Dear Parishioners,

In my mind, I believe the three happiest words of all time and in any language come from the beautiful hymn, the "Regina Coeli". The words are, "Resurrexit sicut dixit," or in English, "He is risen, as He said." While the joy of Easter is expressed in the words "He is risen," it is the rest of the phrase that reminds us of the power of God. The words "as He said" reminds us that our God is a God of promises, and unlike human promises, He never breaks His word.

Throughout scripture, we are reminded of God's promise to love, nurture and redeem His people from their sins. And, in the end, the fulfillment of that promise was made incarnate in the person of Jesus. God could have forsaken us, and justifiably condemned us, because of our disobedience and sinfulness. But, to have done so would have meant breaking His word, and that is something He will never do. And so, through the passion, death and resurrection of His only begotten Son, our Heavenly Father fulfilled the promise he had made long ago, and in so doing changed the entire course of humanity forever.

At the Easter Vigil, 6 new members joined our Parish Community, They are: Kristi Garza, Andrew Voorhees, JoAnn (Meyers) Biats, Alexander Hensley, Nicholas Hensley, and Beverly Candace Sanderfei. We also recognize 3 being Baptized at the vigil. They are: Kayli Ann Garza, Estella Marie Sanchez, and Lorenzo Adan Sanchez. We welcome them and pray that the joy and blessings they received on this Holy Night will remain with them forever!

My prayer is that the joy of our Father's Easter promise might remain with you and your families, every day of your lives.

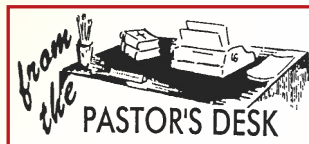

A priest friend of mine speaks lovingly about completing the final Easter Liturgy and going home to enter into "the Paschal Coma" for several days of recuperation. In fact, if we are praying the umpteenth Liturgy on Easter Day, it is easy for our minds to drift to Easter dinner, how tired we are, or any of the things that we have been putting off as we have been consumed by Easter preparations. But for other members of our assembly, it is their first time stepping foot into church this weekend ~ or since Christmas! Our challenge is to make the last Liturgy of the day as fresh and as exciting as the first "Alleluia" sung at the Easter Vigil.

I know how hard I work this week, but I always find it awe-inspiring and amazing to look out and see my "touchstones" in the faith community, who have been there on Holy Thursday, Good Friday (the service and stations as well), the Easter Vigil, and once again on Sunday morning. This is my ministry, my busy season, but I have to be here.

Continued .

When I look at the energy my volunteer choir has devoted since January that culminates in these moments and all the time the Lectors, Ushers, EMs, and other ministers have put in, I am truly humbled. Yet, I recall once more that our sacrifices are nothing compared to God's great gift to us all.

We are and have been "witnesses of all that he did" and how blessed are we because of it. May we ever remain grateful. Sometimes we are so consumed by the details of making the Liturgies happen that we are not as present to what is taking place as we might be. Each of us certainly deserves a good long nap and some down time, but we should be sure to pray and reflect upon all that we have witnessed this week. I want to thank them and all of you who have brought your time, talent, and energy together to make Holy Week and the entire seasons of Lent and Easter so prayerful and beautiful

To all Ushers, Ems, Greeters, Musicians, Servers, Sacristans, Readers, and those who cleaned & decorated ~ a HUGE Thank You to ALL of you for helping make our Lenten & Easter season such a great celebration!

God's Blessings, Fr. Jared Orndorff,

The next 2nd Collection will be April 22nd and 23rd, 2017 for Home Missions.

FAMILY PERSPECTIVES

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Easter is a time for families to gather for a special meal and to worship together at Church. Home rituals can also make this feast the most important faith event of the year. Make an effort this year to bring Easter into your home. Try special decorations, a home Easter candle, a special meal and prayer together, sing "Alleluia" or "Jesus Christ is Risen Today" each day of Easter week to proclaim the Risen Lord!

