The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12

Waters of Life

When you offer water to someone who is thirsty, you give more than a drink. You give a kindness that can bring peace to the recipient, a peace that inspires other acts of charity. Sometimes a dribble of water can gush into a river of good will.

Ezekiel envisions a trickle of water streaming from the Temple in Jerusalem. This sweet water swells into a mighty river that transforms the salty sea into a place of healing and life. In this vision, the Temple of God provides the source of life and transformation.

We hear this reading on the day we remember the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome, the basilica of St. John Lateran. From that temple has streamed a river of life in the sacraments, the community, and the mission of the church around the world. That river splashes into your church and your home, where you have received the Spirit of God and offered its refreshment to others in need.

Imagine your church as Ezekiel’s Temple. How does the water of life stream from it? How does it touch the homes of your community? How does it reach out to the city? To the needy of the world?

A Mother’s Love

It’s true that no earthly image can fully reveal the perfect love of God. God is transcendent and His love is beyond what this world can contain. But nonetheless, there are many things in this world that do reveal aspects of the love of God. One such image is that of a mother’s love. Though God has been revealed to us as the Father in Heaven and the Son of God came as a man, we can discover much about the love of God from a mother’s love. In fact, it is even appropriate to understand that God is like the tenderest mother to us. Motherhood is sacred because it is part of the natural design of God for humanity. He puts into a mother’s heart a powerful love for her child, offering unwavering commitment. Though no mother is perfect except our Blessed Mother, it’s good to look at the beauty of a mother’s love when using it to understand God. The tenderness and unconditional acceptance of a mother stand out as two aspects that reveal the love of God. God does love you with a perfect motherly love. Though this may not be the most common way to speak of His love, it is of great benefit to ponder this beautiful revelation from creation (See Diary #1490).

How do you see God? Reflect upon your image of God and rely first upon the various images in Scripture. But also ponder the many natural means through which God communicates His love. Ponder, today, especially the love that a mother has for her newborn infant. Reflect upon the unique and powerful draw she has and her unwavering commitment. The Lord loves you infinitely more. Always find comfort in this love.

Lord, I thank You for loving me with a perfect love. I thank You for the gift of motherhood and for the way that You reveal Your unconditional and tender love for me through this gift. Help me to always know of this love and to seek You as an infant seeks a mother. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at <https://divinemercury.life/2025/11/03/reflection-308-a-mothers-love-2/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

I head off for a couple of weeks to hike in the mountains again. Last year as I hiked in the Rocky Mountains in Colorado, it was possibly the best time I had out there. I also had a strong, pervading thought which was, "I'm ready to try something new." To that end, I am still hiking but in the Great Smoky Mountains this time in Tennessee. I have never hiked nor visited these mountains, just driven through them. I appreciate any prayers you may say for me to have a safe trip, and God-Willing, a relaxing and fun one too.

This weekend, thanks to the liturgical calendar of November 9 falling on a Sunday this year, we are celebrating the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica that is found in Rome. According to EWTN, "What is the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica? This feast day celebrates the anniversary of the Dedication of Rome’s Lateran Basilica in 324 A.D. In that year, Pope Sylvester established his cathedral and residence on property given to the Church by the Emperor Constantine. As the Cathedral of the Bishop of Rome and the Pope, it is the highest-ranking church in the world" (<https://missions.ewtn.com/seasonsandfeastdays/dedicationlateranbasilica/>). In other words, this is the pope's church.

It might seem strange to celebrate this particular feast day, yet it reminds us of the immense universality of the Catholic Church, and how we are united under the Vicar for Christ, the pope himself. It's another day to be proud to be a Catholic. Plus, this takes deeper meaning for us now since our current pope is also an American, born and raised in the USA.

Let us all grow ever more united in our awesome Catholic Church, the Church Jesus Christ created, helping each other on the journey of making it to Heaven.

