Saints Peter and Paul Mass
Acts 12:1-11

God Never Gives Up on Us

Some of the stories about Peter are not too complimentary. He tried to talk Jesus out of suffering. He refused to have his feet washed at the Last Supper. He denied Jesus three times later that night. Peter made a lot of mistakes.

The story of Peter’s miraculous release from prison is all the more remarkable, given this background. The story took place after the resurrection. King Herod persecuted Christians and discovered that this pleased their enemies. He harmed some leaders. He had the apostle James killed by the sword. Then he arrested Peter, chained him up, and locked him in jail behind an iron gate and sixteen guards. All this happened without a trial.

At night, an angel appeared to Peter, broke the chains, and led him to freedom. Peter just assumed he was dreaming. But when the angel left, Peter was free.

God never gave up on Peter. Even though Peter had sinned many times during his years of discipleship, God was always ready to give him another chance, and to reward him for persistently growing in faith.

You have confessed your sins before God. When did God last send you an angel to free you from your chains?

Patient Submission

Are you patient? Both patience and impatience are born from a struggle within your will. There are many times in life when your will is drawn by something other than God, wanting something that God is not leading you to. Patience is a virtue that enables you to step back, take a deep breath and redirect your will to that which God alone has chosen for you. Patience is the gift of strength within you to deny your own immediate tendencies in deference to that which the Lord gently speaks to your heart. When you have patience, you are not controlled by the confusion caused through your disordered emotions or untamed feelings and desires. Patience brings order, focus and purpose. And the gift of patience, when it enables you to submit your will to the Divine Will, gives God immeasurable glory (See Diary #904).

How patient of a person are you? What controls your actions and influences your decisions the most? Are you more controlled by your disordered desires, or by God? Reflect upon this question today and make an act of submission of your will to the Will of God. Making this choice will immediately strengthen you and bring forth the virtue of patience in your soul.

Lord, I am so very impatient at times. I allow many feelings, emotions and passions to control me and to dictate my actions. I surrender my will to You this day. May Your Divine Will be done in all things rather than my own. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at <https://divinemercy.life/2025/06/17/reflection-169-calm-in-the-presence-of-the-king/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

It has happened again. You all were so generous to me over a month ago to throw me a surprise 10th ordination anniversary party, and a great number of you sent me cards and gifts as well. I have not had the opportunity to sit down and write one single thank you note as of this bulletin article.

I truly do not like "writing" my thank you notes this way, but given how time is now further from the date of the celebration and gift giving, thank you to everyone who helped and contributed to the 10th anniversary party for me, and thank you to everyone who gave me cards and gifts. I know you all know that none of this was necessary, so it sincerely means so much to this priest the amount of charity and warmth you showed to me on my 10th anniversary to the priesthood. I am blessed to be your priest and assigned to St. Bridget parish in Pleasant Hill and St. Patrick parish in Holden. God bless you all, and know that I pray for you all daily in my Holy Hour. May our Lord reward you.

In Christo et Maria,
Father Vogel

Catechism of the Catholic Church

“ 553 Jesus entrusted a specific authority to Peter: “I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” The “power of the keys” designates authority to govern the house of God, which is the Church. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, confirmed this mandate after his Resurrection: “Feed my sheep.” The power to “bind and loose” connotes the authority to absolve sins, to pronounce doctrinal judgements, and to make disciplinary decisions in the Church. Jesus entrusted this authority to the Church through the ministry of the apostles and in particular through the ministry of Peter, the only one to whom he specifically entrusted the keys of the kingdom.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

A monstrance blessed in 2004 by St. Pope John Paul II has been provided by Serra International for holy hours of prayer for vocations. Originally presented to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, the monstrance was designated for use during the Year of the Eucharist to encourage prayer for an increase in vocations to the ordained ministry and consecrated life. The USCCB entrusted the monstrance to Serra with the directive to fulfill the Pope's request by ensuring its use in local parishes, uniting Catholics in prayer for vocations.

July 2nd at Our lady of the Presentation for Adoration from 9a.m. until 8:00 p.m.

In the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, we encourage all to offer special prayers for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. May this time of adoration be a profound moment of spiritual renewal as we embrace our mission to support those called to serve.
