God’s love knows no barriers. St. Pascal’s...where all people matter.
Welcome! We hope you enjoy your time with us. Whether you are just visiting or looking for a parish home, it’s great to have you with us. Whatever your life circumstances, wherever you have been or whatever has happened in your life, you are welcome here.
FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Angel Tree. St. Pascal Baylon Church’s Social Justice and Caring Committee is partnering again this year with Angel Tree ministries to provide gifts for 11 children on behalf of an incarcerated parent. Angel Tree tags have been placed on the Christmas tree in the Gathering Space (you will recognize the Angel Tree tags since they are angel-shaped). Angel Tree gifts can be wrapped and returned to church and placed in the Angel Tree box in the Gathering Space. The deadline for Angel Tree gifts is Monday, December 19 to ensure that the gifts get to the children by Christmas. Please email Mary Weyandt at mlweyandt@mac.com if you would like additional information or to assist with the Angel Tree project.

Giving Tree. We are also participating in Catholic Charities Giving Tree to ensure children and adults have access to essential items such as clothing, housewares, self-care items and toys. Take an ornament from the Christmas tree in the Gathering Space which lists the gifts that are needed. Drop off your unwrapped gift at one of the locations listed below:

- Catholic Charities Giving Tree at Mall of America, Macy's Court
  2131 Lindau Lane, Bloomington
  Saturday, December 17 and Sunday, December 18.

- Catholic Charities Distribution Center

We begin the Season of Advent this weekend. Advent has a twofold character: “as a season to prepare for Christmas when Christ’s first coming to us is remembered and as a season when that remembrance directs the mind and heart to await Christ’s Second Coming at the end of time. Advent is thus a period for devout and joyful expectation” (General Norms for the Liturgical Year, paragraph 39). The four weeks of Advent help us to focus our lives on Jesus and fill up our hearts with joyful expectation of His return at the end of time. None of us knows when Christ’s Second Coming will happen, but we do not fear the Second Coming because Jesus said: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am, you also may be” (John 14:1-3).

Prayer Intention of Pope Francis for November 2022: Children Who Suffer. We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

God Bless You,
Father John Mitchell

Parish Advent Reconciliation
Tuesday, November 29 at 6:30 PM
Join us on this evening as we celebrate God’s love and forgiveness. Several children will be celebrating this sacrament for the first time. This is an opportunity for the community to embrace these children, leading them to the sacrament by your example. A number of priests will be available to hear individual confessions. A social will follow in Brioschi Hall.

Advent Evening of Reflection
Thursday, December 15 at 6:30 PM
Parishioners and guests are welcome to join us in the worship space for this evening of prayer and reflection. The service will also be livestreamed.

RCIA: “Scripture”
Wednesday November 30, 6:30-8:00 PM in the Founders Room
Saint Paul in his second letter to Timothy reminds us: “All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work.”

We will discuss the canon of scripture and how the Catholic Church interprets the inspired word of God. All are welcome to join us for this discussion—Catholics who want a refresher and those curious about the Catholic Church.

The Immaculate Conception
Thursday, December 8 (Holy Day of Obligation)
Masses at 9:30 AM and 6:30 PM
Both the morning and evening Masses will be livestreamed and available for viewing on the parish YouTube channel. For a convenient link, visit stpascals.org and click the “Livestream” button.

First Sunday of Advent
Opening to the Unexpected
Daily Practice: Be someone’s unexpected sunrise today. With a smile in your eyes and joy on your face, make a call, send a note or write a post that simply says, “I see Christ coming alive through you!”

Advent Prayer: Loving Creator, make me an instrument of your surprise. Open within me a desire to delight others with your unexpected joy.

—S. James Meyer, Opening to Great Joy

In Christ We Live Forever

Please remember in your prayers…

Lillian Johnson

who was recently buried from our church. We extend our sincere sympathy to her family and friends, and pray for her soul’s eternal peace.
Faith in Action:
An Invitation to Get Involved
Did you register for the Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative Congregational Convening at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church on December 1 starting at 6:30 PM? There is still time. You can either attend in person or by zoom, but please register ahead by using the convenient link at stpascals.org/social-justice-and-caring-committee.

REGISTER NOW!
At the Convening, Beacon will announce a new initiative to make the creation of deeply affordable housing in the suburbs a reality. An exciting process for congregations to provide input on developments to be launched in the coming years will also be presented.

The moment is ripe to ensure EVERY Minnesotan in need of deeply affordable housing gets the rent support they deserve. Get involved. Beacon needs you. It will take all of us coming together in deliberate action to make the changes necessary to see that all people have a home! Join fellow St. Pascal’s parishioners. Be sure to register, and invite others to join you.