In Christo et Maria,
Father Vogel

Quo Vadis, Latin for, "Where are you going?," was the challenge Christ addressed to Peter as he was fleeing Rome as the persecution of the Church was flaring up. At this retreat, our hope is that you will learn to pray more deeply, open your heart more fully, spend time with vibrant priests and seminarians from our diocese, and interact with other men who, like you, are courageous enough to explore the question: Quo Vadis?

Catechism of the Catholic Church

“755 “The Church is a cultivated field, the tillage of God. On that land the ancient olive tree grows whose holy roots were the prophets and in which the reconciliation of Jews and Gentiles has been brought about and will be brought about again. That land, like a choice vineyard, has been planted by the heavenly cultivator. Yet the true vine is Christ who gives life and fruitfulness to the branches, that is, to us, who through the Church remain in Christ, without whom we can do nothing.”

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
 TO SERVE & TO LIFT

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH FOR NOVEMBER 2025

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
 John 14:15

WEEK 2

The 3rd Commandment
“Remember to keep holy the Lord’s Day”

Unfortunately, our culture has lost sight of the gift of Sundays. Instead of being a day to rest in the love of Jesus and enjoy time with family and friends, Sundays have become a day to get caught up on chores and get ready for the week ahead, leaving us exhausted as we start a new week.

Would you like for life to slow down? Would you like to take back Sundays as a weekly Divine Day of Vacation, as past generations experienced? Would you like to take back your Sundays and experience them as God intended? It is a choice, and the choice is yours. What steps can you take this week to allow you to take advantage of your Divine Day of Vacation this Sunday?

Also, for a variety of fun ways for you and the children in your life to rediscover the Commandments, download the free resources on our Family Resource Page or scan the code.

Prayer Intention for November
In thanksgiving to God for the gift of Sundays. May the Holy Spirit help us prioritize our Sundays for worship, for rest and for relationship with family and friends.

Cross Catholic OUTREACH

Delivering Food, Shelter and Hope to the Poorest of the Poor

November 15th & 16th

Fr. Agwulonu will be visiting our parish next weekend to speak at all the Masses on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach, which was founded to forge a stronger and more supportive link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns serving the poor in the Caribbean, Africa, Southeast Asia, and Central and South America.

A little more about...

OUTREACH PRIEST

Fr. Fidelis Agwulonu

Fr. Fidelis Agwulonu studied philosophy and theology at the Bigard Memorial Seminary in Enugu, Nigeria, and was ordained to the priesthood on August 3, 2002. He has held the post of vice chancellor at the University of Notre Dame in the Democratic Republic of Congo, dean of academics at Unitatis Universitas Salvatoris in Front Royal, Virginia, and professor of liturgical theology at Marian Missionaries Sisters Ad Regnum Dei in Nigeria. In 2023, he joined Marian Missionaries Sisters Ad Regnum Dei as professor of liturgical theology, conducting virtual lectures, and he is also Religious Minister to the Daughters of Mary Mother of Mercy Congregation, USA and Canada. He has authored various books, articles and periodicals and resides in Maryland.

Please welcome the priest visiting our parish next weekend. He comes to us from Cross Catholic Outreach and will share some touching stories about the amazing work Catholic missions are accomplishing worldwide. Since Cross Catholic Outreach empowers existing Catholic missions, its programs are extremely cost-effective, and the vast majority of the resources it collects go into program services that help the poorest of the poor around the world. Cross Catholic OUTREACH

Delivering Food, Shelter and Hope to the Poorest of the Poor

Our Mission

We mobilize the global Catholic Church to transform the poor and their communities materially and spiritually for the glory of Jesus Christ.

How We Serve

Rather than create new institutions to distribute aid, we support existing ministries and churches already serving in developing countries. In addition to this being the most cost-effective way of helping our brothers and sisters in need, empowering these existing ministries also allows us to support the Church's spiritual mission and leadership role in poor communities.

Good Stewardship

We consider every gift we receive as a precious resource from God. We direct every donation to its intended project, provide honest and accurate reports to our donors, and keep overhead costs to an industry low. We handle funds with utmost integrity and hold our ministry partners in the field to the same high standards by asking them to document costs and the impact of their outreach.
