MAY 14, 2023 SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear friends,

Today is Mother's Day, a time to give thanks for the many ways that mother's have nurtured our lives. Over the years I have appreciated more and more the gifts that my mother blessed me with. Among all them is her dogged determination to face whatever came her way. There are a lot of things in life that can just fill us with fear and I'm sure that was the case for my mother. Whatever she faced, she just did what she could. There have been a lot of things in my life that I have had to deal with. And so many of these were things I had no idea what to do. But somehow that didn't stop me. As I look back, I often wonder where I got the energy to do this. Now I know it was that gritty determination that my mother exhibited in her life. All in all, that is a pretty great gift.

Today we are once again offering people the opportunity to receive the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass. Doing this will require more Eucharistic Ministers. Here is an opportunity for you to step forward to offer your services. Call/text me (812-499-9074) if you are willing to serve.

We're getting closer to completing our plan to fix the damage to our church. We've been gathering a lot of information from different contractors and from our insurance company. My hope is that in the very near future we will be able to share this information with you and then begin the process of repairing our church.

Leaning into the journey of life

GET ON BOARD THE DIAPER BAG EXPRESS

Each year from Mother's Day to Father's Day we have a tradition of collecting items to help unwed mothers and fathers through Birthright.

We will have diaper bags in our "gym church" which can be filled with powder, lotion, ointment, bottles, wipes, preemie onesies, baby shampoo, girls and boys socks, etc. and then brought back to the gym, or dropped off at the rectory. Get on board and help unwed mothers and fathers by filling a diaper bag for Birthright. Packages of diapers can also be donated. You can also make a cash donation to "Birthright." Put your contribution in an envelope marked "Birthright" and put it in the collection. If you have questions please contact Toni Askins at (812) 457-1334.

Before I was a Mom.....

I cleaned my house each day. I never tripped over toys or forgot words to a lullaby.

I didn't worry whether or not my plants were poisonous.

I never thought about immunizations.

Before I was a Mom.....I never held a sleeping baby just because I didn't want to put it down. I never felt my heart break into a million pieces when I couldn't stop the hurt. I never knew that something so small could affect my life so much. I never knew that I could love someone so much. I never knew I would love being a Mom.

Before I was a Mom..... I didn't know how special it could feel to feed a hungry baby. I didn't know that bond between a mother and her child. I didn't know that something so small could make me feel so important.

Before I was a Mom.....I had never gotten up in the middle of the night every 10 minutes to make sure all was okay. I had never known The warmth, The joy, The love, The heartache, The wonderment or the satisfaction of being a Mom. I didn't know I was capable of feeling so much before I was a Mom.

CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

In this year of Eucharistic Renewal, we continue reading Pope Francis's teaching letter (encyclical) entitled Laudato Si—Caring for Our Common Home and seeing the real presence of God in all things.

III. ECOLOGY OF EVERYDAY LIFE

In order to speak of authentic development, it will be necessary to verify that there is an integral improvement in the quality of human life. And this implies analyzing the space in which people's existence takes place. The environments in which we live affect the way we see life, feel and act. At the same time, in our room, in our home, in our workplace and in our neighborhood, we use the environment to express our identity. We strive to adapt to the environment, and when it is messy, chaotic or saturated with visual and acoustic pollution, the excess of stimuli tests our attempts to develop an integrated and happy identity.

because of the friendliness and friendship of the people.

The positive and beneficial social life of the inhabitants diffuses light in an environment that is at first sight unlivable. Sometimes the human ecology that the poor manage to develop in the midst of so many limitations is commendable. The feeling of suffocation produced by residential agglomerations and high-density living spaces, it is opposed if human relationships of closeness and warmth are developed, if communities are created, if the environmental limits are compensated in the interiority of each person, who feels himself inserted in a network of communion and belonging. In this way, any place stops being hell and becomes the context of a worthy life.

It is also proven that the extreme scarcity that is experienced in some environments lacking harmony, breadth and the possibility of integration, facilitates the emergence of inhuman behavior and the manipulation of people by criminal organizations. For the inhabitants of very precarious suburbs, the daily experience of moving from crowding to social anonymity that is experienced in large cities can cause a feeling of uprooting that favors antisocial behavior and violence.

However, I would like to reiterate that love is stronger. Many people, in these conditions, are capable of weaving bonds of belonging and coexistence that transform crowding into a community experience in which the walls of the self are broken and the barriers of selfishness are overcome.

Given the interrelationship between urban spaces and human behavior, those who design buildings, neighborhoods, public spaces and cities need the contribution of different disciplines that make it possible to understand the processes, symbolism and behavior of people. The search for beauty in the project is not enough, because it has even more value to serve another type of beauty: the quality of life of people, their harmony with the environment, meeting and mutual help. This is also why it is so important that the point of view of the locals always contributes to the analysis of urban planning.
