Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

The Gift of Humility

We learn humility in different ways. Sometimes we try to attain what is beyond our reach. We try to accomplish something we desire to attain. We fail. We humbly learn our limitations.

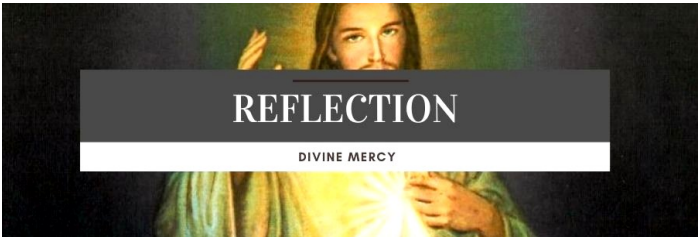

Sometimes we boast of our accomplishments. We have achieved much and we tell others the truth. But we lose the esteem of our friends when we do. Boasting might be honest, but humility brings rewards.

Still, some people erroneously believe that humility is weak and pride is strong. Some public figures—entertainers, politicians, and professional athletes, for example—boast in the midst of combat. They want attention. They disdain the competition. Their success depends on their self-certitude.

Their fall is all the more sharp. In the end, even the most talented share the same mortality as everyone else. We are all humans. We shall all taste death. In the sight of God, humility is the only honest stance we can take.

The Book of Sirach urges us to conduct our affairs with humility. We will be loved by others and favored by God. We will recognize that in spite of our gifts, there is One who is greater: the giver of these gifts. When we acknowledge the might of God, humility becomes a way of life .

Fidelity in Times of Darkness

Though Saint Faustina and many other great saints entered into a unique spiritual darkness, defined by St. John of the Cross as the “Dark Night of the Soul” and the “Dark Night of the Spirit,” we all will experience a certain “darkness” of one form or another in our walk of faith. Our darkness may not be the result of the extraordinary purification of the soul that takes place on the journey toward perfection, but our response must be the same. No matter what we go through in life, when challenges arise we must speak the words spoken by the great saints, “Thy Will be done!” Holiness is all about doing the Will of God despite any confusion or apparent obstacle in our lives (See Diary #1237).

Reflect upon the level of conviction you pray that prayer, “Thy Will be done!” Do you mean this? Can you say it with all the powers of your mind, will and soul? Have you chosen the Will of God above everything else in life? Embracing the Will of God in times of trial is especially fruitful for a life of faith. When temptations set in, especially temptations toward despair, you must reaffirm your commitment to God’s perfect Will. Reflect upon this holy act today. Say those words and mean them as completely as you can. Nothing in life should ever deter you from making this your daily prayer.

Lord, may Your Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven! I make this my prayer today. I offer it to You with complete confidence and total surrender. I choose You above all things and make Your Will my own. I love You, my Lord. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at <https://divinemercy.life/2025/08/25/reflection-238-fidelity-in-times-of-darkness/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

Humility is at the core of our Old Testament and Gospel readings for this weekend's Mass. It's probably easier for the majority of us to know what a prideful person is like, whether from personal experience, movies, TV shows, or books that we have read. We know how unattractive a prideful person is. Manifested to different degrees, the prideful people we have encountered are arrogant, conceited, annoying, not easy to talk to, unkind, hard to work with, stubborn, closed-minded, etc.

When we encounter someone with sincere, genuine humility, it is always so striking. Why is that? It's because it's rarely encountered in our Fallen world filled with sinners. And these people are so refreshing, helping us to feel more humane and even witnessing a taste of the divine thanks to their humility.

A great quote that I will paraphrase but, I do not remember who said it (maybe C.S. Lewis?) about humility is the following: Humility is about standing tall and accepting everything about yourself; your strengths and your weaknesses. It's not about tearing yourself down before others but recognizing where you stand given your God-given and nurtured talents. With all that in place, humility is then standing before the Great Almighty God and recognizing how little you still are in the grand scope of all creation. You are still standing tall, with your strengths and weaknesses, and you accept that there will always be something and Someone Who is more than you and Who perfectly loves you.

How humble are you?

In Christo et Maria,
Father Vogel

CALL FOR SILENT AUCTION ITEMS DONATIONS

The Silent Auction Committee is seeking donations to create enticing baskets that will attract bidders.

If you're considering contributing, think about items that are both unique and appealing. Alongside the suggested birdfeeders, bottles of wine, pet items, and gift cards, you might also consider donating gourmet food items, such as artisanal chocolates or specialty teas. Home decor pieces can also be a hit. For those interested in experiences, consider contributing tickets to local events or vouchers for classes like cooking or pottery. Remember, all items should be new to ensure the baskets are of the highest quality for the auction. Your generosity plays a crucial role in the success of the event and is greatly appreciated!

You can bring donations to the parish office during office hours or drop them off in the vestibule by the Family Tree on the north wall.

“ 1021 Death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. The New Testament speaks of judgment primarily in its aspect of the final encounter with Christ in his second coming, but also repeatedly affirms that each will be rewarded immediately after death in accordance with his works and faith. the parable of the poor man Lazarus and the words of Christ on the cross to the good thief, as well as other New Testament texts speak of a final destiny of the soul -a destiny which can be different for some and for others. ”

The dreadful suffering of the people in the Holy Land has moved the hearts of many to grieve and seek to help the afflicted. Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Near East Welfare Association are two agencies of our Church that are assisting those in need. The Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA) is there providing vital emergency humanitarian relief and medical and psychological care for the sick, malnourished and wounded. Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is working through local Church partners to provide food, shelter, cash assistance, hygiene supplies, and care for people's emotional well-being. The Church in the United States is encouraging parishes to take up a collection in the near future to fund the work of CNEWA and CRS and thereby alleviate the suffering of the people in the Holy Land.
