Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Checking the Roadmap

If you veer off course, you check the map or get directions. If you want to get to your destination, you need to remember where your destination is. It also helps to remember why you are going there, in case you get tired along the way.

St. Paul wrote letters to the Corinthians in Greece because they were getting off course. He reminded them about the basics of the Christian life, and answered a few of their specific questions. Paul had spent a year and a half with this community on his missionary journeys. He stayed at the home of Aquila and Priscilla, who had emigrated there from Rome during the persecution of Claudius. Paul shared faith, ethnicity, and occupation with Aquila: They were tentmakers (Acts 18:1-11).

Now Paul had moved on, but some problems had surfaced with this community after he left. Now he sat down with his friend Sosthenes and wrote a letter to the Corinthians.

He starts with a brief glimpse at the roadmap. He writes the letter “to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.” There was bickering within the church at Corinth. People complained about everything from liturgy to hair to food. Paul reminded them that they are holy and all who believe in Christ are holy. Whenever any church community veers off course, it’s good to look back at the map .

An Invitation Within the Silence

Within our souls we must seek to hear God speak. He speaks in the silence and in the depths. He speaks, first, an invitation. He speaks an invitation to know Him and to encounter The Divine Mercy flowing from His Heart. The invitation is only that: an invitation. Jesus’ Mercy is not imposed or forced. For that reason, the invitation requires a response and our response will determine the depth of Mercy we open ourselves up to receive. The response must be that of loving and holy obedience to Him Whom we hear speaking (See Diary #7).

Ponder two things: 1) Do I hear the invitation from Jesus to receive His Mercy? Hearing is the first step. Without hearing we cannot respond. 2) How do I respond to that invitation when I hear it? Am I willing to accept it on the deep and all-consuming level that it was offered? If so, it will change your life.

Lord, I know You constantly speak to me in the silent depths of my soul. Help me to be attentive to Your voice amidst the noise of this world. And as I hear You speak, help me to be generous in my response accepting Your gift of unlimited Mercy and grace. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at <https://divinemercy.life/2026/01/12/reflection-13-an-invitation-within-the-silence/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

The excitement of Christmas, the Octave of Christmas, Mary Mother of God Solemnity, and the Christmas Season have all concluded. We are now in the interesting interval of Ordinary Time that is between the Christmas Season and the Season of Lent. It is a time for us to look ahead and plan for Lent. That may sound awkward to some, but it is a great time to focus on what one should observe during Lent so that when Ash Wednesday rolls around, we are not playing "catch up" in figuring out what we should observe during Lent.

To help, I will propose a series of questions and comments. Your answers may help you to solidify what you should observe during Lent so as to make it the most fruitful one for yourself.

What have I done well in past Lents? What have I not done well in past Lents? What am I lacking in my life? Is it my prayer (s), such as not doing them? Not good quality in my prayers? Do I ever visit our Lord in the Eucharist outside of weekend Mass? If no, why not? Can I change that? Do I do any form of daily or weekly spiritual reading, whether a book by a saint, the Bible, or the daily Mass Readings?

Do I ever fast outside of the obligatory days of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday? Should I fast from one meal on a particular day every week? Or the whole day? Should I fast from social media for 24 hours every week? Should I put my phone on "Do Not Disturb" in the evenings so I can be more with my family?"

Do I ever give alms? Have I ever helped in a soup kitchen? A thrift store? A food pantry? Have I given to a charity? (As a heads up, we are planning on doing a parish effort between both St. Bridget and St. Patrick parishes for this Lent to raise $10,000 for the Benedictine nuns in Gower, MO).

How can I improve my quality of life? How can I grow in a particular virtue (i.e. chastity, humility, patience, perseverance, etc.)? Do I go to Confession minimally once a month? If not, how can I fix that?

We have approximately one month until Ash Wednesday arrives and we begin Lent. With a month of preparation, now is the perfect time to start contemplating and praying on what one should observe during this upcoming Lent so it may be the most fruitful Lent one has ever experienced yet..

In Christo et Maria,
Father Vogel

Catechism of the Catholic Church

“ 64 Through the prophets, God forms his people in the hope of salvation, in the expectation of a new and everlasting Covenant intended for all, to be written on their hearts. The prophets proclaim a radical redemption of the People of God, purification from all their infidelities, a salvation which will include all the nations. Above all, the poor and humble of the Lord will bear this hope. Such holy women as Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, Judith and Esther kept alive the hope of Israel's salvation. the purest figure among them is Mary. ”

John 14:15

WEEK 3

The 5th Commandment
"You Shall Not Kill"

The Commandment of the Month for January emphasizes the sacred nature of life. To impress upon your children the sacredness and miracle of life, we encourage you and your family to spiritually adopt a baby. You decide if your baby is a boy or a girl, choose a name and decide on your baby's birthday. Over nine months, your family will observe the miracle of creation as it develops month by month. Just as you would for any unborn baby, include the baby, and its mother and father in your family prayers. Then, on the big day, celebrate your baby's birth with a party. Invite other family members and friends. Include baby gifts that will be donated to a local pregnancy resource center or adoption agency. Make their birthday an annual celebration to be reminded of the miracle of God's gift of life.

To make your spiritual adoption fun and easy, instructions with adoption certificates, posters, prayer cards and birth certificates are provided for free at IfULoveMe.org/SpiritualAdoption, or scan the code.

Prayer Intention for January
