NOVEMBER 12, 2023 THE THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

Life has a way of moving on. Seems only yesterday that we were finishing the summer social and getting ready to start school. Now we are almost half way through the school year. Fall Festival activities have come and gone. The fall activities in school and parish have begun and ended and now we are moving into winter. The Men's Club made and sold over 650 gallons of burgoo and just this past weekend made their famous sausage. With your help we were able to share 250 lbs of sausage and 15 gallons of burgoo with the folks at the St. Vincent dePaul Food Pantry. They were both a big hit.

Now we are in the midst of our annual Catholic Ministries Appeal, what we used to call the Catholic Parishes Campaign. So far, 273 families (53% of our parish) have contributed an average of $406 which has enabled us to reach 85% of our goal of $130,270. I'm confident that the remaining 47% of our parish families will be able to help us raise the remaining 15% of our goal ($19,359).

What is amazing about this is that we have been able to meet this financial challenge will, at the same time, providing the money needed to meet our day to day expenses, and raise over $800,000 in our "Rebuilding our Church" campaign. What a great tribute to your love for our parish.

In the meantime, work is continuing on our church. The painting has been completed....and for those who have peeked into look, yes, it is all new paint. Remember, wedgewood gray is really light blue with a green tint. But I guess that is too long of a name for a color!

Our electricians have been doing some final details. Basically we have rewired the whole church. You may have noticed some of the exterior security lights that have been added. We also discovered some additional floor joists that needed to be repaired and that job has been complete.

Our friends from Spaetti Masonry have built the new handicapped ramp on the west side of the church. I think the brick work really makes this stand out. Tom Blythe and Bob Gibson from Hafer & Associates have come up with a design for the railing that will be installed—just the thing to make the whole area stand out. The door that will be installed at the west entrance of the church has been ordered but that may not happen until sometime in December.

This week we have our carpet folks scheduled to begin installing the carpet. They will be installing the carpet in the main body of the church as well as the northex and east and west sacristies. The other carpet that will cover the main aisle as well as the sanctuary is still in transit. We're hoping that it will arrive in December but there is no guarantee.

As time and weather and wind conditions allow, we will begin work on reattaching the lightning protection on the steeple and reguiding the cross.

Leaning into the journey of life

Fr. Gene Schroeder

A PRAYER FOR PEACE IN ISRAEL AND PALESTINE

God of Comfort, send your Spirit to all those whose lives are torn apart by violence and death in Israel and Palestine.
Give strength to those whose long work for a just peace might seem fruitless now.
Strengthen their resolve.
Do not let them feel alone.
Guide political leaders to listen with their hearts
as they seek peace and pursue it.
Help all people choose the path of just peace and disavow violence.
We lift up Palestine and Israel its people, its land, its creatures.
We lift up the cities of the region:
Gaza City and Tel Aviv,
Ramallah and Ashkelon,
Deir El Balah and Sderot.
Come again to breathe peace on your peoples that all may recognize you.
God of Mercy, even now work on the hearts of combatants to choose life over death, reconciliation over retaliation, restoration over destruction.
Give wise discernment to those making decisions to pursue peace.
Provide them insight into fostering well-being, freedom, and thriving for all.
Teach all of us to resolve injustices with righteousness, not rockets.
Guard our hearts against retaliation,
and give us hearts for love alone.
Strengthen our faith in you,
O God of All Flesh,
even when we don't have clear answers,
so that we may still offer ourselves nonviolently for the cause of peace. Amen
Rose Marie Berger

CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

In this year of Eucharistic Renewal, we continue reading Pope Francis's teaching letter (encyclical) entitled Laudato Si'—Caring for Our Common Home

We must not think that the efforts we do in our individual lives to care for the earth will not change the world. These actions spread a good in society that always produces fruits beyond what can be seen, because they cause within this earth a good that always tends to spread, sometimes invisibly. Furthermore, the exercise of these behaviors gives us back the sense of our dignity, leads us to a greater existential depth, allows us to experience that it is worth going through this world.

The educational areas are varied: the school, the family, the means of communication, catechesis, and others. A good school education in childhood and adolescence produces seeds that can produce lifelong effects. But I would like to underline the central importance of the family, because it is the place where life, a gift of God, can be adequately welcomed and protected against the many attacks to which it is exposed, and can develop according to the needs of authentic growth.

Against the so-called culture of death, the family constitutes the seat of the culture of life. In the family, the first habits of love and care for life are cultivated, such as the correct use of things, order and cleanliness, respect for the local ecosystem and the protection of all creatures. The family is the place of integral formation, where the different aspects, intimately related to each other, of personal maturation unfold. In the family we learn to ask permission without bullying, to say "thank you" as an expression of heartfelt appreciation for the things we receive, to dominate aggression or greed, and to apologize when we do something bad. These small gestures of sincere courtesy help build a culture of shared life and respect for what surrounds us.

Politics and the various other associations make an effort to form consciences. It also competes with the Church. All Christian communities have an important role to play in this education. I also hope that in our seminaries and religious houses of formation there will be educated in responsible austerity, in grateful contemplation of the world, in care for the fragility of the poor and of the environment. As the stakes are great, just as we need institutions with power to sanction attacks on the environment, we also need to control and educate each other.

In this context, the relationship between an adequate education and the maintenance of a healthy environment should not be overlooked. Paying attention to beauty and loving it helps us to get out of utilitarian pragmatism. When you don't learn to stop and admire and appreciate beauty, it's no wonder that everything turns into an object of unscrupulous use and abuse. At the same time, if you want to achieve profound changes, you have to keep in mind that thought patterns really affect behaviors. Education will be ineffective and its efforts will be fruitless if it does not also concern itself with spreading a new model regarding the human being, life, society and the relationship with nature. Otherwise, the consumerist model transmitted by the media and through the effective mechanisms of the market will continue to move forward.