Peace and Tranquility

God our Father and giver of peace, you turn the forces of death into healing, as you fulfill your promises throughout time. Encourage us to be alert for your presence and to hope when we are discouraged. Turn our swords, our wrongdoing, into instruments of peace so that one day we will rejoice as we walk to the house of the Lord. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Pilgrimage toward God

Today’s readings: Isaiah 2:1–5; Psalm 122:1–9; Romans 13:11–14; Matthew 24:37–44. In the time of Isaiah’s prophecy, the mountaintops were considered the gods’ dwelling. Is it any wonder that peace, well-being, and complete joy were to be found, according to Isaiah in the first reading, on the “mountaintop” of the new Jerusalem? As Christians, we are called to new life, to new ways of being. We are to discard enmity and act peacefully as we walk in the light to the house of the Lord.

St. Paul discerns between the darkness of the current time and the light that awaits us on “the day at hand.” He calls the Romans to be ready for the Lord, to reform their lives “to put on the Lord Jesus Christ.” The call is for us also so that we will “awake from sleep” and “put on the armor of light.”

Advent begins with a vivid reminder to be ready at all times to meet God. “Therefore, stay awake,” Jesus tells the disciples in Matthew’s Gospel account. Each day we must listen carefully to the message of Scripture. Our destination is the heavenly mountaintop, and our hope is for peace and justice for all.

As the Advent wreath is blessed and lighted on this Sunday that begins the liturgical year, keep within you the image of the burning flame. Allow the candle to reflect God’s presence within each pilgrim that you encounter on your Advent journey.
THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, November 28
Judgment and Glory
Take to heart the words of the prophecy of Isaiah that “the Lord’s glory will be shelter and protection: / shade from the parching heat of day / refuge and cover from storm and rain.” This week, seek out the Lord when facing struggles; know that refuge awaits. Allow the consolation you receive to fill your heart with rejoicing, as the psalmist sings. Today’s readings: Isaiah 4:2–6; Psalm 122:1–2, 3–4b, 4cd–5, 6–7, 8–9; Matthew 8:5–11.

Tuesday, November 29
Welcome the Lamb
Isaiah invites us to come together on God’s holy mountain, where “he shall judge the poor with justice, / and decide aright for the land’s afflicted.” With justice prevailing, “there shall be no harm or ruin” on this holy mountain. Consider how you can strive to be just within your thoughts and your heart as well as your acts. Be assured that peace comes through justice. Today’s readings: Isaiah 11:1–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 12–13, 17; Luke 10:21–24.

Wednesday, November 30
St. Andrew, Apostle
St. Andrew the apostle was the brother of St. Peter, according to Luke 6:14. It was Andrew who told Jesus about the boy who had the loaves and fish (John 6:8–9) during the feeding of the multitudes. Ask St. Andrew today to help you find an opportunity to feed the hungry. Remember that hunger is in mind as well as in body: those who hunger for friendship, acceptance, or love need to be served as much as those who hunger for their daily food. Today’s readings: Romans 10:9–18; Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11; Matthew 4:18–22.

Thursday, December 1
Hope and Trust
In the Gospel reading from Matthew today, Jesus is direct when he tells the disciples that “only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven” will enter the kingdom. God does not desire lip service but obedience to his will. Use this Advent morning to quietly spend time with God so that you can listen to him and discern his will. Make a simple Advent wreath, light a candle each night, and pray in its light. Today’s readings: Isaiah 26:1–6; Psalm 118:1, 8–9, 19–21, 25–27a; Matthew 7:21, 24–27.

Friday, December 2
The Blind See
Isaiah vividly portrays the day when justice comes, saying, “On that day the deaf shall hear / the words of a book; / And out of gloom and darkness, / the eyes of the blind shall see.” This will be a time when people keep holy the name of God, and those who err will find understanding. But already in the Gospel, Jesus opens the eyes of two blind men because of their faith. During Advent, may we seek to realize that the Lord is our light and salvation, as the psalm’s refrain states. Today’s readings: Isaiah 29:17–24; Psalm 27:1, 4, 13–14; Matthew 9:27–31.

Saturday, December 3
St. Francis Xavier
St. Francis Xavier, a cofounder of the Jesuit order, shared his faith as a missionary. He was possibly the most instrumental missionary priest of his time because he initiated a practice of adapting to the language and customs of the people whom he wanted to baptize. This approach of adaptation has been modeled over the past five hundred years. Consider how you might adapt to the language and custom of someone who needs to be understood, accepted, and treated as a brother or sister in Christ. Today’s readings: Isaiah 30:19–21, 23–26; Psalm 147:1–2, 3–4, 5–6; Matthew 9:35—10:1, 5a, 6–8.
