OCTOBER 1, 2023 THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

How good and how pleasant it is for brothers and sisters to dwell together in unity (Psalm 133)

I couldn't help but think of these words as I saw all kinds of folks preparing for the Fall Festival. Folks from the Men's Club gathered to turn 1800 pounds of pork into 7,200 quarter pound braut burgers that the PTO will be selling in their booth at the Fall Festival this week. They had quite an operation going. Some good natured banter among the workers and taste testing the braut burgers made the work go even quicker!

Same thing was happening with the group of school parents and students who gathered on Sunday to squeeze the juice out of 15 cases of lemons. Those lemon shake ups will be just the thing to refresh you as you make your way along Franklin Street this week. And then the soup crew got together to make their famous Heidelberg Cheesy Potato Soup. That soup has become such a hit that the PTO is again taking orders for soup for after the fall festival. You can buy it by the half gallon ($18). They are taking orders through October 10. Soup orders can be picked up on Friday, Oct. 20 from 1:30–3 and Saturday, Oct. 21 from 5-6:30 pm. Call Becky Raben, (812-204-8319) or email her (rebecca.raben@gmail.com) to place your order.

It's not too late to offer your help at the PTO Booth and the Kknights of St. John Booth. Sign up today to help at the PTO Booth. Sign up online <https://ttsu.me/stjff2023>. Call Dave Schmitt (812-598-0559) to help at the Knights of St. John Booth. Leaning into the journey of life

ON BEING HUMAN

Blessed are you when the shock subsides, when vaguely, you see a line appear that divides before and after.

"You didn't draw it,
and you can barely even make it out.

But as surely as minutes
add up to hours and days,
here you are, forced into a story
you never would have written.

"Blessed are you in the tender
place of wonder and dread, wondering how to be whole
when dreams have disappeared

and part of you with them,

where mastery, control, determination,
bootstrapping, and grit,
are consigned to the realm of before (where most of the world lives),

in the fever dream
that promises infinite choices,
unlimited progress, best life now.

"Blessed are we in the after,
loudly shouting: is there anybody here?
We hear the echo, the shuffle of feet,
the murmur of others

asking the same question,
together in the knowledge that we are far beyond what we know.

Show us a glimmer of possibility
in this new constraint, that small truths will be given back to us.

We are held. We are safe.

We are loved. We are loved.

We are loved.

And best of all: We are not alone.

—Kate Bowler

Potluck Dinnera chance to relax, meet new friends and enjoy a great meal

ANNIVERSARY

Eucharistic Adoration

Each Monday we invite people to come to pray before the Blessed Sacrament from 7 am to 6:30 pm. This coming Tuesday we have our 24 hour day of prayer for vocations from 6 am Tuesday through 6 am Wednesday. We gather in our temporary chapel in the parish rectory. We are always looking for new people to take the place of those who can no longer come for an hour of adoration.

CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

In this year of Eucharistic Renewal, we continue reading Pope Francis's teaching letter (encyclical) entitled Laudato Si'—Caring for Our Common Home

Yet, all is not lost, because human beings, capable of degrading themselves to the extreme, can also overcome themselves, return to choose the good and regenerate themselves, beyond any psychological and social conditioning that is imposed on them. They are able to look at themselves with honesty, to bring out their disgust and to take new paths towards true freedom.

There are no systems that completely nullify openness to good, truth and beauty, nor the ability to react, which God continues to encourage from the bottom of our hearts. I ask every person in this world not to forget this dignity that no one has the right to take away from them.

A change in lifestyles could come to exert healthy pressure on those in political, economic and social power. This is what happens when consumer movements manage to stop buying certain products and thus become effective in changing the behavior of companies, forcing them to consider environmental impact and production models.

It is a fact that when social habits affect the profits of companies, they are forced to produce in another way. This reminds us of the social responsibility of consumers. Buying is always a moral act, as well as an economic one. For this reason today the issue of environmental degradation calls into question the behavior of each of us.

The Earth Charter called upon us all to leave behind a phase of self-destruction and to begin anew, but we have not yet developed a universal consciousness that makes this possible. This is why I dare to propose that precious challenge once again: «As never before in history, our common destiny obliges us to seek a new beginning [...]. May our age be remembered for the awakening of a new reverence for life, for the resolve to achieve sustainability, for the acceleration of the struggle for justice and peace, and for the joyful celebration of life.

It is always possible to develop a new capacity to come out of oneself towards the other. Without it, other creatures are not recognized in their own worth, they are not interested in taking care of something for the benefit of others, they lack the ability to set limits to avoid suffering or the degradation of what surrounds us.

The fundamental attitude of self-transcending, breaking the isolated conscience and self-referentiality, is the root that makes possible any care for others and for the environment, and gives rise to the moral reaction to consider the impact caused by each action. and from any personal decision outside of oneself. When we are able to overcome individualism, an alternative lifestyle can actually be produced and significant change in society becomes possible.

WE'RE LOOKING FOR PEOPLE WHO WANT TO SPONSOR A CHILD'S EDUCATION IN HAITI

Each year our Haiti Outreach Committee seeks new sponsors to join our group of generous people who are sponsoring a child's education in Haiti. We are always looking for new people to match up with the children in St. James Parish in Haiti.

A person or family can sponsor a student for an annual cost of $400, or just $33 per month. This fee helps pay for their tuition, provide a stipend for uniforms and books, helps fund the daily food program and allows the students to have access to the parish clinic.

If you would like more information, you can contact Eric Refett, the coordinator of our student sponsorship program. (812-618-5945) or email him at ereffett@sbcgbl.net
