable of the fig tree. The parable describes a fig tree which has not produced fruit for three years, and the owner of the tree decides to cut it down. However, at the suggestion of the gardener taking care of the tree, the owner decides to leave it for this year and for the future because it may bear fruit. The parable can be understood to describe God's patient love for us. God gives us time to turn away from sin and to better live God's commandments and the joy of the Gospel. Although we may feel that God will not pardon our sins and be patient with us, we are reminded in this weekend's Responsorial Psalm 103: "The Lord is kind and merciful, God pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills, redeems your life from destruction and crowns you with kindness and compassion". How blessed are we that God is loving and patient with us.

The first day of Spring arrives on Sunday, March 20. I am glad to live in the northern hemisphere where spring coincides with days of increasing daylight and warmer temperatures. The new life of Spring reminds me of the glory of the resurrection and new life in Jesus Christ. For those of you who like nature facts: in the Northern Hemisphere, the March equinox (also known as the spring equinox and the vernal equinox) occurs when the Sun crosses the equator line, heading north. After the spring equinox, the northern hemisphere begins to be tilted more toward the Sun, resulting in increasing daylight hours and warming temperatures. The word equinox comes from the Latin words for "equal night" (aequus = equal, nox = night). On the spring equinox and on the autumnal equinox on/about September 20, the length of day and night is nearly equal in all parts of the world (source: almanac.com). I enjoy learning more about the cycle of seasons and the world in which we live because it helps me to appreciate the beauty and wonder of God's creation.

Prayer Intention of Pope Francis for March 2022: A Christian Response to Bioethical Challenges. We pray for Christians facing new bioethical challenges; may they continue to defend the dignity of all human life with prayer and action.

God Bless You,

Father John Mitchell

Young At Heart Mass & Luncheon—Thursday, March 24 at 11:00 AM

Attention, Seniors 55 plus! We begin with the Eucharist at 11:00 with Father John. After a short meeting we will have a Lasagna meal catered by Tinucci's. We suggest a $12.00 donation to help defray the cost of the meal, payable on the day of the meeting. Our entertainment for the day will be the Minneapolis Southside Singers, a group of twenty-some seniors who entertain in the Twin Cities area.

Once a year we ask for a $10.00 membership donation to help defray the cost of the various entertainment we enjoy during the year. We will begin collecting this at the March meeting.

Registration deadline has been extended to Sunday, March 20. Please contact Betty Hensel at 651.714.8958 or bjhensel@comcast.net or Linda Spence 651.730.9061.

Beacon Postcard Campaign

Thank you everyone who participated in the Bring it Home MN postcard campaign last weekend. We had an overwhelming response with 90 parishioners filling out postcards and a few more that said they would write their own email to their representative! All postcards were received by their representatives on Monday, March 14.

St. Pascal's Volunteer Opportunity Coming Soon!

Save the Dates

St. Pascal's is expanding its partnership with Merrick Community Services by hosting a monthly curbside food distribution at our location. The distribution dates are on Mondays: April 25, May 23, June 20, and July 25. Many more details are forthcoming! If you would like to learn more or are willing to help, contact Mary Weyandt at mlweyandt@mac.com.

Donation Closet March Collection:

Merrick Community Services

During March items will be accepted for Merrick Community Services. Merrick's mission supports individuals and families to navigate life transitions, find health and stability, and promote independence. Merrick upholds their Mission by providing services through their Food Shelf, Meals on Wheels, Employment and Family Services, and more. Visit stpascals.org/social-justice-and-caring-committee to see the most needed items list for this month's collection.

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl

Overcoming Disaster. In Bangladesh, cyclones and other natural disasters are increasing—destroying farms, homes and more—making it difficult for people like Noornobi to earn a living and support their families. But Noornobi has learned new techniques to protect his land and income, enabling his niece and nephew to go to school. How can you care for creation to help the planet and our global family? Visit www.crs.org/ to donate and learn more.

St. Pascal's Legacy Society

Tax Efficient Legacy of Faith. Gifts of life insurance policies to St. Pascal's can yield substantial tax savings to you while maximizing your Legacy gift. Consult with your tax adviser. RCIA Notes

Scrutiny Rites

During the 3rd, 4th, and 5th weekends of Lent, we will celebrate the Scrutiny Rites with our elect, Emily Nord, who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil. The scrutinies have a dual purpose, "to uncover and heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful the hearts of the elect and to bring out, then strengthen, all that is upright, strong, and good" (RCIA #141). The scrutinizing does not affect the catechumens alone—this close examination is a communal task of looking at how evil affects all our lives and how we can be liberated from it by Christ's grace. The scrutinies are a prayer asking for deliverance for the elect—and all of us—from the effects of sins which are named. At the same time, we ask to be strengthened in grace and virtues. The Litany of Deliverance accomplishes all of this over the course of the three Scrutiny Rites.

