REFLECTION

FATHER PAUL TURNER

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

2 Samuel 5:1-3

Camelot Restored

Christ is our king. If you live in a country with a king this sounds like treason. If you live in a country without a king it sounds like mutiny. No matter where you live, it sounds like faith.

The image of a king comes primarily from the stories of David, the ideal king of Israel. David ruled many years and his kingship became a kind of Camelot, a perfect period in which the nation flourished and God seemed pleased.

David was flawed, of course. He sinned. He ignored God's word. But God still loved him, and David remained an extraordinary example of leadership.

David began his reign as the successor to Saul. The elders of the people came to David in Hebron and made an agreement with him that he should be their king. Why did they choose David? He had a good war record. He "led the Israelites out and brought them back." He also had a relationship with God, and God appointed him to leadership: "You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel." Because of his exploits and his faith David ruled.

David prefigured the reign of Jesus. Jesus exercised his kingship by his wondrous deeds, spellbinding preaching, and intimate prayer with the Father. There is no king but Jesus. Jesus lived out all that David aspired to be, but without sin.

As we acclaim Christ our King, we do so knowing he is our model of leadership, prayer and power .

REFLECTION

DIVINE MERCY

The Obstacle of Pride

The Lord, in His abundant Mercy, comes to you day and night and joyfully enters your soul when it is open to Him. Even the greatest struggles do not deter our Lord from coming to you. But one thing, especially, keeps our Lord away. And that is pride. Pride is the mother of all sins and, simply put, is selfishness. It's a way of turning in on yourself as your primary concern. The problem with this is that you were made, by God, for the purpose of giving yourself away. It's in your very nature to become a gift to others. And only in giving of yourself to God and to others do you discover who you are and, in that act, you become who you were made to be. So pride, in its attempt to become self-concerned, actually has the effect of destroying you. Pride leaves you with yourself and allows no room for another, not even God (See Diary #1563).

Reflect upon the sin of pride today. Here is an examination for this sin: Pride is an untrue opinion of ourselves, an untrue idea of what we are not. Have I a superior attitude in thinking, or speaking or acting? Am I snobbish? Have I offensive, haughty ways of acting or carrying myself? Do I hold myself above others? Do I demand recognition? Do I desire to be always first? Am I ready to accept advice? Am I in any sense a "bully" or inclined to be "bossy"? Do I speak ill of others? Have I lied about others? Do I make known the faults of others? Is there anyone to whom I have not spoken for a long time? Am I prone to argue and be offensive in my arguments? Am I self-conscious? Am I sensitive? Am I easily wounded? Reflect honestly on these sins today and seek freedom from them.

Lord, please free me from the self-centeredness that comes from pride. May I seek the good of others with all humility and sincerity. Free me from this sin, dear Lord, and help me to give myself away to You and to others, for in giving of myself I know I will find myself. Jesus, I trust in You.

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH FOR NOVEMBER 2025

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
John 14:15

WEEK 4

The 3rd Commandment “Remember to keep holy the Lord’s Day”

In May of 2023, the US Surgeon General declared loneliness as an epidemic and crisis. One of the biggest reasons for loneliness is that society has lost sight of one of the primary purposes of Sundays. A day to gather with family and friends. Fifty years ago, Sundays gave everyone the invitation to drop in on friends for a visit. But now, everyone seems so busy that dropping in for a visit is viewed as an imposition. Even on Sundays. How unfortunate.

Would you like to take back Sundays as they were enjoyed by generations past? Start with freeing up your Sundays by committing to doing all your chores on Saturday or letting them wait until Monday. Next, make a list of friends you would like to reconnect with and, each week, invite them over for an afternoon slice of pie or a game of cards. Reach out to them by a phone call or a video call. Let them know that on Sundays, the welcome mat is always out, and they are welcome to drop by. Think of all the friends you will enjoy over the course of a year, and how grateful they will be for making them feel appreciated.

For a quick overview of the gift of Sunday's, go to www.IfULoveMe.org/ten-commandments or scan the code.

Prayer Intention for November

*In thanksgiving to God for the gift of Sundays.
May the Holy Spirit help us prioritize our Sundays for worship, for rest and for relationship with family and friends.*

Catechism of the Catholic Church

“2266 The State's effort to contain the spread of behaviors injurious to human rights and the fundamental rules of civil coexistence corresponds to the requirement of watching over the common good. Legitimate public authority has the right and duty to inflict penalties commensurate with the gravity of the crime. The primary scope of the penalty is to redress the disorder caused by the offense. When his punishment is voluntarily accepted by the offender, it takes on the value of expiation. Moreover, punishment, in addition to preserving public order and the safety of persons, has a medicinal scope: as far as possible it should contribute to the correction of the offender.”

ST BRIDGET SONS OF MERCY
KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL

Family PRAYER NIGHT

WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 3RD

after the conclusion of 6pm Mass

St Bridget Sons of Mercy Knights of Columbus Council will host a “Family Prayer Night” on Wednesday December 3rd. It will begin immediately after the conclusion of 6pm Mass. There will be group prayers such as the Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, and the Angelus. Also, individual intentions and some special prayers will be recited. All parishioners are welcome to attend and participate.

Family Prayer Night is an opportunity for children to be exposed to regular people living their faith in a casual setting. We hope to strengthen the bonds within our parish and build faith-filled families. This is an opportunity for council members, their families, and the whole parish community to come together for an evening of prayer and fellowship.

There will be a drop box for individual special intentions, located on the oak table in the vestibule. These intentions will be read during our Family Prayer Night.me and pray to me, and I will listen to you.”

Please consider joining us on December 3rd!
