Fourth Sunday of Easter

1 Peter 2:20b-25

Doing Good, Feeling Good

Doing the right thing does not always feel good. You might take a stand for what you believe. Or you go out of your way to assist someone in need. But even in these circumstances, something can still go wrong. Others do not appreciate your sacrifice. You suffer ridicule. You experience loss. You know it is right to do good, but unfairly you do not always feel good.

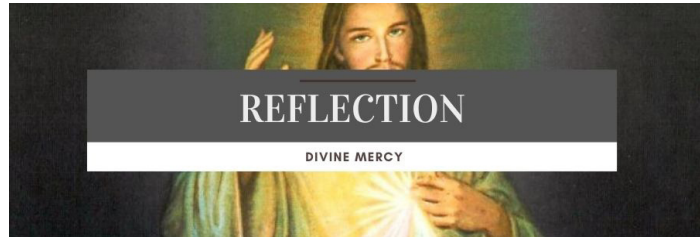

The First Letter of Peter says, "If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called."

The good we do is already a sign of our progress in the spiritual life, even if it does not feel that way. In the past, we may have avoided what is good if it seemed to threaten peace. We might have kept quiet about injustice in the workplace, the offenses of a neighbor, or the inappropriateness of derisive humor. Our silence gave consent. We were like sheep going astray.

But in Christ we know better. We do what is right even if it is unpopular. We speak up for the oppressed. We take time to defend human rights. We act with boldness we did not know before. We obtain this strength for doing good from the Shepherd of sheep, who guides and protects the flock.

Faith in Christ brings comfort and courage. It makes us feel loved, confident, and strong to suffer for doing what is good, even when it is unpopular.

Love of God Increases Our Desire for God

When you love God and rejoice in that love, your desire for God will increase. The more you know Him, the more you will want to know Him, and the more you want to know Him, the more you will know Him. Similarly, the more you love Him, the more you will want to love Him, and the more you want to love Him, the more you will love Him. Finally, the more you serve Him, the more you will want to serve Him, and the more you want to serve Him, the more you will serve Him Knowledge, love and service increase the desire for these, and the increase in desire for these three increases each one (See Diary #525).

Do you want to know, love and serve God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength? Hopefully you do. How is this achieved? It's achieved by growing in these virtues and allowing them to increase your desire for them all the more. Look, today, at your desires. Inquire, within, about the desires of your heart. If you do not see a wholehearted desire to know, love and serve God, then commit yourself to these ends by choosing them. From there, the Lord will take over and direct you in accord with His own merciful Heart.

Lord, increase my desire for You and for Your Divine Will. Help me to know, love and serve You with my whole being. Increase, also, my desire for You in these ways. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at: <https://divinemercury.life/2026/04/21/reflection-112-love-of-god-increases-our-desire-for-god-2/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

Do you love our Lord Jesus Christ? Do you love God?

Our Gospel this weekend is the Good Shepherd Gospel reading that always comes from John 10 on the 4th Sunday of Easter. In this Gospel, we understand more how much God in the Person of Jesus Christ loves us individually. He, Jesus, is the Good Shepherd, and we are the sheep.

In our normal interactions with our family members that we are closest to, we regularly say, "I love you," and rightly so that we do. Do you say the same to our Lord Jesus Christ? Do you say, "I love you" to Jesus?

Love is manifested in different ways, yet the way that is so universal for us human beings using the gift of human speech is uttering those three words: I love you. Just as we say those words frequently with our loved ones, we should be saying "I love you" to our Lord Jesus Christ on a regular basis too. It's a simple, concrete step in showing our love to our Lord, and deepening our relationship with our God in the Person of Jesus Christ.

"I love you, Jesus." Does it sound strange to you for you to say it? Keep at it, and it will not only become normal, it will also fill you up with more of God's love, which is exactly what He wants to do for you.

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

St. Bridget Safety Committee News

A reminder that we have begun to lock the doors to St. Bridget after Mass begins on the weekends. We will monitor the implementation and make adjustments as necessary. The doors will be monitored to allow for those who may arrive a few minutes late. Access to Mass will always be a priority and never be denied. We would remind everyone, that no access from the lower level Ledwidge Hall will be available and that exit from the building will always be available.

We appreciate your cooperation and invite parishioner input so that we can improve the safety of all who attend Mass at St. Bridget.

Thanks,
St. Bridget Safety Committee

Catechism of the Catholic Church

754 "The Church is, accordingly, a sheepfold, the sole and necessary gateway to which is Christ. It is also the flock of which God himself foretold that he would be the shepherd, and whose sheep, even though governed by human shepherds, are unfailingly nourished and led by Christ himself, the Good Shepherd and Prince of Shepherds, who gave his life for his sheep."

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH FOR APRIL 2026

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
John 14:15

WEEK 4

The 8th Commandment "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor"

In today's world where lies, "mis-information", and gossip, have become almost expected, truth has become increasingly hard to find, inciting confusion, mistrust and broken relationships.

God, who is the creator of all things, established truth in everything He created. When He created the solar system, He created the truth of gravity, the order of the days, months and years and all the truth of all the physical laws and the natural laws. And when died for us He created the truth and promise of everlasting life. Therefore, Jesus is justified when He says, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," and logic follows that truth leads us to Jesus and anything that is less than true, leads us away from Him.

For a deeper understanding of this, and all the Commandments, enroll in the God's Recipe for a Wonderful Life study of the Ten Commandments at www.ifuloveme.org/register, or scan the code. Access is free for all St Bridget & St. Patrick Parish members.

Prayer Intention for April
Dear Jesus, help us to persevere in our commitment to truth and in our search for truth, knowing that by doing so, it will lead us to you, who is Truth.
