St Joseph Partners with Walsh Jesuit on Labre Projects

St Joseph Parish School Partnered with Walsh Jesuit High School earlier this month to assist with the Labre Project, a ministry to the homeless. St. Joseph students from all grades made & packaged bologna sandwiches to be distributed to Akron's homeless.

St. Joseph students Dylan Cassidy, Caden Lamont, Cameron Kelly, Dominic Oden, and Zander Maher create an assembly line to get more sandwiches made in the time they have to work on the Labre Project.

Berlynn Frashuer explains to her "buddy" Matthew Marchione how the sandwiches need to be made and packaged for the Labre Project. Both are students at St. Joseph Parish School in Cuyahoga Falls, OH.

St. Joseph Parish School students Gabrielle Huryn and Sophia Maccarelli take a minute to smile for the camera while making sandwiches for the Labre Project.
