REFLECTION

FATHER PAUL TURNER

Easter Sunday

Colossians 3:1-4

New Neighbors

Today we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus. He has entered a new neighborhood, and he has made room for us. After three days in the tomb, Jesus rose again to display his power over death—all death, his and ours. The resurrection is a sign of God’s power and of human hope. We have nothing to fear. We trust God’s complete desire to end all misery and to raise us up in glory.

The Letter to the Colossians says, “If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above. ... Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.”

With the resurrection of Jesus, we have moved into a new neighborhood. We no longer live in a place of sin and suffering. We live in hope and glory. We sustain this happy life when we seek what is above, not what is on earth. We contemplate the life of prayer, charity and peacefulness, and not the life of greed, selfishness and hatred. We live in a new place away from the addictions of old.

This Easter day brings immense rejoicing. It also brings expectations. It expects that we who are privileged to live with the risen Christ will keep up the neighborhood. We will have all the help we need from the Spirit who dwells within us. This Easter, let us joyfully think of what is above and place ourselves at the service of the One who will raise us up in glory.

REFLECTION

DIVINE MERCY

Prayer for Another Opens the Door

Only God knows what another truly needs. We cannot read another’s soul unless this special grace were given to us by God. But each of us is called to pray fervently for others. At times, if we are open, God will place on our hearts the need to pray fervently for another. If we feel called to enter into special prayers for another, we may also be surprised to find that God will suddenly open the door for a holy and heartfelt conversation that this person desperately need (See Diary #396).

Has God placed a certain person on your heart? Is there a particular person that often comes to mind? If so, pray for that person and tell God you are ready and willing to be there for that person if it be His Will. Then wait and pray some more. If God so desires, you will find that, at the right time and the right place, your openness to this person could make an eternal difference.

Lord, give me a fervent heart of prayer. Help me to be open to those whom You place in my path. And as I pray for those in need, I make myself available to You to be used as You will. Jesus, I do trust in You .

FR. VOGEL'S COLUMN

PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

He has Risen! The joy of Easter, the conquering of Sin, Death, and Satan himself has happened in the single most important event for all of Mankind and Creation: the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead!

Lent is officially over, our Lent fasting, prayer and almsgiving is done, and we are called to celebrate the immensity of the truth of Jesus' Resurrection.

Recall how each day this week (Easter Sunday through Divine Mercy Sunday, eight days total) is the Octave of Easter. The Catholic Church, the church the same Jesus Who rose from the dead created, tells us that the Resurrection is so important that we are called to celebrate for eight full days, which is known as the Octave of Easter. None of our fellow Christians who are not Catholic do this; Catholicism is the only one, so celebrate my friends because Jesus has won!

As you celebrate Easter on this Easter Sunday and throughout the Octave, recall how blessed are we to have a God Who cares for His creation, Man, so much and desires to have a relationship with each and everyone of us so badly that He not only became Man, but He also died out of love for us, and rose from the dead out of love for us so that we can be with Him forever in this life and in the next.

All Praise, Might, Honor, Glory, and Power to Him Who is the Alpha and the Omega, Conqueror of Sin, Death, and Satan himself, the God-Man our Lord Jesus Christ! Alleluia! Amen! Alleluia!

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

St. Bridget Safety Committee News 04/05/2026

THIS WILL START NEXT WEEKEND!!!

Please Note that beginning the April 11 & 12 weekend at St. Bridget all entry doors will be locked once Mass begins. We will have personnel available to allow entry to latecomers. Absolutely, no entry from Ledwidge Hall will be available. The only entry will be through the Church front doors. For fire safety reasons, exiting the building via any exterior doors will be available. Proceed to the nearest exit without delay.

Stop by to talk about our Blessed Mother!

Heaven may be waiting for you!

Stop by to speak with a member of the Legion of Mary and find out how you can be in heaven one day. Yes, one of the benefits of joining the Legion of Mary ensures its members of this future blessing.

Stop by in the narthex of St. Bridget Church on Saturday, April 18th or Sunday April 19th after the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

See you then. If you cannot make it, call, or text 816-805-3649 for more information and to learn more benefits of belonging to a group with Mary as your guide.

April Prayer Intentions

Bishop Johnston: For the men being called to the priesthood, that they respond with faith and joy to the Lord's call to follow him without fear.

Holy Father: Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.

Catechism of the Catholic Church

“ 441 In the Old Testament, “son of God” is a title given to the angels, the Chosen People, the children of Israel, and their kings. It signifies an adoptive sonship that establishes a relationship of particular intimacy between God and his creature. When the promised Messiah-King is called “son of God”, it does not necessarily imply that he was more than human, according to the literal meaning of these texts. Those who called Jesus “son of God”, as the Messiah of Israel, perhaps meant nothing more than this. ”

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH FOR APRIL 2026

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

John 14:15

WEEK 1

The 8th Commandment

“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor”

Sometimes, lying may seem like the right choice. However, through the Natural Law, lies always have negative consequences such as shame, confusion, mistrust and damaged friendships. Even seemingly small lies can have devastating life-long impacts that span generations.

Alternatively, setting truth and integrity as our standard and moral compass provides clarity, and frees us to experience the joy of friendship, and leads us to Jesus, who is Truth. Hidden beyond the simple words of this Commandment, is a treasure chest of insights that foster friendship, peace, and authentic freedom. For a quick overview of the 8th Commandment, ifuloveme.org/ten-commandments#8th-command-overview, or scan the code.

For a collection of free fun family activities to learn the Commandments, visit www.ifuloveme.org/resources.

Prayer Intention for April

Dear Jesus, help us to persevere in our commitment to truth and in our search for truth, knowing that by doing so, it will lead us to you, who is Truth.

Congratulations

We, the community of St. Bridget Parish and St. Patrick Parish, joyfully welcome all those fully initiated into the Catholic Church on April 4, 2026