*Our Easter Hope
Dear Lord, our journey toward Easter is complete in the hope of Your resurrection. May we find new life in you with each new day!
Amen*

ENCOUNTER The Risen Christ ~ Easter Sunday

We prayed, fasted and gave alms ~ and now we celebrate Easter joy! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl ends as we encounter our risen Lord. We reflect on our brothers and sisters whom we have walked with in India, Zambia, El Salvador, Mexico, Ethiopia and Hawaii. And we commit to bring Easter joy to each person we meet in our daily lives. Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowls ~ you may put them in the Collection Basket. How does our Lenten journey motivate us to serve those we meet in our daily lives? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

The Wild Goose Video Series and Discussion

"The Friends of the Carpenter" will be hosting the next episode of the video series called, "The Wild Goose", which is about the Holy Spirit. We will be hosting these videos on the 1st and 3rd Friday of every month. Don't worry if you've missed out until now ~ each episode is stand-alone and can be understood without seeing any of the other episodes. We will be showing the next episode this Friday, April 21st. This event is open to both men and women seeking to grow and enrich their faith and will take place in Nolan Hall ~ which is in the basement of the church. We will start at 7pm and conclude promptly at 8:30pm. Light snacks and adult beverages and other beverages will be provided. Please RSVP to Matt Fedak at 330-310-0353 (text is okay ~ just be sure to leave your name!) or chewie78@sbcglobal.net. Please join us for this powerful, life-changing series.

Visit www.thewildgooseisloose.com for more information about the content of this series or to view on your own.

On Tuesday, March 21, as part of Right to Read Week, students and parents participated in our first Bingo For Books. Students brought gently used books that were used for prizes. Other prizes were donated from Dairy Queen, Rocco's Pizza, and BAM. The School Book Fair was also open for families to buy books. A great time was had by all!

Kindergarten had a visit from Snapology on March 27th. We learned about simple machines, gears, and coding. We followed directions to create Robopups out of Legos and then used laptops to program the robot puppies to make sounds, spin their eyes and change colors. We loved our visit from Snapology.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord
Belief

O God who works wonders, we marvel in the Resurrection of Jesus, your Son. In Christ, you have redeemed us and brought us to life. May our "Alleluia" proclaim the Resurrection and profess our willingness to join ourselves to the Paschal Mystery. Grant us, we pray, O Lord, eyes to see you and ears to hear your voice so that we might grow stronger in faith like the disciples on that first Easter. Help us to bear witness to your Son's Resurrection and give us a desire to seek and serve you among the living. May your Holy Spirit fill us with joy, rousing our hearts to proclaim Christ, the victor King. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THERE'S HOPE ~ Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. As you've read in the paper and on the internet, and seen on the news, it's a painful struggle that is gripping our region and our state. There is always hope and there are pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, go to: www.GreaterthanHeroin.com. It's a website prepared by civic and faith leaders across our region to help show the way to hope and recovery.

Why I Love the Legion of Mary

Don & Joan Taggart, Norristown, PA

We met in the Legion. Our individual consecration to Jesus through Mary was the common bond we shared.

On our first date, we knew we were meant for each other. All that followed - our five children, our eleven grandchildren, many of our closest friends, our home - all of life's blessings, would not have happened but for the Legion of Mary.

Steve & Edel Lukens, Bridgeport, PA

The Legion is the foundation of our married life. We met in the Legion and began our married life by renewing our True Devotion Consecration to Jesus through Mary at our wedding. It has given us a structure for our spiritual life, while helping us to grow both individually and as a couple. Our time spent doing Legion work together is among our most precious hours as a couple.

Rev. Peter Welsh, Spiritual Director, Philadelphia Spanish Curia

The Legion of Mary is a most reliable program of Catholic formation guiding its members to know, live, and share their faith. The Legion is Mary's worldwide school - training her children in holiness and apostolic activity. Her legionaries have been my right arm in my pastoral ministry.

Email dbungo117@yahoo.com for an application OR Stop and speak with a Legion of Mary member THIS Sunday during Donut Sunday after all Masses, and find out why THEY love the Legion of Mary.

Catholics Returning Home

For those who are considering renewing their relationship to their faith, informal sessions are being offered that will cover a variety of topics over six consecutive Monday evenings, 7:00-8:30pm.
