FATHER PAUL TURNER

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Expert Advice

An expert can quickly solve problems you may spend hours trying to figure out. If you cannot get the software to work on your computer, for example, you might waste a lot of time trying to figure out what is wrong. But someone who knows the software can fix it up in a snap. The same is true of everyday crises from car repair to plumbing. Experts seem to have a different kind of wisdom. We are blessed when they share it.

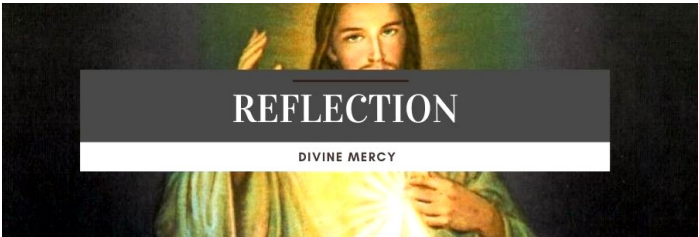

We each have some wisdom we can share, too. Other people need our experience, advice, and love. Each of us has solved some of life's problems in a way that would help some others to know.

It is most true of God. God has a wisdom beyond what we have learned. The puzzles of life cannot be solved by our own experience or reason. Some things we turn over to the maker of life, trusting in the divine plan.

Paul tells the Corinthians, "We speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory." God has prepared things for us that we cannot experience now. Our sight and hearing help us appreciate the world around us, but in the end they will fail. God's goodness is beyond what we can imagine.

When we need an expert, someone to help us solve the puzzles of life, we turn ourselves over to the wisdom of God .

REFLECTION

DIVINE MERCY

The Mercy of Spiritual Friendship

At times we experience life as difficult. Our spiritual life may appear to be dry or overwhelming. Our sins may seem to be too much to overcome. And our relationship with God may appear to be too difficult to foster. But these experiences are all graces that invite us to seek God and His Mercy all the more. One grace we receive, as we need it, is the friendship and guidance God gives us through other people. Look for Jesus in others. Let His Heart reach out to your own in the people He places in your life. God is there, not only in the saint, but also in the sinner. Seek to discover the presence of God in each and every soul (See Diary #53).

Reflect, today, upon the people God has placed in your life. Begin with family but think also about each and every person whom you encounter. Some may be encountered only once, others every day. Know that God dwells in each and every one of them. Do you seek to meet God in each person? Try to look beyond the surface and discover the indwelling of God in them. When you see Him, you will find much more joy in each and every person you meet.

Lord, You promise to come to each one of us and to live within us. Help me to constantly seek Your divine presence in each and every person I meet. Help me to find You in my family and friends, in those at work or within the community. Help me to see You in the stranger I meet in passing and in every soul around me. As I discover You, help me to love You in them . Jesus, I trust in You.

Catechism of the Catholic Church

764 “This Kingdom shines out before men in the word, in the works and in the presence of Christ.” To welcome Jesus' word is to welcome “the Kingdom itself.” The seed and beginning of the Kingdom are the “little flock” of those whom Jesus came to gather around him, the flock whose shepherd he is. They form Jesus' true family. To those whom he thus gathered around him, he taught a new “way of acting” and a prayer of their own.

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH
FOR FEBRUARY 2026

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
John 14:15

WEEK 3

The 6th Commandment
“You shall not commit adultery”

The 6th Commandment is God’s warning about how adultery destroys what is good and enslaves those who are caught in its chains. Once someone is caught in adultery’s vicious cycle of slavery and destruction, it is only through the grace of Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross, and a proper understanding of God’s true plan for our bodies that one is restored to freedom.

The 6th Commandment calls us to the virtue of Chastity, the spiritual muscle to become a master of our minds, hearts, and our body. With God’s grace and a full understanding of His plan for our body, we can freely choose authentic freedom and happiness over the chains of lust.

For a deeper understanding of the 6th Commandment, enroll in the God’s Recipe for a Wonderful Life study of the Ten Commandments at IfULoveMe.org/register, (or scan the code) by clicking your parish/school name in the list. Access is free for all St Patrick Parish members.
