III. Pastor's Report
Fr. Arens said he received the request to include Ian Schultz's name in the bulletin. He is considering this and will discuss with musicians at St. John's, since the bulletin is shared.

Fr. Arens provided an update on Lenten activities at the Basilica, including Stations of the Cross, Vespers, and Lenten talks.

Fr. Arens asked if Council members still wanted phone numbers in the bulletin after a recent scam targeting those with phone numbers in the bulletin. It was offered that Council members can individually opt out if they so choose.

IV. Old Business

A. Fall Festival Discussion

Betty provided a written report that said the theme of the Fall Festival will be Candyland. The next Fall Festival meeting is March 18.

B. March/April Social

Dean said everything is in place for the March 16 social with an Irish theme. The next social will be Sunday, April 14 and it was decided to have Bloedow's donuts. Jean will order 8-dozen.

C. Liturgical Ministry Training

Communion ministers are most needed. Deacon is going to talk to Betty about moving some of the "substitutes" to the permanent rotation. A training will hold off until that is done.

D. Parking at 4 p.m. Mass

The bulletin and Lector announcements seemed to work as there no longer appear to be vehicles parking on the sidewalk next to the school.
