Dear friends,

On this Feast of Pentecost, we recall how the Holy Spirit strengthen the disciples to move beyond their fears and to imitate Jesus in being life for the world. That same Holy Spirit has been filling people with courage ever since that first Pentecost.

This weekend we celebrate Memorial Day and it got me to thinking about how the Holy Spirit has given people courage to give their lives in service to a cause greater than themselves.

I was thinking about Fr. Emil Kapaun, a priest from the Diocese of Wichita, Kansas. He served as an army Chaplain during the Korean War. The army unit he was serving with was overrun and as they fought their way into retreat, Kapaun and an army doctor volunteered to remain behind with the wounded, allowing themselves to be captured. At great risk, he intervened when their captors were prepared to execute the prisoners. Instead, they were marched eighty-seven miles to a North Korean prison camp,

In the camp the prisoners endured freezing cold while subsisting on starvation rations. Kapaun devoted himself to raising morale. He was also adept at scrounging or stealing contraband—serving up hot water with a few beans or gains of millet, likely served from his own rations, and calling out “hot coffee.”

Much of his time was spent ministering to the sick and dying. Eventually Fr. Kapaun, skeletally thin, his feet frozen, suffering from dysentery and pneumonia, was among them. Sometime in May 1951 he was carried to any empty shelter called “the hospital” where he died on May 23.

In 1993 his cause for canonization was accepted by the Vatican. In 2013, Kapaun, the most decorated chaplain in U.S. history, received the Medal of Honor.

Leaning into the journey of life

CHURCH ROOF REPAIR UPDATE

Next weekend, June 2 & 3, we will be sharing with you an update on the status of our church roof repairs. (You will also find much of this information in the June edition of The Carpenter.) We will meet in the cafeteria after all the weekend masses for all those who wish to attend. We should have details about when they will begin to do the repair work as well as our plans to finance this work.

MAY 28, 2023 PENTECOST SUNDAY

I HAVE A RENDEZVOUS WITH DEATH

I have a rendezvous with Death
At some disputed barricade,
When Spring comes back
with rustling shade
And apple-blossoms fill the air—
I have a rendezvous with Death
When Spring brings back blue days and fair.

It may be he shall take my hand
And lead me into his dark land
And close my eyes and quench my breath—
It may be I shall pass him still.
I have a rendezvous with Death
On some scarred slope of battered hill,
When Spring comes round again this year
And the first meadow-flowers appear.

God knows 'twere better to be deep
Pillowed in silk and scented down,
Where Love throbs out in blissful sleep,
Pulse nigh to pulse, and breath to breath,
Where hushed awakenings are dear ...
But I've a rendezvous with Death
At midnight in some flaming town,
When Spring trips north again this year,
And I to my pledged word am true,
I shall not fail that rendezvous.

CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

In this year of Eucharistic Renewal, we continue reading Pope Francis's teaching letter (encyclical) entitled Laudato Si—Caring for Our Common Home and seeing the real presence of God in all things.

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE COMMON GOOD

Integral ecology is inseparable from the notion of the common good, a principle that plays a central and unifying role in social ethics. It is the set of conditions of social life which allow both groups and individual members to reach their perfection more fully and more quickly.

The common good presupposes respect for the human person as such, with fundamental and inalienable rights ordered to his integral development. It also demands the arrangements for welfare and social security and the development of the various intermediate groups, applying the principle of subsidiarity. Among these, the family stands out as the primary cell of society. Finally, the common good requires social peace, that is, the stability and security of a particular order, which cannot be achieved without particular attention to distributive justice, the violation of which always generates violence. The whole of society - and in it especially the state - has the obligation to defend and promote the common good.

In the current conditions of world society, where there are so many inequities and there are more and more people who are discarded, deprived of fundamental human rights, the principle of the common good is immediately transformed, as a logical and unavoidable consequence, into an appeal to solidarity and a preferential option for the poorest.

This option requires drawing the consequences of the common destination of the earth's goods. But, as I tried to show in the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii gaudium, it demands that we contemplate first of all the immense dignity of the poor in the light of the deepest convictions of faith. It is enough to observe reality to understand that today this option is a fundamental ethical requirement for the effective realization of the common good.