Scripture Readings

The Masses at which the Scrutiny Rites take place will use the readings from Cycle A, which include the passages from the Gospel of John. Yes, we are in Year C with the Gospel of Luke. Yet when there are elect celebrating the scrutinies, the readings from Year A are proclaimed. This is done for a few reasons:

- 1) The Scrutiny Prayers were written with these Gospels—woman at the well, man born blind, raising of Lazarus—in mind.
- 2) Historical perspective: Manuscripts from the 7th century show these readings used with baptismal preparation.
- 3) These readings reflect the process of conversion.

At St. Pascal's, Year A readings will be used only at the Mass where a scrutiny is celebrated. These dates are:

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Make Us Whole

God of our longing,
your love surpasses all understanding.
Humbly repentant,
we ask for your mercy in our
Lenten journey.
Though we have failed to love others,
and you above all,

we pray for a new heart.
Though we have fallen,
feel broken and lonely,
you call us to return to you,
and we desire to be made whole.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Another Chance

Today's readings: Exodus 3:1–8a, 13–15; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 6–7, 7–8, 11; 1 Corinthians 10:1–6, 10–12; Luke 13:1–9. Jesus often taught through parables, stories that illustrate truths and moral principles through everyday encounters, situations, and activities.

Today, the parable comes from the world of agriculture. A fig tree has not borne any fruit for several years. The owner wants to cut it down, but the gardener wants to give it another chance, providing especially good care to it for another year. If after receiving increased attention the tree does not bear fruit, it will be cut down. Just as the gardener is willing to spend more time cultivating the fig tree, God will offer us many chances to change our lives. It is up to us to allow God's love to nourish us so that we can bear good fruit. Where do you need to be open to God's intervention in your life? Will you seek God to change your heart to mend a relationship or to help another person in need?

God graciously welcomes us when we repent and desire to be more of who we are called to be. Allowing Jesus to cultivate the soil of our hearts brings growth. As we give our hearts to the Lord, our compassion, generosity, and humility will increase. With changed hearts, we gain more clarity about the meaning and purpose of our lives, and will spread God's love to others.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, March 21

Attending to the Ordinary

The Gospel today notes how those with no status, such as an unknown widow, a leper, and a man from Nazareth, were overlooked. No one saw their greatness. The living God works in and through every part of creation, most notably through human beings. Pay attention to all the ways that God presents himself to you in ordinary ways—the sunrise, a budding plant, the person behind the counter when you get lunch, the laugh of a family member. Today's readings: 2 Kings 5:1–15ab; Psalm 42:2, 3; 43:3, 4; Luke 4:24–30.

Tuesday, March 22

How Many Times?

How many times should we forgive? Jesus says seventy-seven times. Furthermore, he doesn't mean an exact count either! If we are to expect God to forgive us, we must be willing to forgive others. Set aside time today for journaling, reflecting upon, and writing about any grudges you are holding or past grievances you have not released. Forgive in your heart, and vow to keep the grievance in the past. Today's readings: Daniel 3:25, 34–43; Psalm 25:4–5ab, 6 and 7bc, 8 and 9; Matthew 18:21–35.

Wednesday, March 23

The Greatest

Greatness often is associated with accomplishments, athleticism, or scholarship. Jesus presents another vision in the Gospel. He tells us that to be the greatest in the kingdom, we need only to follow God's commandments and teach others to do the same. The best way to teach is by example. Be mindful that your actions and words show love for God and your neighbor. Today's readings: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5–9; Psalm 147:12–13, 15–16, 19–20; Matthew 5:17–19.

Thursday, March 24

Listen, and Listen Again

Jesus strongly tells us that a kingdom divided against itself cannot survive. If hearts are hardened against God's Word, we cannot be unified—as a community, a country, or a Church. Pray for unity today, that we will listen to the voice of God and open our hearts to God and one another. Today's readings: Jeremiah 7:23–28; Psalm 95:1–2; 6–7; 8–9; Luke 11:14–23.

Friday, March 25

Annunciation of the Lord

Today we hear the story of Mary's encounter with the angel Gabriel, when Mary said yes to God's will. Mary's courage, faithfulness, and humility are examples for all seeking to live as disciples. The annunciation is the first of the joyful mysteries. (The other mysteries are the visitation, the nativity, the presentation in the temple, and the finding in the temple.) Pray the Rosary, reflecting on each joyful mystery. Today's readings: Isaiah 7:10–14; 8:10; Psalm 40:7–8a, 8b–9, 10, 11; Hebrews 10:4–10; Luke 1:26–38.

Saturday, March 26

Steadfast Love

The Pharisee was sure of his worthiness, while the tax collector was just as sure of his sinfulness. Though the Pharisee fasted, paid tithes, and kept the law, it was the tax collector who went home justified. Our God of steadfast love and mercy welcomes back sinners who seek forgiveness. Do not be afraid to acknowledge your sins and receive God's mercy and forgiveness through the sacrament of reconciliation. Check neighboring parishes and your own for schedules for confession. God will heal and bind up the wounds of contrite sinners. Today's readings: Hosea 6:1–6; Psalm 51:3–4, 18–19, 20–21ab; Luke 18:9–14.
